Cummins Cummins, Julie Anne Rodgers, Judith Dunkelberger Wouk, Julie Anne Rodgers Rodgers, 2021-01-29 In a world full of messages about the joys of motherhood ticking biological clocks pronatalist ideologies and socio cultural imperatives for women to mother what does the alternative look like That is what is the experience of women who choose or find themselves without progeny when they are deemed other instead of being a mother This anthology of interdisciplinary work links to sociology anthropology psychology demography religion language literature popular media medicine and child and family studies Are women that choose to be childfree always narcissistic self obsessed and lonely Or can they be free mobile and successful Do all women who choose to be childfree do it in the same way or have the same motivation What is the role of age partnership status trauma or poverty in this decision Using techniques such as literature review ethnographic interviews autoethnography and textual analysis and reframing these sixteen authors from around the globe unpack largely pronatalist racist sexist and heteronormative views and assumptions about childfree women the first ten years in all traditional Jewish communities The discussion continues with the striking absence of any communal Jewish education for girls until the late nineteenth and early twentieth century and the implications of this fact for twentieth century immigration to Israel 1949 1959 The following chapters discuss the social cultural and legal contexts of this reality of female illiteracy in the Jewish community a community that placed a supreme value on male education The discussion focuses on the patriarchal order and the postulations rules norms sanctions and mythologies that in antiquity and the Middle Ages laid the religious foundations of this discriminatory reality Daughters of the King Susan Grossman, Rivka Haut, 2005-05-11 Daughters of the King explores women's involvement in and around the synagogue from its antecedents in the biblical period to contemporary times The contributors to the book including Susan Grossman Rivka Haut Tikva Frymer Kensky Judith Hauptman Paula Hyman and others represent an interdisciplinary approach to the subject drawing from history anthropology sociology women's studies Jewish law the Bible and rabbinic thought Academic Approaches to Teaching Jewish Studies Zev Garber, 2000 Fourteen scholars and master teachers explore the challenges of teaching Jewish studies at American schools of higher education Religion and Female Body in Ancient Judaism and Its Environments Géza G. migration ethnic relationships war and peace environmental challenges and urbanization The neighbor represents the borderline between insider and outsider friend and enemy us and them This ambiguous status makes the neighbor particularly interesting as an entry point into issues of cultural complexity self definition and identity This volume brings all the intersections of religion ethnicity gender and socio cultural diversity into the same neighborhood paying attention to sacred texts receptions and contemporary communities The Ambiguous Figure of the Neighbor in Jewish Christian and Islamic Texts and Receptions offers a fascinating study of the intersections between Jewish Christian and Islamic text and will be of interest to anyone working on these traditions Tois Pasin ho Kairos Elena Narinskaya, Sybil Sheridan,, Nicholas de Lange, 2023-04-17 This book addresses Judaism and Orthodox Christianity and particularly their points of similarity and difference congruence and conflict The city of Jerusalem stands at the heart of both these age old faiths but today it is a divided city in which Jews and Orthodox Christians seem to find themselves on opposite sides of history Must this story be one of continuing conflict or is there scope for reconciliation and common effort How do religions that cherish tradition face up to the challenges of a rapidly changing world What place can they offer to women Can they welcome lesbian and gay adherents How do their traditional resources help them to face climate change and other environmental issues How have they responded to the COVID pandemic What contribution can they make to current debates about subjects like euthanasia and assisted dying In seventeen chapters by expert theologians and historians this book examines central issues of common concern The focus is on dialogue and deepened knowledge The authors dispel some widely held misconceptions and identify a good deal of common ground In this way the book aims to lay foundations for future engagement between the two religions
