Manet Gauguin while others Flandrin Orsel Gleyre Cazin were major figures in their own time though largely forgotten today Writing from an interdisciplinary perspective and employing concepts derived from structuralist and poststructuralist theory Driskel moves beyond simple formalism to restore a category of once important works to a meaningful context thereby offering others a model by which to discuss and interpret these paintings Carefully charting the genealogies of hieraticism and naturalism he demonstrates that a dramatic shift occurred in the 1860s and 1870s as naturalism gained acceptance among ultramontanes and the hieratic mode began to attract the interest of adherents to the belief system of modernism Representing Belief is the first book to situate this art in its social and historical contexts and to approach it from this point of view Studio International ,1894 The Publishers Weekly ,1954
