Seeking Faith Is Religion Really What You Think It Is:

Seeking Faith Nathan Rutstein, 2002-01-01 Seeking Faith Nathan Rutstein, 2002 Many people express a need for spiritual fulfillment but are troubled or at best put off by what is often and loosely called organized religion. This is especially true today when once venerated institutions and trusted public figures have become subjects of investigation, sources of disappointment and worse. People fear becoming victims of crime and alter their daily lives to avoid it. Terrorism committed in the name of religion and political causes painfully reminds us of how human capacities can be turned with devastating results against ourselves. At times much of the world appears to be in a state of decay and sources of spiritual strength seem scattered and elusive. Nathan Rutstein understands this. His book Seeking Faith Is Religion Really What You Think It Is describes his personal search for purpose and meaning in life, a search that led him to the Baha'i Faith and its distinctive perspective on the past, its reassuring understanding of the present, and its confident vision of the future. The Story of Baha'u'llah Druzhelle Cederquist, 2005 Describes Baha'u'llah's life straightforwardly but with drama and a talent for evoking the ambience of the 19th century Persian and Ottoman milieus. Five appendices cover a chronology of the events in the life of Baha'u'llah, his family, the branches of Islam, millennial Christians, and his younger half brother Mirza Yahy. The Reality of Man Terry Cassidy, Chris Martin, 2005 The Reality of Man presents a glimpse of the unique depth, range, and creative potency of Baha'u'llah's writings on such fundamental questions as: What is a human being? What is the purpose of human existence? Where did we come from? Is there a God? What is God like? Do we each have a preordained role or mission in life? Is there life after death? Are some religions true and others false? How can one evaluate religions? This compilation provides a sample of the Baha'i religion's vast teachings on the nature of man and answers these questions and more. The Book of Certitude, 2003 The Kitab-i-Iqan: The Book of Certitude is one of the most important scriptural works in the Baha'i Faith. In it Baha'u'llah gives a sweeping overview of religious truth, explaining the underlying unity of the world's religions, describing the universality of the revelations humankind has received from the Prophets of God, illuminating their fundamental teachings, and elucidating allegorical passages from the New Testament and the Qur'an that have given rise to misunderstanding among religious leaders, practitioners, and the public. It's Not Your Fault Patricia Romano McGraw, 2004 This engaging and highly readable book, based on the author's professional experience in treating those who suffer from the devastating effects of emotional trauma, offers hope for those who suffer and those who care about them. Dr. McGraw describes how trauma affects the brain and therefore one's ability to carry out good advice; explains the subtle and largely hidden processes of attunement and attachment that take place between parents and children, examining their impact on all future relationships; tells what is needed for healing to occur; discusses the profound health benefits of spirituality and a relationship with God in assisting and accelerating the healing process; and suggests how members of the helping professions can begin to tap the deepest, most authentic parts of themselves to touch the hearts of those they seek to help. The

Nonreligion in Late Modern Societies Anne-Laure Zwingling, Helge Årsheim, 2022-06-14 This volume presents results from new and ongoing research efforts into the role of nonreligion in education politics law and society from a variety of different countries Featuring data from a wide range of quantitative and qualitative studies the book exposes the relational dynamics of religion and nonreligion Firstly it highlights the extent to which nonreligion is defined and understood by legal and institutional actors on the basis of religions and often replicates the organisation of society and majority religions At the same time it displays how essential it is to approach nonreligion on its own by freeing oneself from the frameworks from which religion is thought The book addresses pressing questions such as How can nonreligion be defined and how can the nones be grasped and taken into account in studies on religion How does the sociocultural and religious backdrop of different countries affect the regulation and representation of nonreligion in law and policymaking Where and how do nonreligious individuals and collectives fit into institutions in contemporary societies How does nonreligion affect notions of citizenship and national belonging Despite growing scholarly interest in the increasing number of people without religion the role of nonreligion in legal and institutional settings is still largely unexplored This volume helps fill the gap and will be of interest to students researchers policymakers and others seeking deeper understanding of the changing role of nonreligion in modern societies

THE YOUNG CHRISTIAN'S SURVIVAL GUIDE Donald T. Williams, 2019-07-19 Some of the questions asked and answered in THE YOUNG CHRISTIAN'S SURVIVAL GUIDE are You claim the Bible is inspired because it says it is right 2 Tim 3 16 Isn't that circular reasoning You claim the Bible was inspired but there was no inspired list of which books that is true of So how can we know which ones to trust With so many different copies of manuscripts that have 400 000 variants errors how can we even know what the Bible says Why can't the people who wrote the four Gospels get their story straight Didn't the Council of Nicaea just arbitrarily pick the books for the Bible that they agreed with and suppress all the rest with political power People used to believe in miracles because they didn't understand science Don't we know better than that now That a man rose from the dead takes a lot of believing How could you ever have enough evidence for a belief like that Science has proved that human beings evolved over millions of years rather than being created in six days Why are you still clinging to ancient myths Just because the Bible is true for you why does that make it true for me How can you base your modern life on a book that was written for a primitive culture Doesn't the Bible support genocide Doesn't the Bible support racism Doesn't the Bible support slavery Doesn't the Bible support homophobia Doesn't the Bible support the oppression and abuse of women There are so many religions all sincerely seeking the same goal What makes you Christians so arrogant that you think yours is the only way What about those who have never heard the Gospel If God is a God of love why did he let my loved one die How can it be just for God to impose an infinite punishment Hell forever for finite sins These questions will be asked and answered
