Selected Poems And Prose Of Michael Roberts:

Selected Poems and Prose [of] Michael Roberts Michael Roberts, 1980 The Criterion Jason Harding, 2002 In this detailed study of literary culture in the inter war period Jason Harding examines the standing of T S Eliot's journal the Criterion in relation to other literary periodicals and beyond that to the larger cultural networks of the time The Criterion may at first sight seem a well studied publication often dismissed as predictably conservative even proto Fascist However through his examination of insufficiently known archive material and interviews with living witnesses to the period Harding significantly alters our understanding of the journal and of Eliot's role as editor More than that by carefully resituating the journal in its relations of both competition and co operation with a range of other literary periodicals for the most part little studied themselves he shows himself an authoritative and discriminating guide to the often complex networks within which Eliot worked The Criterion Cultural Politics and Periodical Networks in Inter War Britain defends the journal against charges of Fascism and anti Semitism it is an invaluable book for scholars of Eliot and an original and incisive exploration of difficult areas of literary cultural exchange The Cambridge Companion to British Literature of the 1930s James Smith, 2019-12-19 The 1930s is frequently seen as a unique moment in British literary history a decade where writing was shaped by an intense series of political events aesthetic debates and emerging literary networks Yet what is contained under the rubric of 1930s writing has been the subject of competing claims and therefore this Companion offers the reader an incisive survey covering the decade's literature and its status in critical debates Across the chapters sustained attention is given to writers of growing scholarly interest to pivotal authors of the period such as Auden Orwell and Woolf to the development of key literary forms and themes and to the relationship between this literature and the decade's pressing social and political contexts Through this the reader will gain new insight into 1930s literary history and an understanding of many of the critical debates that have marked the study of this unique literary era W.H. Auden Dr John Haffenden, 2002-09-11 This set comprises of 40 volumes covering nineteenth and twentieth century European and American authors These volumes will be available as a complete set mini boxed sets by theme or as individual volumes This second set compliments the first 68 volume set of Critical Heritage published by Routledge in October 1995 Mountaineering Literature Jill Neate, 1986 Long established as a standard reference work worldwide this is a thorough bibliography of all mountaineering books that are of practical use to climbers or for reading pleasure or historical interest Documenting more than 2000 books of mountaineering literature it also includes nearly 900 climber's guidebooks a sampling of more than 400 works of mountaineering fiction plus journals and bibliographies The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries A Companion to Modernist Poetry David E.
