New and Selected Poems of Anna Wickham Anna Wickham,2017 Anna Wickham 1883 1947 was one of the most important female poets writing in English during the first half of the twentieth century A pioneer of Modernist poetry she was also a fierce feminist social activist and friend of many significant writers including D H Lawrence George Bernard Shaw Dylan Thomas Katherine Mansfield Natalie Clifford Barney Kate O'Brien and Lawrence Durrell She produced a daring and influential body of work while living an often tragic life which ended with her suicide Wickham s unconventional life provided her with a unique worldview she drew heavily on her own experiences in her poetry while interrogating conceptions of gender roles marriage motherhood sexuality and class While Wickham s poetry earned her a major reputation

during her lifetime and her most famous poems continue to be anthologized most of her published work is out of print and the majority of her poems have never been published New and Selected Poems of Anna Wickham is the first collection of Wickham's poetry to be published in over three decades This collection republishes one hundred of Wickham's poems selected from the collections published during her lifetime as well as poems from Selected Poems 1971 and The Writings of Anna Wickham 1984 In addition to bringing many of Wickham's greatest poems back into print this collection publishes one hundred and fifty of her remarkable poems for the first time significantly expanding her body of published work and demonstrating her significant poetic achievement The publication of Anna Wickham's New and Selected Poems is a landmark event for poets and readers and will allow us to properly celebrate this vocational passionate and important voice for the first time Carol Ann Duffy Series UWAP Poetry Subject Poetry Rebuilding the Temple Robert P. Vande Kappelle, 2022-04-21 As the Bible indicates our lives are a construction zone for our bodies are temples of the divine Spirit Formed initially in the image of God human beings lost intimacy with God through corruption rebellion or neglect In response the divine Creator loves us back into relationship providing means of grace to help restore us to wholeness beginning with our body and continuing through our mind soul and spirit As buildings need cleaning maintenance and ongoing care so our inner temple needs spiritual stimulus cleaning and care Rebuilding the Temple is the fourth book in Vande Kappelle's series on spirituality and the arts Books in this series reinforce the essential principle underlying all authentic spirituality Go deep in any one place and you will meet the infinite aliveness that is God for God is everywhere Whereas earlier books consider the connection of spirituality with creative arts such as poetry film music theater drama dance and modern literature this volume takes readers on a journey through classic Christian literature beginning with the Bible and continuing through inspirational works written by diverse spiritual mentors such as Augustine Dante Luther Calvin Teresa of Avila George Fox Blaise Pascal Henri Nouwen A W Tozer John McLaren John Shelby Spong Richard Rohr and Marcus Borg Reading their works reminds us that Christian literature is most practical and inspirational when it takes a narrative approach to theology interpreting the spiritual journey through the ongoing stories of people and communities rather than trying to capture timeless truths analytically or through rational argumentation Like its companion texts Wading on Water Deep Splendor and Deeper Splendor this volume is useful for individual or group study Each chapter concludes with questions suitable for discussion or reflection The Bibliotheca Sacra and Biblical Repository , 1859 Minority Nationalisms in South Asia Tanweer Fazal, 2013-10-18 South Asia is the theatre of myriad experimentations with nationalisms of various kinds religious linguistic religio linguistic composite plural and exclusivist In all the region's major states officially promulgated nationalism at various times has been fiercely contested by minority groups intent on preserving what they see as the pristine purity of their own cultural inheritance This volume examines the perspective of minority identities as they negotiate their terms of co existence accommodation and adaptation with several other competing identities within the framework of the nation state in South

Asia It examines three different kinds of minority articulations cultural conclave with real or fictitious attachments to an imaginary homeland the identity problems of dispersed minorities with no territorial claims and the aspirations of indigenous communities tribes or ethnicities The essays in this volume offer a rich menu the evolution of Naga nationalism the construction of the territory less Sylheti identity the debates over Pashtun nationalism in Pakistan the evolution of Muslim nationalism in Sri Lanka the politics of religious minorities in Bangladesh and Pakistan the making of minority politics in India and questions of Islam and nationalism in colonial India It is an eclectic mix for students of nationalism politics modern history and anyone interested in the evolution of South Asia This book was published as a special issue of South Asian History and Culture
