Selected Prose 19532003:

Selected Prose John Ashbery, 2004-01-01 Selected Prose 1953 2003 presents for the first time in one volume many essays on authors who have influenced John Ashbery's development as a major voice in poetry. They are arranged chronologically to assist the reader in following the development of Ashbery as a poet. These critical works are as essential to the cultural and literary history of twentieth century poetry as are the critical prose of T S Eliot and W H Auden. They vividly portray a literary sensibility which is one of the most important in the development of poetry in English over the last century and equally influential on poetry and art in the twenty first century. What it Means to Write About Art Jarrett

Earnest, 2018-11-27 The most comprehensive portrait of art criticism ever assembled as told by the leading writers of our time. In the last fifty years art criticism has flourished as never before. Moving from niche to mainstream it is now widely taught at universities, practiced in newspapers, magazines and online and has become the subject of debate by readers, writers and artists worldwide. Equal parts oral history and analysis of craft, What It Means to Write About Art offers an unprecedented overview of American art writing. These thirty in depth conversations chart the role of the critic as it has evolved from the 1960s to today, providing an invaluable resource for aspiring artists and writers alike. John Ashbery recalls finding Rimbaud's poetry through his first gay crush; at sixteen Rosalind Krauss remembers stealing the design of October from Massimo Vignelli; Paul Chaat Smith details his early days with Jimmy Durham in the American Indian Movement; Dave Hickey talks about writing country songs with Waylon Jennings; Michele Wallace relives her late night and early morning interviews with James Baldwin; Lucy Lippard describes confronting Clement Greenberg at a lecture; Eileen Myles asserts her belief that her negative review incited the Women's Action Coalition; and Fred Moten recounts falling in love with Renoir while at Harvard. Jarrett Earnest's wide ranging conversations with critics, historians, journalists, novelists, poets and theorists, each of whom approach the subject from unique positions, illustrate different ways of writing, thinking and looking at art. Interviews with Hilton Als, John Ashbery, Bill Berkson, Yve Alain Bois, Huey Copeland, Holland Cotter, Douglas Crimp, Darby English, Hal Foster, Michael Fried, Thyrza Nichols Goodeve, Dave Hickey, Siri Hustvedt, Kellie Jones, Chris Kraus, Rosalind Krauss, Lucy Lippard, Fred Moten, Eileen Myles, Molly Nesbit, Jed Perl, Barbara Rose, Jerry Saltz, Peter Schjeldahl, Barry Schwabsky, Paul Chaat Smith, Roberta Smith, Lynne Tillman, Michele Wallace and John Yau. On a Bat's Wing Michael

Baron, 2007 Including poems from Emily Dickinson, John Clare, D H Lawrence, Stevie Smith, Seamus Heaney and many more, this collection of poems about bats is a source of inspiration and mythology, flitting in and out of human experience in some unexpected ways. The Routledge Handbook of Stylistics Michael Burke, 2023-05-29 This second edition of The Routledge Handbook of Stylistics provides a comprehensive introduction and reference point to key areas in the field of stylistics. The four sections of the volume encompass a wide range of approaches from classical rhetoric to cognitive neuroscience. Issues that are covered include historical perspectives centring on rhetoric, formalism and functionalism; the elements of stylistic analysis including foregrounding relevance theory conversation analysis narrative metaphor speech and thought presentation and point of view current areas of influential research such as cognitive poetics corpus stylistics critical stylistics multimodality creative writing and reader response four newly commissioned chapters in the emerging fields of cognitive grammar forensic linguistics the stylistics of children's literature and a corpus stylistic study of mental health issues All of these new chapters are written by leading researchers in their respective fields Each of the 33 chapters in this volume is written by a specialist Each chapter provides an introduction to the subject an overview of its history an instructive example of how to conduct a stylistic analysis a section with recommendations for practice and a discussion of possible future developments in the area for readers to follow up on The Routledge Handbook of Stylistics second edition is essential reading for researchers postgraduates and undergraduate students working in this area

Feminist Encounters with Legal Philosophy Maria Drakopoulou, 2013-12-17 Presenting feminist readings of texts from the legal philosophical and jurisprudential canon the papers collected here offer an interdisciplinary and critical challenge to established modes of reading law Feminist approaches to law usually take the form of either critical engagements with legal doctrine legal concepts and ideas or critical assessments of the effects that specific areas of law have upon the lives of women This collection however although rooted in feminist legal scholarship takes the established canon of legal texts as the object of inquiry Taking as their common starting point the fact that legal texts are plural and open to multiple readings all the contributions in this collection offer subversive but supplementary interpretations of the legal canon In this respect however they do not merely sustain an array of feminist styles and theories of reading revealing and re appropriating the plural space of legal interpretation they seek to open a hitherto unexplored arena for a feminist politics of law Feminist Encounters with Legal Philosophy is a thoroughly researched interdisciplinary collection that will interest students and scholars of Law Philosophy and Feminism

Bad Imaginings Caroline Adderson, 2018-09-11 Winner of the Ethel Wilson Fiction Prize and shortlisted for the Governor General's Award for fiction and the Commonwealth Writer's Prize Caroline Adderson's short fiction collection travels far and wide From adolescent brothers marooned at an indifferent relative's cottage to a Depression era Ukrainian immigrant reading the drought parched skies above Palliser's Triangle to two friends trying to make sense of feminism in the eighties Adderson captures her characters' cadences conflicts and consolations their individual burdens and the mysteries they share Adventurous often funny and impeccably researched these stories chart their lives with compassion and intelligence

Clare's Lyric Stephanie Kuduk Weiner, 2014-04 Clare's Lyric examines John Clare's lyric poems and their impact on the work of three twentieth century poets Arthur Symonds Edmund Blunden and John Ashbery

The Debate on the Constitution: Federalist and Antifederalist Speeches, Articles, and Letters During the Struggle over Ratification Vol. 2 (LOA #63) Various, 1993-06-01 Here on a scale unmatched by any previous collection is the extraordinary energy and eloquence of our first national political campaign During the secret proceedings of the Constitutional Convention in 1787 the framers created a fundamentally new national plan to replace the Articles of Confederation and then submitted it to conventions in each state for ratification. Immediately a fierce storm of argument broke. Federalist supporters, Antifederalist opponents and seekers of a middle ground strove to balance public order and personal liberty as they praised, condemned, challenged and analyzed the new Constitution. Gathering hundreds of original texts by Franklin, Madison, Jefferson, Washington and Patrick Henry as well as many others less well known today, this unrivaled collection allows readers to experience firsthand the intense year-long struggle that created what remains the world's oldest working national charter. Assembled here in chronological order are hundreds of newspaper articles, pamphlets, speeches and private letters written or delivered in the aftermath of the Constitutional Convention. Along with familiar figures like Franklin, Madison, Patrick Henry, Jefferson and Washington, scores of less famous citizens are represented all speaking clearly and passionately about government. The most famous writings of the ratification struggle, the Federalist essays of Hamilton and Madison, are placed in their original context alongside the arguments of able antagonists such as Brutus and the Federal Farmer. Part Two gathers collected press polemics and private commentaries from January to August 1788, including all the amendments proposed by state ratifying conventions as well as dozens of speeches from the South Carolina, Virginia, New York and North Carolina conventions. Included are dramatic confrontations from Virginia where Patrick Henry pitted his legendary oratorical skills against the persuasive logic of Madison, and from New York where Alexander Hamilton faced the brilliant Antifederalist Melancton Smith. Informative notes, biographical profiles of all writers, speakers and recipients, and a detailed chronology of relevant events from 1774 to 1804 provide fascinating background. A general index allows readers to follow specific topics, and an appendix includes the Declaration of Independence, the Articles of Confederation and the Constitution with all amendments.
