Selections from the Journals

Dorothy Wordsworth,1992 Dorothy Wordsworth 1771 1855 devoted her life to her brother William and his family She worked travelled and studied with Wordsworth and his circle which included De Quincey and Coleridge This book contains selections from her journals and gives accounts of her travels Home at Grasmere Dorothy Wordsworth,William

Wordsworth,2007-04-26 A continuous text made up of extracts from Dorothy Wordsworth s Journal and a selection of her brother s poems Dorothy Wordsworth kept her Journal because I shall give William pleasure by it In doing so she never dreamt that she was giving future readers not only the chance to enjoy her fresh and sensitive delight in the beauties that surrounded her at Grasmere but also a rare opportunity to observe the progress of a poet s mind Colette Clark s skilful and perceptive arrangement of Dorothy s entries alongside William s poems throws a unique light on his creative process and shows how the interdependence of brother and sister was a vital part in the writing of many of his great poems By reading these poems in relation to the Journal it is possible to trace the processes by which they were committed to paper and so achieve a fuller understanding of them A writer in her own right Dorothy kept her Journal sparse in personal and emotional detail Yet there is nevertheless a deep emotional undercurrent running beneath the surface which only falters when William marries Mary Hutchinson Never again was Dorothy to achieve the freedom spontaneity and the limpidly beautiful prose with which she infused and irradiated the Grasmere Journals English Prose of the Nineteenth Century Hilary

Fraser,Daniel Brown,2017-07-12 Hilary Fraser provides a comprehensive and thorough survey of English prose in the nineteenth century which draws from a wide variety of fields including art literary theory and criticism biography letters journals sermons and travel reportage Through these works the cultural social literary and political life of the twentieth century a period of great intellectual activity can be charted discussed and assessed For the first time an inclusive critical survey of nineteenth century non fiction is presented that traces the century s ideological and cultural upheavals as they are registered in the literary textures of some of its most widely read and influential writings The book explores the relations between writers who are generally perceived as occupying different discursive spheres for example between John Stuart Mill Florence Nightingale and Mrs Beeton between Cardinal Newman Elizabeth Gaskell and Hannah Cullwick and between Charles Darwin David Livingstone and Henry Mayhew The establishment and development of different genres and their interactions over the century are clearly mapped The genre of the periodical essay a distinctively modern and flexible form catering to the mass readership is the subject of the introduction and then more specialist fields are discussed covering scientific writing travel and exploration literature social reportage biography autobiography journals letters religious and philosophical prose political writing and history Journals of Dorothy Wordsworth Dorothy Wordsworth,1897
