Segen Der Erde Knut Hamsun, 1918 , Nordische Bibliographie , 1928 Diutiska Gustav Solling, 1863

David Einhorn, Memorial Volume David Einhorn, 1911 Faust FAUST; EINE MONATSSCHRIFT FÜR KUNST, 1923

Figures of Identity Clark S. Muenzer, 1990-10-01 The question of coherence in Goethe's novels which like Faust compelled his attention throughout his creative life has only recently occupied a few critics Professor Muenzer's study offers the most comprehensive effort of this kind by examining the problematic nature of self definition through the four novels and its emergence as a discursive process of the imagination The self of these texts Muenzer suggests evolves as a symbolic construct that records a pattern of pursuit for each of their protagonists and orients the reader toward three basic goals of human aspiration Thus Werther aspires to purposefulness as a center of teleological fulfillment while the hero of Wilhelm Meister's Apprenticeship refers to an ideological center of participation in his social desire Eduard in The Elective Affinities presumes to occupy a center of archaeological power through his typically self assertive strategies In the last of his novels Wilhelm Meister's Journeymanhood Goethe articulates the need to balance all such self involved behavior with an attitude of self denial Apparently the mind can orient itself through centers of purpose order and power but it must also recognize the illusion of their attainment Identity does not involve a substantive presence and the result of self definition for Goethe is interpretive work Each of Professor Muenzer's interpretations has been guided by this premise The interests of all of Goethe's novelistic protagonists he concludes serve as orienting postures toward goals that cannot be literally achieved

Consequently symbolic resolutions are proposed These then introduce new problems as points of departure in subsequent works The hidden agenda of Goethe's work as a novelist is a self that exists as a textual problem a series of interpretive moves that endlessly defer the attainment of self presence by supplementing each other in narrative fictions German Poetical Anthology. ... With a translation of all unusual words and difficult passages, and ... notes Wilhelm

KLAUER-KLATTOWSKI, 1837 Deutscher Soziologentag , 1929 Growth of the Soil Knut Hamsun, 2007-09-25 The story of an elemental existence in rural Norway Traduction Harald Kittel, Juliane House, Brigitte Schultze, 2004 This series of HANDBOOKS OF LINGUISTICS AND COMMUNICATION SCIENCE is designed to illuminate a field which not only includes general linguistics and the study of linguistics as applied to specific languages but also covers those more recent areas which have developed from the increasing body of research into the manifold forms of communicative action and interaction For classic linguistics there appears to be a need for a review of the state of the art which will provide a reference base for the rapid advances in research undertaken from a variety of theoretical standpoints while in the more recent branches of communication science the handbooks will give researchers both an overview and orientation Knut Hamsun, Novelist Sverre Lyngstad, 2005 This is the first comprehensive study in English of the novels of Knut Hamsun Nobel Laureate in literature for 1920 from the radically innovative Hunger 1890 to The Ring Is Closed 1936 The texts are discussed in depth with analysis of recurrent themes narrative modes and generic idiosyncrasies and are evaluated in terms of originality and artistic integrity Reviews and other critical opinions are cited to broaden the evaluative spectrum and throw light on the novels receptions Although the book is scholarly its blend of commentary and summarizing description of settings characters and story lines will also interest the general reader Medallic History of Napoleon Aubin Louis Millin,James needed his people to stiffen their resolve for the coming onslaught To demonstrate what will be expected of the German people and what they could achieve if they refused to acknowledge defeat a major feature film would be shown featuring the one place which held out against Napoleon when he invaded Prussia in 1807 the city of Kolberg After crushing the Prussian Army in 1806 French forces swept into the Prussian province of Pomerania One by one the Prussian fortresses surrendered mostly without offering any resistance except for Kolberg The small and weakly fortified city held out for four months despite being surrounded by Napoleon's forces with Major von Gneisenau organizing a citizen's militia to aid the Army in its defense Though much of the city was blasted into ruin Kolberg remained in Prussian hands until the war with France ended with the signing of the Peace of Tilsit by which time its defense had become legendary Even though the Third Reich was literally entering its death throes in attempting to reproduce the siege of Kolberg on film thousands of experts extras and horses were taken from the war effort by the Reich Minister of Propaganda Joseph Goebbels The film's emphasis was to show how civilians and the military can work together to save Germany just as Kolberg had been saved from the French The result has been stated to be the most expensive feature film ever made in Germany This book examines the dramatic conditions under which the film was produced and the scale of the resources needed to do so followed by its first showing on 30 January 1945 All Goebbels efforts though were to no avail as the film never went on general release A month later as the author reveals Kolberg found itself under siege once again but this time after bitter house to house fighting it fell to the Soviets in less than four weeks
