

The book cover features a dark, atmospheric photograph of a city at night. In the background, several tall, illuminated skyscrapers rise against a deep blue sky. In the foreground, a bridge or highway is visible, with blurred streaks of red and yellow light from moving vehicles, suggesting a long-exposure shot. The overall mood is urban and contemplative.

Seduction Of Place The City In The Twenty First Century And Beyond:

Architecture, Ethics, and the Personhood of Place Gregory Caicco, 2007 Architecture and environmental design are among the last professional fields to develop a sustained and nuanced discussion concerning ethics Hemmed in by politics and powerful clients on one side and the often unscrupulous practices of the construction industry on the other environmental designers have been traditionally reluctant to address ethical issues head on And yet the rapid urbanization of the world's population continues to swell into new megacities each less healthy welcoming secure or environmentally sustainable than the next Green carbon reduced and sustainable building practices are important ways architects have recently responded to the symptoms of the crisis but are these efforts really addressing the core issues Taking the Dine Navajo Hogan Song a song used to protect and nourish the personhood of newly constructed dwellings as their inspiration the architects philosophers poets and other contemporary scholars contributing to this volume demonstrate that a deeper more radical change in our relationship to the built world needs to occur While offering a careful critique of modernist corporate or techno enthralled design practices these essays investigate an alternative relational ecology whose wisdom draws from ancient and often marginalized voices if not the whisperings of the earth itself Contributors include Richard Kearney Alberto Perez Gomez Juhani Pallasmaa Karsten Harries Edward Casey Susan Stewart David Abram Stacy Alaimo Jace and Laura Weaver Philip Sheldrake and Sebnem Yucel Young

The Territories of Identity Soumyen Bandyopadhyay, Guillermo Garma Montiel, 2013-11-20 The expedited globalised process of exchange and new forms of cultural production have transformed old established notions of identity calling into question their conceptual foundations This book explores the spatial and representational dimension of this phenomenon by addressing how the reshaping of the key themes of place architecture and memory are altering the nature as well as our understanding of identity Cutting across boundaries the book drives discussion of identity beyond the well worn concern for its loss within a globalised context and importantly provides links between identity place memory and representation in architecture Examining a range of case studies from Australia Germany India Japan Mexico Poland Puerto Rico Turkey and Singapore as well as with contributions cutting across geographical and temporal boundaries this volume addresses such issues as architecture technology place and memory critical issues in the monitoring and mapping of identity shift within a rapidly globalising context With contributions from renowned authors in the field including Nicholas Temple Patsy Hely Robert Brown Liane Lefaivre John Hendrix Ana Souto Fiona MacLaren Stephen Walker Nezar AlSayyad Andrzej Piotrowski Catherine Ettinger Luz Marie Rodriguez and Raymond Quek this book presents fresh insights and diverse perspectives on the evolving question of identity and globalisation

Beyond Digital Mario Carpo, 2023-04-18 Recasting computational design a new modern agenda for a post industrial post pandemic world Mass production was the core technical logic of industrial modernity for the last hundred years architects and designers have tried to industrialize construction and standardize building materials and processes in the pursuit of economies of scale But this epochal march of modernity is now over In Beyond Digital Mario Carpo reviews the long history of the computational mode of production showing how the merger of robotic automation and artificial intelligence will stop and reverse the modernist quest for scale Today's technologies already allow us to use nonstandard building materials as found or as made and assemble them in as many nonstandard intelligent adaptive ways as needed the microfactories of our imminent future will be automated artisan shops The post industrial logic of computational manufacturing has been known and theorized for some time By tracing its theoretical and technical sources and reviewing the design theories that accompanied its rise Carpo shows how the computational project long under the sway of powerful antimodern ideologies is now being recast by the urgency of the climate crisis which has vindicated its premises and by the global pandemic which has tragically proven its viability Looking at the work of a new generation of designers technologists and producers Beyond Digital offers a new modern agenda for our post industrial future

Kelbaugh, 2015-07-16 Repairing the American Metropolis is based on Douglas Kelbaugh's Common Place Toward Neighborhood and Regional Design first published in 1997 It is more timely and significant than ever with new text charts and images on architecture sprawl and New Urbanism a movement that he helped pioneer Theory and policies have been revised refined updated and developed as compelling ways to plan and design the built environment This is an indispensable book for architects urban designers and planners landscape architects architecture and urban planning students and scholars government officials developers environmentalists and citizens interested in understanding and shaping the American metropolis

Regenerative Territories Libera Amenta, Michelangelo Russo, Arjan van Timmeren, 2022-03-11 This open access book provides new perspectives on circular economy and space explored towards the definition of regenerative territories characterised by healthy metabolisms Going beyond the mere reuse recycle of material waste as resources this work aims to understand how to apply circularity principles to among others the regeneration of wastescapes The main focus is the development over time and in particular the way how spatial planning and strategies respond to new unpredictable urgencies and opportunities related with territorial metabolisms The book specifically focuses on living labs environments where it is possible to tackle complex problems through a multidisciplinary and multi stakeholder approach including the use of digital spatial decision support environment which could be able to include all the involved stakeholders Through a spatial scope of circularity this book describes several examples including among others ideas from different contexts such as Italy The Netherlands Belgium and Vietnam Through including reflections on methodology and representation as well as on solutions for circular and healthy metabolisms the book provides an excellent resource to researchers and students

Sociological Wisdom William E. Thompson, Mica L. Thompson, 2019-09-10 Sociological Wisdom is based on applying the basic principles of sociology to the world around us Sociologists study patterns of behavior in order to draw general conclusions about a social issue that transcend the effect of the problem or issue on any particular individual

This is not to say that sociologists are unconcerned about individuals and their lives but sociology's emphasis is on the way individuals relate to others, people's positions in society and the interdependence between society and individuals. This text teaches students that it is more important than ever to study human behavior, social groups and society utilizing critical thinking skills and careful analysis associated with sociological wisdom. Tragic Views of the Human Condition Lourens Minnema, 2013-05-23 Cross cultural comparisons between Western, primarily Greek and Shakespearean and Hindu views of man and human nature.

The Routledge Handbook of Henri Lefebvre, The City and Urban Society Michael E. Leary-Owhin, John P. McCarthy, 2019-11-21 The Routledge Handbook of Henri Lefebvre, The City and Urban Society is the first edited book to focus on Lefebvre's urban theories and ideas from a global perspective making use of recent theoretical and empirical developments with contributions from eminent as well as emergent global scholars. The book provides international comparison of Lefebvrian research and theoretical conjecture and aims to engage with and critique Lefebvre's ideas in the context of contemporary urban social and environmental upheavals to use Lefebvre's spatial triad as a research tool as well as a point of departure for the adoption of ideas such as differential space to reassess Lefebvre's ideas in relation to nature and global environmental sustainability and to highlight how a Lefebvrian approach might assist in mobilising resistance to the excesses of globalised neoliberal urbanism. The volume draws inspiration from Lefebvre's key texts The Production of Space, Critique of Everyday Life and The Urban Revolution and includes a comprehensive introduction and concluding chapter by the editors. The conclusions highlight implications in relation to increasing spatial inequalities, increasing diversity of needs including those of migrants, more authoritarian approaches and asymmetries of access to urban space. Above all, the book illustrates the continuing relevance of Lefebvre's ideas for contemporary urban issues and shows via global case studies how resistance to spatial domination by powerful interests might be achieved. The Handbook helps the reader navigate the complex terrain of spatial research inspired by Lefebvre. In particular, the Handbook focuses on the series of struggles globally for the right to the city and the collision of debates around the urban age, cityism and planetary urbanisation. It will be a guide for graduate and advanced undergraduate teaching and a key reference for academics in the fields of Human Geography, Sociology, Political Science, Applied Philosophy, Planning, Urban Theory and Urban Studies. Practitioners and activists in the field will also find the book of relevance. The Seduction of Place Joseph Rykwert, 2000 Lonely and emotionally impaired everyman Jimmy Corrigan is given the opportunity to meet the father he never had. This is the spark for an improvisatory romance which gingerly ignores all sense of plot and drama. The reader is transported between 1890's Chicago and 1980's small town Michigan helped along by thousands of coloured illustrations and diagrams which provide a startling illusion of life and movement. The bulk of the book is supported by fold out instructions, an index, paper cut outs and brief notes.

Global Cities, Governance and Diplomacy Michele Acuto, 2013-02-11 This book illustrates the importance of global cities for world politics and highlights the diplomatic connections between cities and global governance While there is a growing body of literature concerned with explaining the transformations of the international order little theorisation has taken into account the key metropolises of our time as elements of these revolutions The volume seeks to fill this gap by demonstrating how global cities have a pervasive agency in contemporary global governance The book argues that looking at global cities can bring about three fundamental advantages on traditional IR paradigms First it facilitates an eclectic turn towards more nuanced analyses of world politics Second it widens the horizon of the discipline through a multiscalar image of global governance Third it underscores how global cities have a strategic diplomatic positioning when it comes to core contemporary challenges such as climate change This book will be of much interest to students of urban studies global governance diplomacy and international relations in general Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2002 Siena Fabrizio Nevola,2007-01-01 Weaving together social political economic and architectural history this book explores the role of key patrons in Siena s urban projects including Pope Pius II Piccolomini and his family and the quasi despot Pandolfo Petrucci Do We Need Architects? Alun Dolton,2015-06-19 Do We Need Architects Journey Beneath the Surface of Architecture is a journey of discovery that takes place over twenty five years of my life from exploring my own motivations to become an architect learning about architecture and the changing environment of practicing architecture to experiencing the impact of architecture on the built environment The story investigates the meaning perception and relevance of architecture in todays world Have you ever had a favorite building park or square A place that affects your mood All of us at some stage have experienced the impact of architecture and landscape on the way we perceive reality Let me invite you on a journey that examines what architects do as well as the legacy of the architectural process that influences the environment visiting places and exploring architectural interventions by taking them out of the glossy images shown in the architecture books and industry journals and placing them in the context of their urban or natural setting It is always as a found object always in the present examining the impact of humanity on the environment and the contribution architecture has made and is continuing to make to the everyday environment where we all live work and play Society in Focus William E. Lebanese Cinema Lina Khatib, 2008-08-30 Modern Lebanese cinema can best be explored in the context of the Civil War in part because almost all the Lebanese films made since its outset in 1975 have been about this war Lina Khatib takes 1975 Beirut as her starting point and takes us right through to today for this the first major book on Lebanese cinema and its links with politics and national identity She examines how Lebanon is imagined in such films as Jocelyn Saab's Once Upon a Time Beirut Ghassan Salhab's Terra Incognita and Ziad Doueiri's West Beirut In so doing she re-examines the importance of cinema to the national imagination Also and using interviews with the current generation of Lebanese filmmakers she uncovers how in the Lebanese context cinema can both construct and communicate a national identity and thereby opens up new perspectives on the socio-political role of cinema in the Arab world

Blueprint for Reconstruction Vincent Frank Bedogne, 2010-04-14 Inspired by a vision of soaring towers high speed transit cars pristine skies and blossoming gardens we move beyond today's automobile based urban model and embrace a design where the freedom of the individual is paramount and the human energy that defines city life flows unimpeded within an urban matrix engineered to allow for its highest expression Author Vincent Frank Bedogne drafts a blueprint for what humanity's Evolution of Consciousness and adoption of Economics of Fulfillment make it possible to achieve perfection of life on earth We draw a plan for reconstruction of the earth's urban and ecological infrastructure the city of tomorrow the countryside of tomorrow how we will get around and communicate We embrace a new environmentalism explore future sources of energy reveal the solution to humanity's present energy crisis and look at how we will build to withstand the climatic rigors imposed by a biosphere in evolution

Human Ecology Frederick R. Steiner, 2016-02-16 Humans have always been influenced by natural landscapes and always will be even as we create ever larger cities and our developments fundamentally change the nature of the earth around us In Human Ecology noted city planner and landscape architect Frederick Steiner encourages us to consider how human cultures have been shaped by natural forces and how we might use this understanding to contribute to a future where both nature and people thrive Human ecology is the study of the interrelationships between humans and their environment drawing on diverse fields from biology and geography to sociology engineering and architecture Steiner admirably synthesizes these perspectives through the lens of landscape architecture a discipline that requires its practitioners to consciously connect humans and their environments After laying out eight principles for understanding human ecology the book's chapters build from the smallest scale of connection our homes and expand to community scales regions nations and ultimately examine global relationships between people and nature In this age of climate change a new approach to planning and design is required to envision a livable future Human Ecology provides architects landscape architects urban designers and planners and students in those fields with timeless principles for new creative thinking about how their work can shape a vibrant resilient future for ourselves and our planet

Tales of Berlin in American Literature up to the 21st Century Joshua Parker, 2016-03-17 Of all European cities Americans today are perhaps most curious about Berlin whose position in the American imagination is an essential component of nineteenth century postwar and contemporary transatlantic imagology Over various periods Berlin has been a tenuous space for American claims to cultural heritage and to real geographic space in Europe symbolizing the ultimate evil and the power of redemption This volume offers a comprehensive examination of the city's image in American literature from 1840 to the present Tracing both a history of Berlin and of American culture through the ways the city has been narrated across three centuries by some 100 authors through 145 novels short stories plays and poems Tales of Berlin presents a composite landscape not only of the German capital but of shifting subtexts in American society which have contextualized its meaning for Americans in the past and continue to do so today

The Seduction of Place Joseph Rykwert, 2001-10 No other place on earth is as full both of promise and of dread as the city it is at once alienating and exciting These concentrations of people have not however come about as the result of vast immutable impersonal forces but because of human choices The worsening or betterment of urban life will also be the result of choices Our choices That cities display and represent the personal desires of their inhabitants is central to Joseph Rykwert's argument in The Seduction of Place Insisting that they are the physical constructs of communities he travels through history to trace their roots in ancient times and outlines current attempts and future possibilities to improve the metropolis Rykwert includes a broad range of urban landscapes 18th and 19th century Paris and London the current sprawl of Mexico City and Cairo planned cities like Brasilia and finally New York the world capital Always opinionated and often controversial Rykwert assesses how and why urban projects from the past succeeded or failed and what lessons can be drawn from them for the future Ultimately The Seduction of Place is a deeply felt and powerfully reasoned call for a commitment by every citizen to the creation of a more humane place to live
