Seeking God In All Things William Reiser, 2004-05-01 The practice of spiritual direction assumes a theology of the Holy Spirit a theology of revelation and of the Church and a theology of prayer Seeking God in All Things explores each of these themes as the underpinnings of spiritual direction and examines what makes the Christian religious experience distinctive

Since not every experience of God bears a Christian imprint William Reiser SJ asks whether and in what way a Christian might be able to assist someone who is not Christian in developing his or her interior life This question looks beyond suggesting the concrete steps a person might take in initiating nurturing and solidifying a way of praying It looks rather toward the fundamental issue of helping others as they discover and deepen their relationship to the mystery of God

Chapters are It Is God Who Directs Imagining Divine Action in Human Lives Where Do Holy Desires Come From What Is Distinctive About the Christian Religious Experience Further Elements of Christian Distinctiveness The Incarnation as a Starting Point for Spiritual Direction and Should Christian Spirituality Move Beyond Jesus William Reiser SJ PhD is a professor of theology in the religious studies department at Holy Cross College Worcester Massachusetts Over the past twelve years he has also served as an associate staff member at the Center for Religious Development in Cambridge He is the author of Jesus in Solidarity with His People published by Liturgical Press

Maids and Mistresses, Cousins and Queens Susan Frye, Karen Robertson, 1999-01-28 This new collection of sixteen essays considers evidence for the varied forms of women's alliances in early modern England It shows how women prohibited from direct participation in the institutional structures that shaped the lives of men constructed informal connections with other females for purposes of survival advancement and creativity The essays presented here consider a variety of communities formed among groups as diverse as serving women vagrants aristocrats and authors in order to study the historical traces of women's connections Alliance as understood by the essayists in this volume does not preclude competition or antagonism since the bonds among women were frequently determined by an opposition to other women As shown here the theorizing of women's connections and the recovery of the historical evidence for these connections can only add to our understanding of women's activities in early modern English society

Maids and Mistresses Cousins and Queens is divided into four sections The first two Alliances in the City and Alliances in the Household examine the circumstances of women's communities in two primary sites for women of this place and time The second two Materializing Communities and Emerging Alliances fully study the aspirations that guided and transformed the courses of women's lives All of these interdisciplinary essays deftly combining literary and historical methods and materials are informed by feminism queer theory and studies of class and race in the early modern period

Seek Donna Jones, 2012-09-18 The market is chock full of books and Bible studies for well seasoned believers but what about the woman who longs to know God but has never cracked open a Bible Seek is a refreshingly real look at the fundamentals of the Christian faith written for the woman who doesn't know Jacob from Job Readers will discover answers to essential questions like Who is God the Father Son and Holy Spirit What does it mean to be a Christian and What is the Bible in language they understand Seek combines solid biblical teaching with engaging explanations to guide the spiritually curious woman on her journey to meet God

Christian Women and Modern China Li Ma, 2021-01-28 Christian Women and Modern China presents a social history of women pioneers in Chinese Protestantism from the 1880s to the 2010s The author

interrupts a hegemonic framework of historical narratives by exploring formal institutions and rules as well as social networks and social norms that shape the lived experiences of women This book achieves a more nuanced understanding about the interplays of Christianity gender power and modern Chinese history It reintroduces Chinese Christian women pioneers not only to women s history and the history of Chinese Christianity but also to the history of global Christian mission and the global history of many modern professions such as medicine education literature music charity journalism and literature
