Critical Terms for Art History, Second Edition Robert S. Nelson, Richard Shiff, 2010-03-15 Art has always been contested terrain whether the object in question is a medieval tapestry or Duchamp's Fountain But questions about the categories of art and art history acquired increased urgency during the 1970s when new developments in critical theory and other intellectual projects dramatically transformed the discipline The first edition of Critical Terms for Art History both mapped and contributed to those transformations offering a spirited reassessment of the field's methods and terminology Art history as a field has kept pace with debates over globalization and other social and political issues in recent years making a second edition of this book not just timely but crucial Like its predecessor this new edition consists of essays that cover a wide variety of loaded terms in the history of art from sign to meaning ritual to commodity Each essay explains and comments on a single term discussing the issues the term raises and putting the term into practice as an interpretive framework for a specific work of art For example Richard Shiff discusses Originality in Vija Celmins's To Fix the Image in Memory a work made of eleven pairs of stones each consisting of one original stone and one painted bronze replica In addition to the twenty two original essays this edition includes nine new ones performance style memory monument body beauty ugliness identity visual culture visual studies and social history of art as well as new introductory material All help expand the book's scope while retaining its central goal of stimulating discussion of theoretical issues in art history and making that discussion accessible to both beginning students and senior scholars Contributors Mark Antliff Nina Athanassoglou Kallmyer Stephen Bann Homi K Bhabha Suzanne Preston Blier Michael Camille David Carrier Craig Clunas Whitney Davis Jas Elsner Ivan Gaskell Ann Gibson Charles Harrison James D Herbert Amelia Jones Wolfgang Kemp Joseph Leo Koerner Patricia Leighton Paul Mattick Jr Richard Meyer W J T Mitchell Robert S Nelson Margaret Olin William Pietz Alex Potts Donald Preziosi Lisbet Rausing Richard Shiff Terry Smith Kristine Stiles David Summers Paul Wood James E Young

The Sex Goddess in American Film, 1930-1965 Jessica Hope Jordan, 2009 In the first critical study of the sex goddess in film Jessica Hope Jordan illustrates how Jean Harlow uses her sexualized body to affect and seduce viewers away from any primary identification with those characters and their plotlines that are supposed to lead the film to identifying instead with the kind of sexual empowerment and self possession her characters consistently display Linking the idea of sexual empowerment to the filmic and public celebration of hyper feminine sexuality the book additionally covers previous feminist discussions of Mae West's performances as feminist camp to argue that West sought to both celebrate and embody for women viewers what she viewed as cultural ideals of femininity and women's sexuality With Lana Turner and the cinematic code the book considers the many problems inherent in both the filmic and public celebration of hyper feminine sexuality in relation to censorship and considers the effects of the Hays Code on hyper feminine sexuality as depicted in film noir The book also importantly presents the first critical discussion of the actress Jayne Mansfield suggesting that her 1950s open acceptance celebration and public promotion of her feminine sexuality both onscreen and off makes her not only a precursor of the more sexually liberated 60s but also like the other actresses discussed here a kind of prescient performance artist even theorist of feminine sexuality in particular and cultural ideas about sexuality more generally Beyond recouping her image as feminist the book demonstrates how the kind of desire aroused by the sex goddess a desire which remains endlessly suspended works as a supreme example of the aesthetic apparatus of cinema itself Book Jacket Goddess Durga and Sacred Female Power Laura Amazzone, 2012-07-10

Dress, Adornment, and the Body in the Hebrew Bible Laura Quick, 2021-02-09 Dress Adornment and the Body in the Hebrew Bible is the first monograph to treat dress and adornment in biblical literature in the English language It moves beyond a description of these aspects of ancient life to encompass notions of interpersonal relationships and personhood that underpin practices of dress and adornment Laura Quick explores the ramifications of body adornment in the biblical world informed by a methodologically plural approach incorporating material culture alongside philology textual exegesis comparative evidence and sociological models Drawing upon and synthesizing insights from material culture and texts from across the eastern Mediterranean the volume reconstructs the social meanings attached to the dressed body in biblical texts It shows how body adornment can deepen understanding of attitudes towards the self in the ancient world In Quick's reconstruction of ancient performances of the self the body serves as the observed centre in which complex ideologies of identity gender sexuality ethnicity and social status are articulated The adornment of the body is thus an effective means of non verbal communication but one which at the same time is controlled by and dictated through normative social values Exploring dress adornment and the body can therefore open up hitherto unexplored perspectives on these social values in the ancient world an essential missing piece in understanding the social and cultural world which shaped the Hebrew Bible

Fantasies of Femininity Jane M. Ussher, 1997 In Fantasies of Femininity Jane Ussher focuses on unraveling the contradictory visions of feminine sexuality the fact that representations of the definition of woman seethe with sexuality yet for centuries women have been condemned for exploring their own sexual desires In her quest for the sources of feminine representation Ussher interviewed dozens of women as well as some men and combed popular media from Seventeen to Cosmopolitan and Dallas to Donahue to identify what shapes women's symbolic images of sex and femininity Ussher argues that women have effectively resisted and subverted these archetypal fantasies of femininity and in the process of so doing reframed the very boundaries of sex In this way she exposes as myth much of what we think we know about woman and about sex
