The authors combine an operational theory of regional security with an empirical application across the whole of the international system Individual chapters cover Africa the Balkans CIS Europe East Asia EU Europe the Middle East North America South America and South Asia The main focus is on the post Cold War period but the history of each regional security complex is traced back to its beginnings By relating the regional dynamics of security to current debates about the global power structure the authors unfold a distinctive interpretation of post Cold War international security avoiding both the extreme oversimplifications of the unipolar view and the extreme deterritorialisations of many globalist visions of a new world disorder Their framework brings out the radical diversity of security dynamics in different parts of the world Well-Oiled Diplomacy Adam N. Stulberg, As a window into understanding the relationship between globalization and the pursuit of national security Adam N Stulberg examines Russia's mixed success at leveraging energy advantages in Eurasia from 1992 to 2002 Stulberg supplements
