The Poetry Toolkit: The Essential Guide to Studying Poetry Rhian Williams, 2009-03-07 Getting to grips with poetry and its terminology can be one of the most intimidating parts of literary study. The Poetry Toolkit helps with this problem by giving clear and concise guidance about reading and discussing poetry in an easy to use format. By providing accessible commentary on the formal traditions of poetry across the ages and by emphasizing the empowering effect of technical vocabulary, this book encourages confidence and enjoyment. Its simple and clear explanations of key terms, genres and concepts enable readers to develop a richer, more sophisticated approach to reading, thinking and writing about poems. Moving from introductory overviews to short sections on key concepts, forms and topics, each entry includes a technical definition, a review of its historical and cultural significance, illustrative examples from a range of poems and finally additional reading and suggestions for further work. The Poetry Toolkit offers a practical solution to the difficulties of reading and writing about poetry. It offers any student of poetry the key tools needed to read, study and write about poetry with confidence.

Scottish Modernism and its Contexts 1918-1959 Margery Palmer McCulloch, 2009-05-15 This innovative book proposes the expansion of the existing idea of an interwar Scottish Renaissance movement to include its international significance as a Scottish literary modernism interacting with the intellectual and artistic ideas of European modernism as well as responding to the challenges of the Scottish cultural and political context. Topics range from the revitalisation of the Scots vernacular as an avant garde literary language in the 1920s and the interaction of literature and politics in the 1930s to the fictional re-imagining of the Highlands, the response of women writers to a changing modern world and the manifestations of a late modernism in the 1940s and 1950s. Writers featured include Hugh MacDiarmid, Lewis Grassie Gibbon, Neil M Gunn, Edwin and Willa Muir, Catherine Carswell, Sydney Goodsir Smith and Sorley MacLean. Reading Poetry Tom Furniss, Michael Bath, 2022-04-06 Reading Poetry offers a comprehensive and accessible guide to the art of reading poetry. Discussing more than 200 poems by more than 100 writers ranging from ancient Greece and China to the twenty-first century, the book introduces readers to the skills and the critical and theoretical awareness that enable them to read poetry with enjoyment and insight. This third edition has been significantly updated in response to current developments in poetry and poetic criticism and includes many new examples and exercises, new chapters on world poetry and eco poetry and a greater emphasis throughout on American poetry, including the impact traditional Chinese poetry has had on modern American poetry. The seventeen carefully staged chapters constitute a complete apprenticeship in reading poetry, leading readers from specific features of form and figurative language to larger concerns with genre, intertextuality, Caribbean poetry, world poetry and the role poetry can play in response to the ecological crisis. The workshop exercises at the end of each chapter, together with an extensive glossary of poetic and critical terms and the number and range of poems analysed and discussed (122 of which are quoted in full), make Reading Poetry suitable for individual study or as a comprehensive self-contained textbook for university and college classes Anthologies of British Poetry Barbara Korte, Ralf Schneider, Stefanie Lethbridge, 2000 From Tottel's Miscellany 1557 to the last twentieth century Oxford Book of English Verse 1999 anthologies have been a prime institution for the preservation and mediation of poetry The importance of anthologies for creating and re-creating the canon of English poetry for introducing new programmes of poetry as a record of changing poetic fashions audience tastes and reading practices or as a profitable literary commodity has often been asserted Despite its impact however the poetry anthology in itself has attracted surprisingly little critical interest in Britain or elsewhere in the English speaking world This volume is the first publication to explore the largely unmapped field of poetry anthologies in Britain Essays written from a wide range of perspectives in literary and cultural studies and the point of view of poets editors publishers and cultural institutions aim to do justice to the typological functional and historical variety with which this form of publication has manifested itself from early modern print culture to the postmodern age of the world wide web Hugh MacDiarmid's Poetry and Politics of Place Scott Lyall, 2006-08-28 By examining at length for the first time those places in Scotland that inspired MacDiarmid to produce his best poetry Scott Lyall shows how the poet's politics evolved from his interaction with the nation exploring how MacDiarmid discovered a hidden tradition of radical Scottish Republicanism through which he sought to imagine a new Scottish future Adapting postcolonial theory this book allows readers a fuller understanding not only of MacDiarmid's poetry and politics but also of international modernism and the social history of Scottish modernism Robert Burns and Cultural Authority Robert Crawford, 1997 Celebrating Burns's bicentenary this work reflects upon and analyzes the achievements of Scotland's famous poet It looks at topics ranging from Burns and God to Burns and sex Amazon.com The New Criterion, 1994 East Meets West Reiko Aiura, J. U. Jacobs, 2014-06-30 The 13th International Conference on the Literature of Region and Nation held at Biwako in Shiga Prefecture Japan in the summer of 2010 fully maintained the tradition established in this long running conference series of bringing together scholars from many countries and many fields of specialisation Although the conferences have taken place in widely scattered locations this was the first to be held in an Asian country and the opportunity this presented of focusing on the cultural links between East and West was taken up enthusiastically by the participants Several of the papers explore aspects sometimes unexpected of the cultural cross fertilisation between Japan or the Orient in general and the national literatures of the West Others concentrate on iconic figures from regions of the English speaking world with strongly developed individual literary traditions All the papers have been peer reviewed and extensively revised in order to maximise their impact in the written word The collection demonstrates the stimulating effect of cross cultural interaction in the field of literary studies of East and West Contemporary Scottish Literature Matt McGuire, 2008-11-24 This Guide examines the critical construction of the genre of contemporary Scottish literature and assesses the critical responses to a wide range of contemporary Scottish fiction poetry and drama The Guide is structured thematically with each chapter addressing a specific area of debate within the field of contemporary Scottish Studies Thinking Through Art Katy Macleod, 2013-01-11 Focusing on a unique arena Thinking Through Art takes an innovative look at artists' experiences of undertaking doctorates and asks: If the making of art is not simply the formulation of an object but is also the formation of complex ideas, then what effect does academic enquiry have on art practice? Using twenty-eight pictures never before seen outside the artists' universities, Thinking Through Art focuses on art produced in higher educational environments and considers how the material product comes about through a process of conceiving and giving form to abstract thought. It further examines how this form, which is research art, sits uneasily within academic circles and yet is uniquely situated outside the gallery system. The journal articles from eminent scholars, artists, philosophers, art historians, and cultural theorists demonstrate the complexity of interpreting art as research and provide students and scholars with an invaluable resource for their art and cultural studies courses.
