If you like this book, write a review on Google Books. Chief Marketing Officers at Work Josh Steimle, 2016-08-04. Read 29 in-depth, candid interviews with people holding the top marketing roles within their organizations. Interviewees include CMOs and other top marketers from established companies and organizations such as Linda Boff of GE, Jeff Jones of Target, and Kenny Brian of the Harvard Business School, to startups such as Matt Price of Zendesk, Seth Farbman of Spotify, and Heather Zynczak of Domo. Interviewer Josh Steimle, contributor to business publications such as Forbes, Mashable, and TechCrunch, and founder of an international marketing agency, elicits a bounty of biographical anecdotes, professional insights, and career advice from each of the prominent marketers profiled in this book. Chief Marketing Officers at Work tells how CMOs and other top marketers from leading corporations, nonprofits, government entities, and startups got to where they are today, what their jobs entail, and the skills they use to thrive in their roles. Shows how top marketing executives continuously adapt to changes in technology, language, and culture that have an impact on their jobs. Locates where the boundaries between the role of CMOs and the roles of CEOs, CTOs, and COOs are blurring. Explores how the CMO's decisions are now driven by data rather than gut feelings. The current realities in marketing are clearly revealed in this book as interviewees discuss the challenges of their jobs and share their visions and techniques for breaking down silos, working with other departments, and following the data. These 30 holds-barred interviews will be of great interest to all those who interact with marketing departments, including other C-level executives, managers, and other professionals at any level within the organization.

Brown, 2010-02-26 In their highly selective and literal reading of Scripture creationists champion a rigidly reductionistic view of creation in their fight against soulless scientism Conversely many scientists find faith in God to be a dangerous impediment in the empirical quest for knowledge As a result of this ongoing debate many people of faith feel forced to choose between evolution and the Bible s story of creation But as William Brown asks which biblical creation story are we talking about Brown shows that through a close reading of biblical texts no fewer than seven different biblical perspectives on creation can be identified By examining these perspectives Brown illuminates both connections and conflicts between the ancient creation traditions and the natural sciences arguing for a new way of reading the Bible in light of current scientific knowledge and with consideration of the needs of the environment In Brown s argument both scientific inquiry and theological reflection are driven by a sense of wonder which in his words unites the scientist and the psalmist Brown s own wonder at the beauty and complexity of the created world is evident throughout this intelligent well written and inspirational book The Cambridge Handbook of Fortune and the Dao Jason P. Blahuta, 2015-04-16 Times of prolonged conflict spur great minds to seek a lasting peace Thus was the case of Warring States China which saw the rise of the Hundred Schools of Thought including the Daojiao and the Han Feizi and Renaissance Italy which produced Niccol Machiavelli Witnessing their respective societies fall prey to internal corruption and external aggression all three thinkers sought ways to produce a strong stable state that would allow both the leader and the populace to endure Fortune and the Dao A Comparative Study of Machiavelli the Daojiao and the Han Feizi demonstrates where the shortcomings of each theory lie with emphasis on the similarities among Machiavelli Laozi and Han Feizi Jason P Blahuta ultimately argues that if Machiavelli s philosophy the most comprehensive of the three theories were supplemented by aspects of the Daojiao the revision would potentially overcome the deficiencies of the original
