conservation in the built environment provides a unique holistic view on the understanding of the practice of conservation connecting it with wider societal and political forces UK practice is used as a means along with international examples for bringing together a real understanding of practice with a social science analysis of the issues The author introduces ideas about the meanings and values attached to historic environments and how that translates into public policies of conservation

Rodinsky's Room Iain Sinclair,Rachel Lichtenstein,2014-10-02 Rodinsky s world was that of the East European Jewry cabbalistic speculation an obsession with language as code and terrible loss He touched the imagination of artist Rachel Lichtenstein whose grandparents had left Poland in the 1930s This text weaves together Lichtenstein s quest for Rodinsky which took her to Poland to Israel and around Jewish London with Iain Sinclair s meditations on her journey into her own past and on the Whitechapel he has reinvented in his own writing Rodinsky s Room is a testament to a world that has all but vanished a homage to a unique culture and way of life Edge of Empire Jane M. Jacobs,2002-09-11 Edge of Empire examines struggles over urban space in three contemporary first world cities in an attempt to map the real geographies of colonialism and postcolonialism as manifest in modern society From London the one time heart of the empire to Perth and Brisbane scenes of Aboriginal claims for the sacred in the space of the modern city Jacobs emphasises the global geography of the local and unravels the spatialised cultural politics of postcolonial processes Edge of Empire forms the basis for understanding imperialism over space and time and is a recognition of the unruly spatial politics of race and nation nature and culture past and present The Saving of Spitalfields ,1989 A Journey Through Ruins Patrick Wright,2009-02-26 A unique evocation of Britain at the height of Margaret Thatcher s rule A Journey Through Ruins views the transformation of the country through the unexpected prism of every day life in East London Written at a time when the looming but still unfinished tower of Canary Wharf was still wrapped in protective blue plastic its cast of characters includes council tenants trapped in disintegrating tower blocks depressed gentrifiers worrying about negative equity metal detectorists sharp eyed estate agents and management consultants and even Prince Charles Cutting through the teeming surface of London it investigates a number of wider themes the rise and dramatic fall of council housing the coming of privatization the changing memory of the Second World War once used to justify post war urban development and reform but now seen as a sacrifice betrayed

Written half a century after the blitz the book reviews the rise and fall of the London of the post war settlement It remains one of the very best accounts of what it was like to livethrough the Thatcher years London in the Twentieth Century Jerry White,2009-11-10 Jerry White s London in the Twentieth Century Winner of the Wolfson Prize is a masterful account of the city s most tumultuous century by its leading expert In 1901 no other city matched London in size wealth and grandeur Yet it was also a city where poverty and disease were rife For its inhabitants such contradictions and diversity were the defining experience of the next century of dazzling change In the worlds of work and popular culture politics and crime through war immigration and sexual revolution Jerry White s richly detailed and captivating history shows how the city shaped their lives and how it in turn was shaped by them Ethnologia Europaea Vol. 34:2 Gösta Arvastson,Tim Butler,2004 Ethnologia Europaea has set itself the task of breaking down not only the barriers which divide research into Europe from general ethnology but also the barriers between the various national schools within the continent With this manifesto Ethnologia Europaea was started in 1969 Since then it has acquired a central position in the international co operation between ethnologists in the various European countries in the East as well as in the West It is however a journal of topical interest not only for ethnologists but also for anthropologists social historians and others studying the social and cultural forms of everyday life in recent and historical European societies Crossrail Bill Great Britain: Parliament: Select Committee on the Crossrail Bill,2007-10-23 This report sets out the Committee s recommendations on the Crossrail Bill published as HCB 2 session 2006 07 ISBN 0215707877 following a number of public hearings and consideration of cases presented on petitions made against the Bill and against additional provisions deposited by the Government As a result of these considerations the Committee has made certain amendments to the Bill to meet or partially cover the requirements of Petitioners where judged appropriate There are also a number of issues where the Committee has made recommendations or suggested a course of action to the Promoter of the Bill instead of making an amendment to the Bill The Committee has only commented on cases where it is deemed necessary in all other cases the Committee was satisfied with the undertakings and assurances offered by the Promoter to the Petitioner American Phoenix Sarah S. Kilborne,2012-10-16 The incredible story of nineteenth century millionaire William Skinner a leading founder of the American silk industry who lost everything in a devastating flood and his improbable inspiring comeback to the pinnacle of the business world In 1845 a young penniless William Skinner sailed in steerage class on a boat that took him from the slums of London to the United States Endowed with rare knowledge in the art of dyeing and an uncanny business sense he acquired work in a fledgling silk mill in Massachusetts quickly rising to prominence in the nation s new luxury industry Soon he opened his own factory and began turning out one of the bestselling silk brands in the country Skinner was lauded as a pioneer in the textile industry and a manufacturer who knew no such word as fail His business grew to sustain a bustling community filled with men women and children living and working in the mill village of Skinner ville producing the country s most glamorous fashionable thread Then in 1874 disaster struck Hundreds of millions of gallons of water burst through a nearby dam destroying everything in its path including Skinnerville Within fifteen minutes Skinner s entire life s work was swept away and he found himself one of the central figures in the worst industrial disaster the nation had yet known In this gripping narrative history Skinner s great great granddaughter Sarah S Kilborne tells an inspiring unforgettable American story of a town devastated by unimaginable catastrophe an industry that had no reason to succeed except for the perseverance of a few intrepid entrepreneurs and a man who had nothing and everything to lose as he struggled and succeeded to rebuild his life for a second time American Phoenix offers a new twist on the American dream reminding us that just when we thought the dream was over it may have only just begun

Multicultures and Cities Gösta Arvastson,Tim Butler,2006 In the planning of city development it is important that different groups should be able to live in peaceful coexistence This is how the concept multicultural came about During the 1970s multiculturalism was developed into a model of political democracy a strategy for society s rapid change The term multiculturalism suggests that contemporary urban cultures somehow co exist in a condition of mutual respect and possible equality The new multiculturalism seems very different from the migration that took place in the 1960s and 1970s The essays in this collection address the general themes of ethnicity and contemporary European urbanism in many different ways examining a wide variety of cities and city pairings The common bond in these writings is the impact that a contemporary merging of ethnicity and culture is having on the new urbanity that is now widely accepted as driving the new Europe The effect is far greater than might be predicted from the relative social powerlessness of many of the bearers of these cultures At the same time existing urban processes continue to ensure the marginality of these groups

The Conservation Movement Miles Glendinning,2013 Winner of the 2016 Antoinette Forrester Downing Award presented by the Society of Architectural Historians In many cities across the world particularly in Europe old buildings form a prominent part of the built environment and we often take it for granted that their contribution is intrinsically positive How has that widely shared belief come about and is its continued general acceptance inevitable Certainly ancient structures have long been treated with care and reverence in many societies including classical Rome and Greece But only in modern Europe and America in the last two centuries has this care been elaborated and energised into a forceful dynamic ideology a Conservation Movement infused with a sense of historical destiny and loss that paradoxically shared many of the characteristics of Enlightenment modernity The close inter relationship between conservation and modern civilisation was most dramatically heightened in periods of war or social upheaval beginning with the French Revolution and rising to a tragic climax in the 20th century age of totalitarian extremism more recently the troubled relationship of heritage and global commercialism has become dominant Miles Glendinning s new book authoritatively presents for the first time the entire history of this architectural Conservation Movement and traces its dramatic fluctuations in ideas and popularity ending by questioning whether its recent international ascendancy can last indefinitely

The Jewish Heritage in British History Tony Kushner, 2012-11-12 In the contemporary British context heritage is a highly politicized and contentious term Tony Kushner writes in his introduction to this edited collection of essays on the subject of Jewish heritage thus setting the tone for a book as much interested in the preservation as it is the understanding of this culture This book provides a more theoretical framework for the pursuit of Jewish historiography and heritage preservation in Britain The essays collected here look both to the past and to the future discussing the nature of the Jewish heritage that has already been produced and looking toward possibilities of future development Kushner has collected a wide range of subjects from social history to architecture to the question of Jewish women This book will be of interest to students of social history and ethnic studies particularly Jewish history in London and Manchester It will be also of some use to those interested in architecture

The Jewish Heritage in British History Antony Robin Jeremy Kushner, 1992 First Published in 1992 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Building Britannia Steven Parissien, 2023-11-16 An ambitious history of Britain told through the stories of twenty five notable structures from the Iron Age fortification of Maiden Castle in Dorset to the Gherkin Building Britannia is a chronicle of social political and economic change seen through the prism of the country's built environment but also a sequence of closely observed studies of a series of intrinsically remarkable structures some of them beautiful or otherwise imposing some of them more coldly functional all of them with richly fascinating stories to tell Steven Parissien tells both a national story tracing how a growing sense of British nationhood was expressed through the country's architecture and also examines how these structures were used by later generations to signpost mythologise or remake British history Rubbing shoulders with some expected building choices the Roman baths at Aquae Sulis the early Gothic splendour of Lincoln Cathedral and the Tudor jewel that is Little Moreton Hall are some striking inclusions that promise to open doors into what will be for many readers less familiar areas of social history these include The Briton's Protection a Regency pub close in Manchester city centre and the Edwardian Baroque Electric Cinema in Notting Hill one of the country's oldest working cinemas Thus as well as identifying the relevance of certain iconic structures to the unfolding of the national story Building Britannia finds fascination and meaning in the everyday and the disregarded

Capital Histories Patricia L. Garside, 2019-01-15 First published in 1998 this book reprints eight articles from The London Journal covering the history of London from the middle ages to the twentieth century Each is an extensive bibliographical essay updated by the individual contributors for this anthology The book comes with a new introduction from a previous editor of the journal Patricia Garside and also with a specially commissioned guide to sources for London history and the libraries and special collections that house them The London Journal was founded in 1975 to provide a forum for the study of London history an eclectic and multi disciplinary field As well as articles based on original research The London Journal has carried notes and comments viewpoint and review articles and general surveys of particular aspects of London life In the past few decades the specialist literature on London has become extensive intricate and dense The opportunity for a systematic review of this literature presented itself on the twentieth anniversary of the founding of The London Journal and the core of the work presented here first appeared in Volume 20 2 November 1995 Each of the authors specialists in one of seven periods from Roman to contemporary times was asked to evaluate the literature that had appeared in their field of London expertise during the last 20 years For this book each contribution has been updated where possible to take account of the very latest publications
