Published by City University of Hong Kong Press The History of Literature in Song, Liao, Jin and Xixia of Dynasty Li Shi, The book is the volume of The History of Literature in Song Liao Jin and Xixia of Dynasty among a series of books of Deep into China Histories The earliest known written records of the history of China date from as early as 1250 BC from the Shang dynasty c 1600 1046 BC and the Bamboo Annals 296 BC describe a Xia dynasty c 2070 1600 BC before the Shang but no writing is known from the period The Shang ruled in the Yellow River valley which is commonly held to be the cradle of Chinese civilization However Neolithic civilizations originated at various cultural centers along both the Yellow River and Yangtze River These Yellow River and Yangtze civilizations arose millennia before the Shang With thousands of years of continuous history China is one of the world s oldest civilizations and is regarded as one of the cradles of civilization The Zhou dynasty 1046 256 BC supplanted the Shang and introduced the concept of the Mandate of Heaven to justify their rule The central Zhou government began to weaken due to external and internal pressures in the 8th century BC and the country eventually splintered into smaller states during the Spring and Autumn period These states became independent and warred with one another in the following Warring States period Much of traditional Chinese culture literature and philosophy first developed during those troubled times In 221 BC Qin Shi Huang conquered the various warring states and created for himself the title of Huangdi or emperor of the Qin marking the beginning of imperial China However the oppressive government fell soon after his death and was supplanted by the longer lived Han dynasty 206 BC 220 AD Successive dynasties developed bureaucratic systems that enabled the emperor to control vast territories directly In the 21 centuries from 206 BC until AD 1912 routine administrative tasks were handled by a special elite of scholar officials Young men well versed in calligraphy history literature and philosophy were carefully selected through difficult government examinations China s last dynasty was the Qing 1644 1912 which was replaced by the Republic of China in 1912 and in the mainland by the People s Republic of China in 1949 Chinese history has alternated between periods of political unity and peace and periods of war and failed statehood the most recent being the Chinese Civil War 1927 1949 China was occasionally dominated by steppe peoples most of whom were eventually assimilated into the Han Chinese culture and population Between eras of multiple kingdoms and warlordism Chinese dynasties have ruled parts or all of China in some eras control stretched as far as Xinjiang and Tibet as at present Traditional culture and influences from other parts of Asia and the Western world carried by waves of immigration cultural assimilation expansion and foreign contact form the basis of the modern culture of China An Outline of Chinese Literature II Yuan Xingpei, 2017-07-20 Different from previous researches weighted toward historical description and individual writer and work this book establishes a general analytical system and a multi angled methodology to examine Chinese literature In ancient China there was no definite concept of pure literature Considering both modern ideas of literature and the corresponding traditional concept this book broadly discusses Shi and Fu poetry Ci poems and Qu verses novels and essays The four chapters deal with the origins evolutions structures and styles of the various genres respectively analyzing some representative works It s worth mentioning that the book is written from an individual perspective Based on his own appreciation as a reader the author expresses the depth of his various related impressions on Chinese literature In addition it conveys many fresh points of views which will enrich and inspire related researches This book will appeal to scholars and students of Chinese literature and comparative literature People who are interested in Chinese literature and Chinese culture will also benefit from this book Notable Women of China Barbara Bennett Peterson,2016-09-16 The collaborative effort of nearly 100 China scholars from around the world this unique one volume reference provides 89 in depth biographies of important Chinese women from the fifth century B C E to the early twentieth century A GENERAL INTRODUCTION TO CHINESE CULTURE GU WEILIE,2022-05-23 A General Introduction to Chinese Culture is a book introducing Chinese culture from the perspectives of institutional culture material culture and spiritual culture by starting from the exploration over implications of culture backgrounds and basic characteristics of traditional Chinese culture Well documented rich in materials and rigorous in theory the book describes and analyzes almost all aspects of traditional Chinese culture both at macro and micro levels Innovative and thought provoking ideas can be found in the summary of the basic characteristics of Chinese culture as well as in the analysis of theoretical issues such as traditional Chinese economic thought political ideas the patriarchal system the imperial examination system science and technology academics religions cultural spirit and aesthetic pursuits of literature and art etc With dialectical and scientific argumentation the interpretation of traditional culture embodies contemporary consciousness and it well reflects the latest level of research on traditional Chinese culture This book has also been used as textbook by the Chinese universities for the graduate students to learn about Chinese culture Awarded the Second Prize of the National University Press Bestseller by Chinese University Press Association and listed top in the recommended bibliography by many libraries this book has been reprinted many times and well received by all readers A Survey of Chinese Literature Zhu Zhirong,2024-07-20 This book presents a systematic elaboration on Chinese literature and its criticism with special reference to introducing the predominant role of idea image The author holds that image takes on a central position in Chinese literature Chinese literature is composed of idea images that depict the scenery and express the emotions in perfect harmony conveyed through literary language reflecting the unique aesthetic sensibilities and the creative consciousness of Chinese people It is created by Chinese literati with an emotion centered soul who experience nature and society with a mode of comprehension rooted in sensibility yet not confined to it Drawing from the traditional Chinese culture and incorporating the creative expression of Chinese literati the author expounds systematically on Chinese literature s basic features and living spirit which are centered on the idea image Furthermore the author discusses the transitional patterns observed in both highbrow and vernacular Chinese literature Embracing a modern research perspective the author not only provides insights into traditional literature but also sheds light on its contemporary relevance This endeavor unveils the unique values inherent in Chinese literature at a profound level thereby offering invaluable insights into the essence and spirit of Chinese literary tradition Proceedings of the 5th International Conference on Language, Art and Cultural Exchange (ICLACE 2024)

Chaoqun Shen, Li Cong, Feiru Zeng, Gabriel Antunes De Araujo, 2024-07-18 This is an open access book The 5th International Conference on Language Art and Cultural Exchange ICLACE 2024 will be held on May 31 June 2 2024 in Changchun China ICLACE 2024 is to bring together innovative academics and industrial experts in the fields of Language Art and Culture to a common forum The primary goal of the conference is to promote research and developmental activities in Language Art and Culture and another goal is to promote scientific information interchange between researchers developers engineers students and practitioners working all around the world The conference will be held every year to make it an ideal platform for people to share views and experiences in Language Art and Culture and related areas We warmly invite you to participate in ICLACE2024 and look forward to seeing you in Changchun China Chinese Narratology II Yang Yi, 2023-11-30 As the second volume of a two volume set on Chinese narratology this title investigates the quintessential characteristics of the Chinese narrative style with a focus on image and perspective The first chapter introduces two opposing concepts of perspective focalization and blind spot to connect perspective with traditional aesthetics highlighting the mutual relation of the nonexistent and the existent The author believes that both the narrator and perspective are central to the narrative forms and strategies adopted by Chinese writers and that study of the narrator and perspective is integral to understanding the cultural aesthetic and philosophical connotations of the narrative text and the spiritual world of the author Drawing on perceptual phenomenology the chapter on image broadens the extant knowledge of image and points out that image narration is unique to Chinese narratology and central to Chinese aesthetics The final chapter illustrating the achievements of influential critics of classical Chinese novels proving that these critics have contributed to the canonization of the genuine masterpieces of Chinese narrative literature The book is a must read for scholars and students interested in narrative theory Chinese culture and literature and dialogue between Chinese and Western narratological studies Teaching Writing in

Chinese Speaking Areas Mark Shiu-Kee Shum, 2005-07-27 One of the most civilized nations in history China has a long standing writing tradition and many Chinese texts have become world treasures However the way the Chinese teach writing in various countries in contemporary times is little known to the outside world especially in Western countries Undoubtedly the Chinese have had an established traditional method of writing instruction However recent social and political developments have created the perception amongst both practitioners and researchers of a need for change Whilst certain socio political changes both in Mainland China and in the territories acted as agents for reform of the teaching of composition the shape these reforms are taking has been due to many different influences coming both from inside the countries themselves and from foreign sources Mainland China Hong Kong Taiwan and Singapore have each developed their own approach to the teaching of composition Teaching Writing in Chinese Speaking Areas aims to provide an accurate picture of the diverse composition teaching contexts and approaches in these four regions and countries This is the first book that systematically introduces recent developments in teaching composition in Chinese speaking areas It outlines current theories and paradigms originating both in the West and in China and Chinese speaking territories and the way in which these have been adapted to suit the various cultural contexts and learning environments The overview is of relevance not only to the East but throughout the world Comprehensive Introduction to Chinese Traditional Music Yuan

Jingfang,2023-03-08 Comprehensive Introduction to Chinese Traditional Music offers a detailed survey of Chinese traditional music in five chapters each dealing with a different genre The five genres are folk songs dance music narrative singing music from Chinese opera and instrumental music The book begins with an introduction providing an overview of Chinese traditional music history its connotations and main musical features an indispensable context for readers unfamiliar with the subject Within the main text the authors discuss not only the local music genres focusing on instruments music analysis and tonal theories but also the historical evolution performance and social contexts associated with the music A glossary of Chinese musical terms is listed in the appendix A HISTORY OF ANCIENT CHINESE MUSIC AND DANCE Wang

Ningning,2019-11-04 A History of Ancient Chinese Music and Dance describes the history of music and dance in ancient China in the past five thousand years in the forms of poems music and dance It includes court music and dance music and dance in drama and folk music and dance It covers historical and professional knowledge such as music dance poetry and drama The book consists of eleven chapters from ancient times to the Ming Dynasty and the Qing Dynasty In each chapter there are historical background music and dance works people events and related poetry and images The Yellow Emperor created tonality for wind instruments Emperor Yao and Emperor Shun invented musical instruments qin and se Duke of Zhou made system of rites and music Apart from these music dance and acrobatics in the Qin Dynasty and the Han Dynasty grand compositions in the Tang Dynasty and the Song Dynasty and music and dance in drama in the Ming Dynasty and the Qing Dynasty can all lead us to the long developing process of ancient music and dance The book was the Project of 2003 National Tenth Five Year Plan for Art Science in China It was co funded by the National Publishing Fund and China Classics International of the General Administration of Press and Publication The Poetics of Repetition in English and Chinese

Lyric Poetry Cecile Chu-chin Sun,2011-01-15 In this pioneering book Cecile Chu chin Sun establishes a sound and effective comparative methodology by using a multifaceted understanding of the concept of repetition not merely a recurrence of words and images as a key perspective from which to compare the poetry and poetics from these two traditions
