Selected Letters Of Raymond Chandler Edited By Frank Macshane:

Selected Letters of Raymond Chandler Raymond Chandler, 1981 I don't know why the hell I write so many letters Raymond Chandler once mused to a correspondent I guess my mind is just too active for its own good In the seven novels from The Big Sleep 1939 to Playback 1958 and in a handful of short stories Raymond Chandler recorded a vision of Southern California life sparked by acerbic observations on every level of coast society from drug dealers and crooked cops to heiresses But Chandler's gifts of observation and analysis extended well past the streets alleyways roadhouses and stately homes that made up the world of his detective hero Phillip Marlowe Brought together in this volume are some of the hundreds of letters Chandler wrote many of them composed during long insomniac nights Chandler commented on all that he saw around him from his own personal foibles to the works of his contemporaries Ernest Hemingway and Edmund Wilson to education English society and world events Acute sometimes impassioned often witty the Selected Letters of Raymond Chandler contains lively anecdotes of Hollywood critical dissections of his fellow writers of detective fiction lengthy discussions of the art of writing and of his own fiction and above all amused sometimes outraged glimpses of the Southern California society that was his inspiration Chandler once wrote that in letters I sometimes seem to have been more penetrating than in any other kind of writing But his letters could also be combative as when he wrote to an editor at the Atlantic that when I split an infinitive God damn it I intend that it should stay split or dismissive as when he said of James M Cain that everything he writes smells like a billy goat He could also be painfully revealing as when he wrote of his despair over the death of his wife It was my great and now useless regret Chandler confessed that I never wrote anything really worthy her attention no book that I could dedicate to her Lively entertaining and sometimes touching these letters fully present for the first time the complex sensibilities of a man who was one of America's greatest writers of detective novels and one of its most astute observers The Raymond Chandler Papers Raymond Chandler, 2002-10-03 These papers bring together the correspondence and other previously uncollected writing of America's undisputed master of crime fiction and creator of the iconic private eye Phillip Marlowe revealing aspects of the artist's powerful personality and broad intellectual curiosity For the Chandler fan The Raymond Chandler Papers is a treasure trove David Lehman The New York Times Book Review the great works of American fiction and will surprise and enthrall Chandler's biggest fans. Including Personal letters and source texts. The Metaphysics of Detective Marlowe Mircea Mihaies, 2013-12-20 Raymond Chandler's role in the reshaping of hard-boiled literature can hardly be exaggerated. He shattered the dogmas of a genre content to be popular and paved the way for a noble, complex and aristocratic destiny. He implemented his revolutionary vision by radical changes in style, manner and character construction. Like his hero Philip Marlowe, he was fascinated with the metaphysical features of existence: honor, pride, loneliness, disenchantment, futility, failure, horror, boredom, alienation, rebellion, fear, moral paralysis. In The Metaphysics of Detective Marlowe, Mircea Mihaies reexamines the major contradiction of Chandler's hero: though in the service of truth, he is often forced to realize that truth is sordid, repulsive, malicious, aggressive and rapacious. Out of this baffling position, a new American genre and type of hero have emerged. The Australian Love Letters of Raymond Chandler Alan Close, Raymond Chandler, 1995. Inventive blend of fiction and fact story is interspersed with letters between the American crime writer and Deirdre Gartrell. Encyclopedia of American Literature Manly, Inc., 2013-06 Susan Clair Imbarrato, Carol Berkin, Brett Barney, Lisa Paddock, Matthew J. Bruccoli, George Parker Anderson, Judith S.

Noir Fiction and Film Lee Clark Mitchell, 2021. The argument of Noir Fiction and Film is curiously counterintuitive: that in a century of hard-boiled fiction and detective films, characteristics that at first seemed trivial swelled in importance, flourishing into crucial aspects of the genre. Among these are aimless descriptions of people and places irrelevant to plot, along with detectives consisting of little more than sparkling dialogue and flippant attitudes. What weaves together such features, however, seems to be a paradox: that a genre rooted in solving a mystery, structured around the gathering of clues, must do so by misdirecting our attention, even withholding information we think we need to generate the suspense we also desire. Yet successful noir stories and films enhance that suspense through passing diversions, descriptive details and eccentric perspectives rather than depending on the center pieces of plot alone: suspected motives or incriminating traces. As the greatest practitioners of the genre have realized, the how of detective fiction, its stylistic detours, draws us in more insistently than the what or the who, its linear advance. And the achievement of recent film noir is to make that how become the tantalizing object of our entire attention, shorn of any pretense of reading for the plot, immersing us in the diversionary delight that has animated the genre from the beginning. Creatures of Darkness Gene D. Phillips, 2021-03-17. An exhaustively researched survey of Raymond Chandler's thorny relationship with Hollywood during the classic period of film noir. Alain Silver, film producer and author. Raymond Chandler's seven novels, including The Big Sleep (1939) and The Long Goodbye (1953), with their pessimism and grim realism, had a direct influence on the emergence of film noir. Chandler worked to give his crime novels the flavor of his adopted city, Los Angeles, which was still something of a frontier town rife with corruption and lawlessness In addition to novels Chandler wrote short stories and penned the screenplays for several films including Double Indemnity 1944 and Strangers on a Train 1951 His work with Billy Wilder and Alfred Hitchcock on these projects was fraught with the difficulties of collaboration between established directors and an author who disliked having to edit his writing on demand Creatures of Darkness is the first major biocritical study of Chandler in twenty years Gene Phillips explores Chandler's unpublished script for Lady in the Lake examines the process of adaptation of the novel Strangers on a Train discusses the merits of the unproduced screenplay for Playback and compares Howard Hawks's director's cut of The Big Sleep with the version shown in theaters Through interviews he conducted with Wilder Hitchcock Hawks and Edward Dmytryk over the past several decades Phillips provides deeper insight into Chandler's sometimes difficult personality Chandler's wisecracking private eye Philip Marlowe has spawned a thousand imitations Creatures of Darkness lucidly explains the author's dramatic impact on both the literary and cinematic worlds demonstrating the immeasurable debt that both detective fiction and the neo noir films of today owe to Chandler's stark vision
