Selected Writings 1920-1969:

Selected Writings (1920-1969) Chí Minh Hồ, 1973 Ho Chi Minh: Selected Writings 1920-1969 Chí Minh Hồ, 1977 The Vietnam War from the Other Side Cheng Guan Ang, 2013-07-04 Existing studies of the Vietnam War have been written mostly from an American perspective using western sources and viewing the conflict through western eyes This book based on extensive original research including Vietnamese Chinese and former Soviet sources presents a history of the war from the perspective of the Vietnamese communists It charts relations with Moscow and Beijing showing how the involvement of the two major communist powers changed over time and how the Vietnamese despite their huge dependence on the Chinese and the Soviets were most definitely in charge of their own decision making Overall it provides an important corrective to the many one sided studies of the war and presents a very interesting new perspective Constructing Genocide and Mass Violence Maureen S. Hiebert, 2017-03-16 This book addresses two closely related questions what is the process by which the relatively short and violent genocides of the twentieth century and beyond have occurred Why have these instances of mass violence been genocidal and not some other form of state violence repression or conflict Hiebert answers these questions by exploring the structures and processes that underpin the decision by political elites to commit genocide focusing on a sustained comparison of two cases the Nazi Final Solution and the Cambodian genocide The book clearly differentiates the structures and processes contained within a larger overall process that leads to genocidal violence Uncovering the mechanisms by which societies at least in the contemporary era come to experience genocide as a distinct form of destruction and not some other form of mass or political violence Hiebert is able to highlight a set of key process that lead to specifically genocidal violence Providing an insightful contribution to the burgeoning literature in this area this book will be of interest to students and scholars of genocide international relations and political violence War By Other Means Carlyle A. Thayer, 2021-12-27 This book first published in 1989 examines the creation and implementation of Communist policy in Vietnam during the crucial period between the 1954 Geneva Conference and the establishment of the National Front for the Liberation of South Vietnam in December 1960 This study challenges long held views about the origins and nature of the Viet Cong It carefully examines the various stages in the struggle for national liberation during this period reviews the consequences of the failure of purely political means to achieve reunification and then focuses on the struggle between the Diem regime and the Communists J.M. Coetzee David Attwell, 1993-06-11 David Attwell defends the literary and political integrity of South African novelist J M Coetzee by arguing that Coetzee has absorbed the textual turn of postmodern culture while still addressing the ethical tensions of the South African crisis As a form of situational metafiction Coetzee s writing reconstructs and critiques some of the key discourses in the history of colonialism and apartheid from the eighteenth century to the present While self conscious about fiction making it takes seriously the condition of the society in which it is produced Attwell begins by describing the intellectual and political contexts surrounding Coetzee s fiction and then provides a developmental analysis of his six novels drawing on Coetzee's other writings in stylistic literary criticism translation political journalism and popular culture Elegantly written Attwell's analysis deals with both Coetzee's subversion of the dominant culture around him and his ability to see the complexities of giving voice to the anguish of South Africa

Western Marxism Domenico Losurdo, 2024-09-17 A stinging critique of Western Marxism counterposing its complicity with imperialist logic against a resurgent anti-imperialism Western Marxism How It Was Born How It Died How It Can Be Reborn is a paradigm shifting book that provides a trenchant critique of the Western left intelligentsia It reveals how its dominant ideological orientation characterized by defeatism utopianism and anti-communism is rooted in the political economy of imperialism Internationally acclaimed theorist Domenico Losurdo thus provides a fresh and challenging perspective on purportedly radical thinkers who have been widely promoted in the imperial core including those affiliated with the Frankfurt School French Theory and operaismo as well as Hannah Arendt Giorgio Agamben Michael Hardt and Slavoj Žižek among others His critique also has wide reaching implications for trend setting discourses inspired by this coterie of intellectuals from postcolonial and decolonial theory to subaltern studies and beyond Far from being a negative undertaking however this book is grounded in the positive project of reigniting anti-imperialist Marxism As a complement to the Italian edition of Western Marxism this first ever English translation also features the unprecedented publication of a major lecture that demystifies Western Marxism and its role in imperialists efforts to denigrate the achievements of actually existing socialism Raising the stakes of what it means to produce critical theory Western Marxism will surely provoke wide debate and a reevaluation of hallowed canons
