Selected Writings Of Hildegard:

Selected Writings Saint Hildegard, 2001-11 Benedictine nun poet and musician Hildegard of Bingen 1098-1179 was one of the most remarkable figures of the Middle Ages. She undertook preaching tours throughout the German empire at the age of sixty and was consulted not only by her religious contemporaries but also by kings and emperors. Yet it is largely for her apocalyptic and mystical writings that she is remembered. This volume includes selections from her three visionary works: her treatises on medicine and the natural world, her devotional songs, and fascinating letters to prominent figures of her time. Dealing with such eternal subjects as the relationship between humans and nature and men and women, Hildegard's works show her to be a wide-ranging thinker who created such fresh, startling images and ideas that her writings have been compared to Dante and Blake. The Middle Ages Frank N. Magill, 2012-11-12

Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history. This is not a who's who. Instead, each entry provides an in-depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned. Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements. The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context, and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history. All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography.

Christian Solar Symbolism and Jesus the Sun of Justice Kevin Duffy, 2022-02-24 This pioneering study of Christian sun symbolism describes how biblical light motifs were taken up with energy in the early Church. Kevin Duffy argues that living in a world of 24/7 illumination, we need to reconnect with the sun and its light to appreciate the meaning of light in the Bible and Christian tradition. With such a retrieval, we can appreciate Pope Francis's insistence that like the moon, the Church does not shine with its own light and assess the claim that the Eucharist is to be celebrated Ad Orientem, that is, towards the rising sun in the East. Liturgy, architecture, poetry, and the writings of saints and theologians such as Augustine, Hildegard of Bingen, Francis of Assisi, and Thomas Traherne offer abundant resources for a much-needed renaissance. While Christ was preached as the True Sun among sun-worshipping Aztecs, and the consecrated host was placed in a solar monstrance on Baroque altars, in the modern era solar themes have been neglected. In this accessible work, the author suggests that we rebalance a spiritual symbolism that has over-emphasised darkness and cloud at the expense of light and sun. He proposes a creative retrieval of the traditional title of Christ as the Sun of Justice. This title blends the personal, the social, and the cosmic, ecological, and speaks powerfully to a secularising era that contemporaries Friedrich Nietzsche and Thérèse of Lisieux both described as one where the sun does not shine. Dictionary of World Biography Frank Northen Magill, Alison Aves, 1998
