The Death of Sacred Texts Kristina Myrvold, 2016-03-09 The Death of Sacred Texts draws attention to a much neglected topic in the study of sacred texts the religious and ritual attitudes towards texts which have become old and damaged and can no longer be used for reading practices or in religious worship This book approaches religious texts and scriptures by focusing on their physical properties and the dynamic interactions of devices and habits that lie beneath and within a given text In the last decades a growing body of research studies has directed attention to the multiple uses and ways people encounter written texts and how they make them alive even as social actors in different times and cultures Considering religious people seem to have all the motives for giving their sacred texts a respectful symbolic treatment scholars have paid surprisingly little attention to the ritual procedures of disposing and renovating old texts This book fills this gap providing empirical data and theoretical analyses of historical and contemporary religious attitudes towards and practices of text disposals within seven world religions Judaism Islam Christianity Hinduism Buddhism Jainism and Sikhism Exploring the cultural and historical variations of rituals for religious scriptures and texts such as burials cremations and immersion into rivers and the underlying beliefs within the religious traditions this book investigates how these religious practices and stances respond to modernization and globalization processes when new technologies have made it possible to mass produce and publish religious texts on the Internet The Philosophy of Mind in the Poetry of Guru Nanak Ajit Singh Sikka,1973 The Reform Advocate ,1911

Sikhism and Christianity W.O. Cole,Piara Singh Sambhi,2016-02-08 This volume will provide a thorough comparison of the rituals beliefs and history of Sikhism and Christianity Chapters will focus on God revelation the scriptures worship ethics and the history of these two religions and will highlight both differences and similarities Guru Tegh Bahadur: A Bibliography Surinder Singh Johar, Eternal Glory of Guru Gobind Singh Ji & Khalsa Brig.
