The Woman in the Rain Arthur Stringer, 1907 Sappho's Lyre Diane J. Rayor, 1991-08-22 Sappho sang her poetry to the accompaniment of the lyre on the Greek island of Lesbos over 2500 years ago Throughout the Greek world her contemporaries composed lyric poetry full of passion and in the centuries that followed the golden age of archaic lyric new forms of poetry emerged In this unique anthology today's reader can enjoy the works of seventeen poets including a selection of archaic lyric and the complete surviving works of the ancient Greek women poets the latter appearing together in one volume for the first time Sappho's Lyre is a combination of diligent research and poetic artistry The translations are based on the most recent discoveries of papyri including new Archilochos and Stesichoros and the latest editions and scholarship The introduction and notes provide historical and literary contexts that make this ancient poetry more accessible to modern readers Although this book is primarily aimed at the reader who does not know Greek it would be a splendid supplement to a Greek language course It will also have wide appeal for readers of ancient literature women's studies mythology and lovers of poetry Sketches of a Yachting Cruise,... Ernest Gambier-Parry, 1889 Sappho's Legacy Marina

Karides, 2021-04-01 Winner of the 2023 Gourmand Cookbook Award for Greece in the Women Category Imaginatively interweaving literatures across a variety of subjects Sappho's Legacy identifies the crucial role that islands and Greek economic culture play in teaching about capitalism's failures and alternatives Marina Karides delivers a historical and ethnographic account of food cooperatives and microenterprises on the Greek island of Lesbos following the 2008 financial crisis to reveal the success stories of grassroots traditional and community centered economics organized by people marginalized on the basis of gender sexuality and ethnicity Karides offers hope to others who are working against the tide of neoliberalism and heteropatriarchy to develop alternative or convivial economic practices that serve communities by providing a trail of rhythms from ancient times to the present that showcase Greece's historical resistance Greta Garbo David Bret, 2012-06-25 In the male oriented studio system Greta Garbo wielded a power no other actress has ever possessed before or since Be it producer director lover or journalist Garbo called the shots and when she decided that she was done with the whirlwind of life as Hollywood's darling she withdrew completely leaving her public begging for an encore that never came Though there have been numerous biographies of Garbo this is the first to investigate fully the two so called missing periods in the life of this most enigmatic of Hollywood stars the first during the late 1920s forcing MGM to employ a lookalike to conceal what was almost certainly a pregnancy the second during World War II when Garbo was employed by British Intelligence to track down Nazi sympathisers It also analyses in detail the original uncensored copies of Garbo's films with the exception of The Divine Woman of which no complete print survives and offers substantial evidence that John Gilbert was not in fact the great love of her life Rather her true affections lay with the gay Sapphic and Scandinavian members of her very intimate inner circle Using previously unsourced material along with anecdotes from friends and colleagues that have never before been published David Bret paints a rounded portrait of Garbo's childhood in Sweden her rise to stardom and her all too brief reign as queen of MGM Hers is a truly remarkable story recounted here with warmth intensity and unique insight

Fables of the Self Rosanna Warren, 2008 Fables of the Self traces ideas of imagined selfhood through the lyric poetry of classical Greece and Rome the modernist poetry of France and modern and contemporary English and American lyrics Rosanna Warren's work emerges from the tradition of British and American poet critics such as William Empson Donald Davie and Randall Jarrell Her readings of Sappho Virgil Baudelaire Melville Rimbaud Mark Strand and Louise Glück among others combine Helen Vendler's passionate attention to detail and something of Harold Bloom's panoramic view Warren opposes both the literalizing autobiographical approach to self in so called confessional poetry and the other extreme of avant garde erasures of self Framing her critical studies between a memoir of childhood and a concluding journal entry Warren has composed an occult autobiography showing the imagination as a transfiguring and potentially moral force
