Writing for Peer Reviewed Journals Pat Thomson, Barbara Kamler, 2012-11-27 It's not easy getting published but everyone has to do it Writing for Peer Reviewed Journals presents an insider's perspective on the secret business of academic publishing making explicit many of the dilemmas and struggles faced by all writers but rarely discussed Its unique approach is theorised and practical It offers a set of moves for writing a journal article that is structured and doable but also attends to the identity issues that manifest on the page and in the politics of academic life The book comprehensively assists anyone concerned about getting published whether they are early in their career or moving from a practice base into higher education or more experienced but still feeling in need of further information Avoiding a tips and tricks approach which tends to oversimplify what is at stake in getting published the authors emphasise the production nurture and sustainability of scholarship through writing a focus on both the scholar and the text or what they call text work identity work The chapters are ordered to develop a systematic approach to the process including such topics as The writer The reader What's the contribution Beginning work Refining the argument Engaging with reviewers and editors Writing for Peer Reviewed Journals uses a wide range of multi disciplinary examples from the writing workshops the authors have run in universities around the world including the UK Canada Australia New Zealand Ireland South Africa Norway Sweden Denmark and the United States This international approach coupled with theoretically grounded strategies to guide the authoring process ensure that people at all stages of their career are addressed This lively book uses a combination of personal stories student texts published journal abstracts and excerpts from interviews with journal editors and publishers Written in an accessible style one which does not use the patronising you of advice books it offers a collegial approach to a task which is difficult for most scholars regardless of their years of experience The Ethics of Seeing Jennifer Evans,Paul Betts,Stefan-Ludwig Hoffmann,2018-01-09 Throughout Germany's tumultuous twentieth century photography was an indispensable form of documentation Whether acting as artists witnesses or reformers both professional and amateur photographers chronicled social worlds through successive periods of radical upheaval The Ethics of Seeing brings together an international group of scholars to explore the complex relationship between the visual and the historic in German history Emphasizing the transformation of the visual arena and the ways in which ordinary people made sense of world events these revealing case studies illustrate photography's multilayered role as a new form of representation a means to subjective experience and a fresh mode of narrating the past Telling Stories Jenn Fishman,Amy C. Kimme Hea,2023-07-23 In Telling Stories more than a dozen longitudinal writing researchers look beyond conventional project findings to story their work and in doing so offer otherwise unavailable glimpses into the logics and logistics of long range studies of writing The result is a volume that centers interrelations among people places and politics across two decades of praxis and an array of educational sites two year colleges a senior military college an adult literacy center a small liberal arts college and both public and private four year universities Contributors share direct knowledge of longitudinal writing research citing project data e.g. interview transcripts research notes and journals descriptions drawn from memory and extended personal reflections The resulting stories tempered by the research and scholarship of others convey a sense of longitudinal research as a lived activity as well as a prominent and consequential approach to inquiry Yet Telling Stories is not a how to guide nor is it written for longitudinal researchers alone Instead this volume addresses issues about writing research that are germane to all who conduct or count on it Such topics include building and sustaining good interpersonal research relations ethically negotiating the institutional power dynamics that undergird writing research effectively using knowledge from longitudinal studies to advocate for writers and writing educators and improving both conceptual and concrete resources for long range research in writing studies Learn Good Business Writing and Communication (Collection) Natalie Canavor,Claire Meirowitz,Stephen R. Covey,2013-08-08 The Truth About the New Rules of Business Writing shows you how to master the art of effective business communication replacing the old standards of jargon pomposity and grammar drills with a simple quick and conversational writing style Authors Natalie Canavor and Claire
