A Donald Justice Reader Donald Justice, 1991 Pulitzer Prize winning poet Donald Justice displays his command of diverse voices and literary forms in these wide ranging often surprising selections some never before collected There are elegiac poems and stories conjuring people and places from a distant childhood tributes to literary figures such as Wallace Stevens and Cesar Vallejo portrayals of asylum patients and the desolation of old men and critical essays on the power of art to ward off death The poet's virtuosity in many forms is evident in the structured perfection of a sestina or a villanelle free verse of various kinds the rich prose of a short story or the careful analysis of an essay His personality especially his love for music and his creative method come through strongly particularly when he treats the same theme in multiple genres The ending of one story for example is retold as a poem a prose memoir is summarized twice over in a group of poems These exemplary selections reflect four decades of writing by a master now at the height of his powers
