Secular Theology:

Secular Theology Clayton Crockett, 2021-12-24 Secular Theology brings together new writings by some of America's most influential theological and religious thinkers on the viability of secular theology. Critically assessing Radical Orthodoxy and putting American radical theology in context, it provides new resources for philosophical theology. Themes covered include postmodern theology, ethics, psychoanalysis, the death of God, and medieval theology. Christian Theology and the Secular University Paul A. Macdonald, Jr., 2017-02-24 If the secular university by definition is non-sectarian or non-denominational, then how can it accommodate a discipline like Christian theology? Doesn't the traditional goal of theological study, which is to attain knowledge of the divine, fundamentally conflict with the main goal of secular academic study, which is to attain knowledge about ourselves and the world in which we live? So why should theology be admitted or even care about being admitted into secular academic life? And even if theology were admitted, what contribution to secular academic life could it make? Working from a Christian philosophical and theological perspective but also engaging a wide range of theologians, philosophers, and religious studies scholars, Christian Theology and the Secular University takes on these questions, arguing that Christian theology does belong in the secular university because it provides distinct resources that the secular university needs if it is going to fulfill what should be its main epistemic and educative ends. This book offers a fresh and unique perspective to scholars working in the disciplines of theology, philosophy, and religious studies, and to those in other academic disciplines who are interested in thinking critically and creatively about the place and nature of theological study within the secular university. Christian Theology and the Secular University Paul A. Distinguished scholar Amos Funkenstein explores the metaphysical foundations of modern science and shows how by the 1600s theological and scientific thinking had become almost one. Major figures like Descartes, Leibniz, Newton and others developed an unprecedented secular theology whose debt to medieval and scholastic thought shaped the trajectory of the scientific revolution. The book ends with Funkenstein's influential analysis of the seventeenth century's unprecedented fusion of scientific and religious language. Featuring a new foreword, Theology and the Scientific Imagination is a pathbreaking and classic work that remains a fundamental resource for historians and philosophers of science. The Rebellious No Noëlle Vahanian, 2014-03-03 This book aims to renew theological thinking by extending and radicalizing an iconoclastic and existentialist mode of thought. It proposes a theology whose point of departure assumes and accepts the critiques of religion launched by Nietzsche, Freud, Marx and Feuerbach but nevertheless takes theological desire seriously as a rebellious force working within but against an anthropomorphic phallogocentric worldview. As a theology of language it does not claim any privileged access to some transcendent divine essence or ground of Being. On the contrary, for Noëlle Vahanian, theology is a strictly secular discourse like any other discourse but aware of its limitations and wary of great promises its own included. Its faith is that this secular theological desire can be a force against the constitutive indifference of thought and it is a meditative act of rebellion. Aphoristic instead of argumentative, this book offers an original and constructive engagement with such seminal issues as indifference, belief, madness and love. The Coloniality of the Secular Yountae An, 2023-12-15 In The Coloniality of the Secular, An Yountae investigates the collusive ties between the modern concepts of the secular, religion, race and coloniality in the Americas. Drawing on the work of Édouard Glissant, Frantz Fanon, Aimé Césaire, Sylvia Wynter and Enrique Dussel, An maps the intersections of revolutionary non-Western thought with religious ideas to show how decoloniality redefines the sacred as an integral part of its liberation vision. He examines these thinkers' rejection of colonial religions and interrogates the narrow conception of religion that confines it within colonial power structures. An explores decoloniality's conception of the sacred in relation to revolutionary violence, gender, creolization and racial phenomenology, demonstrating its potential for reshaping religious paradigms. Pointing out that the secular has been pivotal to regulating racial hierarchies under colonialism, he advocates for a broader understanding of religion that captures the fundamental ideas that drive decolonial thinking. By examining how decolonial theory incorporates the sacred into its vision of liberation, An invites readers to rethink the transformative power of decoloniality and religion to build a hopeful future. Modern Christian Theology Christopher Ben Simpson, 2020-01-09 Christopher Ben Simpson tells the story of modern Christian theology against the backdrop of the history of modernity itself. The book tells the many ways that theology became modern while seeing how modernity arose in no small part from theology. These intertwined stories progress through four parts. In Part I, Emerging Modernity, Simpson goes from the beginnings of modernity in the late Middle Ages through the Protestant Reformation and Renaissance Humanism to the creative tension between Enlightenment and Awakenings of the eighteenth century. Part II

The Long Nineteenth Century presents the great movements and figures arising out of these creative tension from Romanticism and Schleiermacher to Ritschlianism and Vatican I Part III Twentieth Century Crisis and Modernity proceeds through the revolutionary theologies of period of the World Wars such as that of Karl Barth or nouvelle theologie this part includes a thorough section on modern Eastern Orthodox theology Finally Part IV The Late Modern Supernova lays out the diverse panoply of recent theologies from the various liberation theologies to the revisionist the secular the postliberal and the postsecular Designed for classroom use this volume includes the following features boxes chart diagrams visual organizations of the information presented included throughout e g lists of key points visual organizations of systematic ideas in a given thinker lists of significant works lists of significant dates brief outlines of the basic structure of some major theological works both a one page chapter title table of the contents and an expanded multipage table of contents chapter at a glance overview outline at the beginning of each chapter specific references to secondary works and key primary works in English translation at the end of chapters Spirit and the Obligation of Social Flesh Sharon V. Betcher, 2013-11-11 Drawing on philosophical reflection spiritual and religious values and somatic practice Spirit and the Obligation of Social Flesh offers guidance for moving amidst the affective dynamics that animate the streets of the global cities now amassing around our planet Here theology turns decidedly secular In urban medieval Europe seculars were uncloistered persons who carried their spiritual passion and sense of an obligated life into daily circumambulations of the city Seculars lived in the city on behalf of the city but contrary to the new profit economy of the time with a different locus of value spirit Betcher argues that for seculars today the possibility of a devoted life the practice of felicity in history still remains Spirit now names a necessary prosthesis a locus for regenerating the elemental commons of our interdependent flesh and thus for cultivating spacious and fearless empathy forbearance and generosity Her theological poetics though based in Christianity are frequently in conversation with other religions resident in our postcolonial cities The Fountain Don Cupitt, 2014-07-28 Everywhere Tradition is collapsing Local fundamentalist reactions hailed by some as evidence that God is back cannot hope to stem the flood In our time Don Cupitt says religion is no longer about gaining immortality or the forgiveness of our sins it is about becoming reconciled to our life s transience to time and death Evangelical Dictionary of Theology Walter A. Elwell, 2001-05 This thoroughly updated edition of a standard reference tool covers systematic historical and philosophical theology as well as theological ethics The Palgrave Handbook of Radical Theology Christopher D. Rodkey, Jordan E. Miller, 2018-10-10 The Palgrave Handbook of Radical Theology is the definitive guide to radical theology and the commencement for new directions in that field For the first time radical theology is addressed and assessed in a single comprehensive volume including introductory and historical essays for the beginner essays on major figures and their thought and shorter articles on various themes concepts and related topics This book is a seminal work for the radical theology movement It clarifies origins and demonstrates the exigency and utility of current figures and issues A useful and essential guide for newcomers and veterans in the field this volume serves as both a reference work and an introduction to omitted or forgotten topics within contemporary discussions Christianity and the Secular Robert A. Markus, 2006-02-28

The history of Christianity has been marked by tension between ideas of sacred and secular their shifting balance and their conflict In Christianity and the Secular Robert A Markus examines the place of the secular in Christianity locating the origins of the concept in the New Testament and early Christianity and describing its emergence as a problem for Christianity following the recognition of Christianity as an established religion then the officially enforced religion of the Roman Empire Markus focuses especially on the new conditions engendered by the Christianization of the Roman Empire In the period between the apostolic age and Constantine the problem of the relation between Christianity and secular society and culture was suppressed for the faithful Christians saw themselves as sharply distinct in if not separate from the society of their non Christian fellows Markus argues that when the autonomy of the secular realm came under threat in the Christianised Roman Empire after Constantine Christians were forced to confront the problem of adjusting themselves to the culture and society of the new regime Markus identifies Augustine of Hippo as the outstanding critic of the ideology of a Christian empire that had developed by the end of the fourth century and in the time of the Theodosian emperors and as the principal defender of a place for the secular within a Christian interpretation of the world and of history Markus traces the eclipse of this idea at the end of antiquity and during the Christian Middle Ages concluding with its rehabilitation by Pope John XXIII and the second Vatican Council Of interest to scholars of religion theology and patristics Markus s genealogy of an authentic Christian concept of the secular is sure to generate widespread discussion Theology as Repetition Stephen Foster, 2019-11-07

Theology as Repetition revisits and argues for a revival of John Macquarrie s philosophical theology Macquarrie was a key twentieth century theological voice and was considered a foremost interpreter and translator of Martin Heidegger s philosophy He then somehow fell from view Macquarrie developed a new style of theology grounded in a dialectical phenomenology that is a relevant voice in responding to recent trends in theology The development of the book is partly chronological and partly thematic and avoids attempting to be either deductive or inductive in argument but rather reflects Macquarrie s phenomenologically styled new theology Theology as Repetition is set out in two parts The first part situates Macquarrie in relation to thinkers from the radical theology of the 1960s through to the postmodernists of the late twentieth century The second part explores the intersection of key themes in Macquarrie s theology with the thinking of Kant Hegel Heidegger and representative postsecular and postmodern figures including but not limited to Emmanuel Levinas Jacques Derrida and Jean Luc Marion Introducing Radical Orthodoxy James K. A. Smith, 2004-12 Provides a helpful overview of Radical Orthodoxy highlights its areas of agreement with Reformed theology and assesses its value as a truly postmodern theology Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, Library of Congress. Subject Cataloging Division, Library of Congress. Office for Subject Cataloging Policy, 2013 Secular Theories on Religion Tim Jensen, Mikael

Rothstein,2000 Scholars of religious studies from Europe and North America explore what a secular or scientific study of religion should be like what methods it should apply what aims and what kind of scientific thinking should be pursued They also consider scholars as public intellectuals operating within and influenced by general societal developments The 18 essays provide a survey of current thinking in the field Distributed in the US by ISBS c Book News Inc Library of Congress Subject Headings: P-Z Library of Congress. Subject Cataloging Division,1989 Theology on a Defiant Earth Jonathan Cole,Peter Walker,2022-11-01 Humanity operates like a force of nature capable of affecting the destiny of the Earth System This epochal shift profoundly alters the relationship between humankind and the Earth presenting the conscious thinking human animal with an unprecedented dilemma As human power has grown over the Earth so has the power of nature to extinguish human life The emergence of the Anthropocene has settled any question of the place of human beings in the world we stand inescapably at its center The outstanding question which forms the impetus and focus for this book remains What kind of human being stands at the center of the world And what is the nature of that world Unlike the scientific fact of human centeredness this is a moral question a question that brings theology within the scope of reflection on the critical failures of human irresponsibility Much of Christian theology has so far flunked the test of engaging the reality of the Anthropocene The authors of these original essays begin with the premise that it is time to push harder at the questions the Anthropocene poses for people of faith Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Subject Cataloging Division,1980

Radical Political Theology Clayton Crockett,2013-10-01 In the 1960s the strict opposition between the religious and the secular began to break down blurring the distinction between political philosophy and political theology This collapse contributed to the decline of modern liberalism which supported a neutral value free space for capitalism It also deeply unsettled political religious and philosophical realms forced to confront the conceptual stakes of a return to religion Gamely intervening in a contest that defies simple resolutions Clayton Crockett conceives of the postmodern convergence of the secular and the religious as a basis for emancipatory political thought Engaging themes of sovereignty democracy potentiality law and event from a religious and political point of view Crockett articulates a theological vision that responds to our contemporary world and its theo political realities Specifically he claims we should think about God and the state in terms of potentiality rather than sovereign power Deploying new concepts such as Slavoj i ek s idea of parallax and Catherine Malabou s notion of plasticity his argument engages with debates over the nature and status of religion ideology and messianism Tangling with the work of Derrida Deleuze Spinoza Antonio Negri Giorgio Agamben Alain Badiou John D Caputo and Catherine Keller Crockett concludes with a reconsideration of democracy as a form of political thought and religious practice underscoring its ties to modern liberal capitalism while also envisioning a more authentic democracy unconstrained by those ties
