Veronica della Dora,2022-05-16 An illuminating history of both real life lighthouses and the beacons of literature and art alike shedding light on the multifaceted power of these liminal structures Suspended between sea and sky battered by the waves and the wind lighthouses mark the battle lines between the elements They guard the boundaries between the solid human world and the primordial chaos of the waters between stability and instability between the known and the unknown As such they have a strange universal appeal that few other manmade structures possess Engineered to draw the gaze of sailors lighthouses have likewise long attracted the attention of soldiers and saints artists and poets novelists and filmmakers colonizers and migrants and today more than ever heritage tourists and developers Their evocative locations isolation and resilience have turned these structures into complex metaphors magnets for stories This book explores the rich story of the lighthouse in the human imagination

The Sermon on the Mount in the Light of the Temple Professor John W Welch, 2013-05-28 No religious text has influenced the world more than has the New Testament's Sermon on the Mount and yet this crucial text still begs to be more clearly understood Why was it written What unifying theme or purpose holds it all together Should it be called a sermon Or is it some other kind of composition How would its earliest listeners have heard its encoded allusions and systematic program This book offers new insights into the Sermon on the Mount by seeing it in the shadow of the all pervasive Temple in Jerusalem which dominated the religious landscape of the world of Jesus and his earliest disciples Analyzing Matthew 5 7 in light of biblical and Jewish backgrounds ritual studies and oral performances in early Christian worship this reading coherently integrates every line in the Sermon It positions the Sermon as the premier Christian mystery The Englishman's Hebrew and Chaldee Concordance of the Old Testament George V. Meet Me in the Morning Patty Howard, 2021-12-08 So much of our lives is influenced by how we see God For author Patty Howard these words began a two and a half year journey of listening to God every morning with the expectation that He would speak When God speaks He meets us where we are and shows us who we are Sometimes we are invited to share what we hear With social media as her pulpit and her friends as her congregation Howard shared what God had given her every day The Holy Spirit did the rest In Meet Me in the Morning she has gathered those meditations originally posted on social media and compiled them into a devotional mostly in the order and in the form they originally appeared May these daily meditations encourage you inspire you convict you and convince you that God sees you knows you and loves you beyond measure This daily devotional shows how scripture applies to real life in real time and invites you to carry the ideas and insights beyond the page and into your daily life The Holy Bible, Containing the Old and New Testaments ,1772 Unity ,1905 *A Brief Concordance or Table to the Bible ...
