Athnos,2023-05-26 Is the turning point of human history the Jesus of the cross or the Christ of the resurrection We live on this side of the resurrection yet we act as if we are on the far side of the crucifixion Staring into the cross from the Good Friday perspective makes it difficult to see beyond it It consumes us It blocks our vision Even though we understand in our minds there was a Sunday we continue to stand in our hearts on Friday Are we missing life in the brilliant light of the resurrection Try to imagine the profound transformation from the disciples broken spirit on Friday to their heart stopping joy on Sunday evening Transformation was truly so wrenching there could never be a return to their pre resurrection world They began to see the cross through the lens of the resurrection every time The risen Lord became their launching pad for faith and from that glorious platform they reached back and embraced his crucifixion It should be the same for us Lent, Holy Week, Easter and the Great Fifty Days Leonel L. Mitchell,1996-01-25 This long awaited companion volume to Howard E Galley s classic The Ceremonies of the Eucharist provides clergy liturgical assistants and altar guild members with clear step by step guidance for the liturgies of Lent and Easter In addition to background material for the traditions and theology of each season Mitchell includes specific preparations and instructions for each liturgy of the paschal cycle Ash Wednesday through Pentecost as well as Tenebrae the Way of the Cross the Vigil of Pentecost the liturgies of the catechumenate and the chrism mass He also provides helpful ideas for how the often complex liturgies of these seasons can be done simply and well by small congregations Based on the liturgies of The Book of Common Prayer and the latest edition of The Book of Occasional Services this ceremonial guide also draws on the paschal liturgies of other Anglican traditions including those in Canada s Book of Alternative Services
