Seduction Of Mrs Pendlebury:

The Seduction of Mrs. Pendlebury Margaret Forster,1974 Ageing, Narrative and Identity N. Hubble,P. Tew,2015-12-11 This book outlines the methodology and results of the Fiction and the Cultural Mediation of Ageing Project led by a research team from Brunel University UK It investigates how older people resist stereotypical cultural representations of ageing and demonstrates the importance of narrative understanding to social agency Growing Old with the Welfare State Nick Hubble,Jennie Taylor,Philip Tew,2019-05-16 The combined effect of the welfare state and medical advances means that more people now live longer lives than ever before in history As a consequence the experience of ageing has been transformed Yet our cultural and social perceptions of ageing remain governed by increasingly dated images and narratives Growing Old with the Welfare State challenges these stereotypes by bringing together eight previously unpublished stories of ordinary British people born between 1925 and 1945 to show contemporary ageing in a new light These biographical narratives six of which were written as part of the Mass Observation Project reflect on and compare the experience of living in two post war periods of social change after the first and second world wars In doing so these stories along with their accompanying contextual chapters provide a valuable and accessible resource for social historians and expose both historical and contemporary views of age and ageing that challenge modern assumptions The New Dynamics of Ageing Volume 2 Alan Walker,2018-07-25 This volume and its companion The new dynamics of ageing volume 1 provide comprehensive multi disciplinary overviews of the very latest research on ageing Together they report the outcomes of the most concerted investigation ever undertaken into both the influence shaping the changing nature of ageing and its consequences for individuals and society This book concentrates on four major themes autonomy and independence in later life biology and ageing food and nutrition and representation of old age Each chapter provides a state of the art topic summary as well as reporting the essential research findings from New Dynamics of Ageing research projects There is a strong emphasis on the practical implications of ageing and how evidence based policies practices and new products can produce individual and societal benefits Contemporary British Novelists Nick Rennison,2004-12-31 Featuring a broad range of contemporary British novelists from Iain Banks to Jeanette Winterson Louis de Bernieres to Irvine Welsh and Salman Rushdie this book offers an excellent introductory guide to the contemporary literary scene Each entry includes concise biographical information on each of the key novelists and analysis of their major works and themes Fully cross referenced and containing extensive guides to further reading Fifty Contemporary British Novelists is the ideal guide to modern British fiction for both the student and the contemporary fiction buff alike Good Wives Margaret Forster,2012-07-31 What is a good wife The bestselling author of Hidden Lives explores four marriages including her own in different times and societies to find the answer In 1848 Mary Moffatt became the wife of the missionary and explorer David Livingstone and her obedience and devotion eventually killed her In 1960 Margaret Forster married her school sweetheart

Hunter Davies in a London Registry Office and interpreted the role very differently Between these two marriages is a huge gulf in which the notion of marriage changed immeasurably Forster traces the shift in emphasis from submission to partnership first through the marriage of one unconventional American Fanny Osbourne to Robert Louis Stevenson in the late nineteenth century and then through that of Jennie Lee to Aneurin Bevan in the 1930s Why does a woman still want to be a wife in the twenty first century What is the value of marriage today Why do couples still marry in church These are some of the questions Forster asks as she weaves the personal experience of forty years through the stories of three wives who have long fascinated her paternalistic Carrs We see the conflict between religion and profit the family feuds and the changing face of a city through this compelling historical narrative told with Margaret Forster s characteristic blend of scholarship readability and marvellous attention to the texture of everyday life British Working Class women authors (born before 1962) a list Stefan Szczelkun ,2025-06-07 A collection of Wikipedia articles edited reformatted and with additions In chronological order References and sections on non literary activity are sometimes omitted hopefully not to the point of misrepresenting the author which might include feminist or political activism To my surprise the biographical material on Wikipedia was sometimes mesmerising although it was uneven Where there were gaps I have tried to fill them from other sources Refer back to the wikipedia articles for more context and references in some cases and if you have a verified source of information please update the Wikipedia article Wikipedia is published under a creative commons licence So this compilation also carries a creative commons licence Introduction Looking through Sarah Richardson s Writing on the Line 1996 I was struck by how many of the working class women writers were from North America and how many more were poets Howard Slater had made a list of British working class male novelists and I selected British woman writers from Writing on the Line and found that most of them now have Wikipedia pages I first made a list of links Wanting to take this further I first looked to focus on novels and short story writers but this category started to break up as many writers wrote in many idioms producing fact fiction poetry plays screenwriting and journalism I decided on an arbitrary cut off point of writers born before 1962 When I first made the list I was thinking how few working class women novelists had been published in this period But then the lists of books by each author started to stack up and there s plenty to read and much that I missed even really hearing about Of course it focuses on the most successful others who produced a community published autobiography or self published novel did not get a Wikipedia page and they should really be included every life counts Others only published an autobiography perhaps in the last years of life but were extraordinary writers and people We could also discuss the genre snobbery in literary circles that puts crime young peoples literature romantic and fantasy fiction and perhaps historical based narratives in a lower category than the novel Bloomsbury Essential Guide for Reading Groups Susan Osborne,2009-01-01 A book club gives the opportunity to meet up with friends and wake the brain up a bit with lively and often quite aggressive discussion Dawn French How do you keep your reading groups discussions lively and focussed If you want to gain new insight into literature and share your passion with friends this book offers readers guides for 75 of the very best reads guaranteed to provoke spirited debate Each of the readers guides includes a summary of the book a brief author biography discussion points to spark debate and a set of titles for further reading that deal with similar themes A background section provides pointers to more material about the book online and as well as further thought provoking material Where did the author come from What made them write the book How did the context in which they wrote influence them If you d like further insight debate discussion and analysis to underpin your understanding and enjoyment of reading then look no further
