Encountering China Rachana Sachdev,Qinjun Li,2012-10-01 Encountering China addresses the responses of early modern travelers to China who awed by the wealth and sophistication of the society they encountered attempted primarily to build bridges to explore similarities and to emulate the Chinese though they were also critical of some local traditions and practices Contributors engage critically with travelogues treating them not just as occasional sources of historical information but as primary literary texts deeply revelatory of the world they describe Contributors reach back to the earliest European writings available on China in an effort to broaden and nuance our understanding of European contact with the Middle Kingdom in the early modern period While the primary focus of these essays is the external gaze European sources about China contributors also tease out aspects of the Chinese world view of the time thus generating a conversation between Chinese literary and historical texts and European ones

The Mythistorical Chinese Scholar-Rebel-Advisor Li Yan

Roger V. Des Forges,2020-03-09 Roger Des Forges here examines the puzzle of Li Yan a Chinese scholar who advised the rebel Li Zicheng 1605 1645 and helped him to overthrow the Ming only to die at his hands For more than three centuries Li Yan s identity and even existence were seriously questioned Then in 2004 there was discovered a genealogical manuscript which includes a Li Yan 1606 1644 He now appears to be the principal historical reality behind the Li Yan story which became a powerful metaphor for the rise and fall of Li Zicheng s rebellion Offering a fresh theory of Chinese and world history the author elucidates Li Yan s historical significance by comparing and contrasting him with similar figures in other times and places around the globe

This book introduces four influential Chinese educators of the later 20th century whose writings had enormous influence on many dimensions of the educational reforms which underly China's remarkable transformation into a global superpower. None of them published in English and only Li Bingde, a leader in educational experimentation, had studied abroad. Huang Ji at Beijing Normal University was an educational philosopher who interpreted Chinese classical texts as well as arts such as calligraphy and painting in ways that brought new life to Chinese pedagogy. Lu Jie at Nanjing Normal University and Wang Fengxian at Northeast Normal University were leaders in developing a whole new approach to moral education that highlighted subjectivity and self-awakening as China became a socialist market economy.

The History of Chinese Folktales Liu Shouhua, 2025-04-14. The History of Chinese Folktales is the first comprehensive study of Chinese folktale history spanning from the pre-Qin period to the 20th century. It references over 300 ancient texts and reviews more than 300 representative stories. The book highlights three main research areas: First, motifs and types. This involves identifying and categorizing various story motifs and types as well as analyzing subtypes to create a genealogy of folktales, a process that reflects cultural exchanges among peoples. Second, cultural significance. Employing historical materialism and cultural anthropology, the book explores the cultural implications of folktales, linking them to historical and cultural contexts to reveal their essence. Third, historical geographical comparison. This involves a detailed examination of the life history of stories, considering historical and geographical contexts to understand their essence and cultural flow.

Classic Chinese Poems of Mourning and Texts of Lament Victor H. Mair, Zhenjun Zhang, 2024-05-02. Bathed with the blood and tears of countless poets and authors and naturally expressing the most heartfelt emotions of ancient peoples, poems of mourning and texts of lament stand out in classical Chinese literature as brilliant and unique. Composed and celebrated over 3000 years, they are central to the Chinese literary tradition but have been largely unknown to English readers. Including over 100 major pieces by leading literary figures from 800 BCE to 1800, this is the first English anthology of classic Chinese poems of mourning and texts of sacrificial offering. With annotated translations by leading scholars and reading guides accompanying each piece, this book reveals a powerful literary heritage to students and serious readers of Chinese literature history and civilization.

The Chinese Love Story from the Tenth to the Fourteenth Century Alister D. Inglis, 2023-04-01. Love stories formed a major part of the classical short story genre in China from as early as the eighth century when men of letters began to write about romantic encounters. In later centuries, such stories provided inspiration for several new literary genres. While much scholarly attention has been focused on the short story of both the medieval and late imperial eras, comparatively little work has been attempted on the interim stage, the Song and Yuan dynasties, which spanned some five hundred years from the tenth to the fourteenth centuries. Yet this was a crucial developmental period for many forms of narrative literature, so much so that any understanding of late imperial narrative should be informed by the earlier tradition. The first study of its kind in English, The Chinese Love Story from the Tenth to the Fourteenth Century traces the development of the love story throughout this important yet overlooked era. Using Tang dynasty stories as a point of comparison, Alister D. Inglis examines and appraises key new themes paying special attention to period hallmarks gender portrayal and textuality Inglis demonstrates that contrary to received scholarly wisdom this was a highly innovative period during which writers and storytellers laid a fertile foundation for the literature of late imperial China
