Psychobiography James William Anderson, 2024 Psychobiography is the study through a psychological lens of influential and important figures in history politics literature and other fields A psychological approach is necessary to reveal what moves and motivates these people Many psychobiographies have been faulty because they throw psychological jargon at their subjects and treat them simplistically Anderson shows how to study psychobiographical subjects sensitively and compellingly Writing an Icon Anita Jarczok, 2017-02-15 Ana's Nin the diarist novelist and provocateur occupied a singular space in twentieth century culture not only as a literary figure and voice of female sexual liberation but as a celebrity and symbol of shifting social mores in postwar America Before Madonna and her many imitators there was Nin yet until now there has been no major study of Nin as a celebrity figure In Writing an Icon Anita Jarczok reveals how Nin carefully crafted her literary and public personae which she rewrote and restyled to suit her needs and desires When the first volume of her diary was published in 1966 Nin became a celebrity notorious beyond the artistic and literary circles in which she previously had operated Jarczok examines the ways in which the American media appropriated and deconstructed Nin and analyzes the influence of Nin's guiding hand in their construction of her public persona The key to understanding Nin's celebrity in its shifting forms Jarczok contends is the Diary itself the principal vehicle through which her image has been mediated Combining the perspectives of narrative and cultural studies Jarczok traces the trajectory of Nin's celebrity the reception of her writings The result is an innovative investigation of the dynamic relationships of Nin's writing identity public image and consumer culture
