Self And Identity Through The Life Course In Cross:

Self and Identity Through the Life Course in Cross-Cultural Perspective Timothy J Owens, 2000 This volume represents a new name and a new focus for its predecessor Current Perspectives on Aging and the Life Cycle volumes 1-4 We begin our new series now titled Advances in Life Course Research with volume 5 Its statement of purpose is the publication of theoretical analyses reviews policy analyses and positions and theory based empirical papers on issues involving all aspects of the human life course It adopts a broad conception of the life course and invites and welcomes contributions from all disciplines and fields of study interested in understanding describing and predicting the antecedents of and consequences for the course that human lives take from birth to death within and across time and cultures construed in its broadest sense regardless of methodology theoretical orientation or disciplinary affiliation Self, Identity, and Social Movements

Sheldon Stryker, Timothy Joseph Owens, Robert W. White, 2000 40th Anniversary of Studies in Symbolic Interaction Norman K. Denzin, 2013-05-02 To mark 40 volumes of Studies in Symbolic Interaction this volume includes a special introduction from Series Editor Norman K Denzin This 40th volume advances critical discourse on several fronts From Adolescence to Adulthood in the Vietnam Era Timothy J. Owens, 2008-01-08 Children born during the post WWII era of peace and prosperity entered history at a time dominated by I Like Ike politics and domestic security As they approached adolescence however their world was shaken by major cultural economic social and political upheaval And although it was time of great innovation and progress a sense of chaos and bitterness began to envelop the country It was the 60s For many Americans a mere mention of this decade evokes an extraordinary time and place in the country's and their own history Adolescents who had been enjoying the technological and medical advances of the era television drive in movies rock and roll vaccinations that prevented once incurable diseases now were also experiencing the fallout from the Civil Rights Movement domestic terrorism stagflation and perhaps most significant the Vietnam War From Adolescence to Adulthood in the Vietnam Era provides a unique detailed long term study of the psychological and social worlds of male adolescents who were on the cusp of adulthood as the 1960s were ending This longitudinal analysis follows adolescent boys who graduated with the class of 1969 and transitioned into adulthood either through military service full time employment or college life The results examine the different pathways these boys chose and the affect these choices had on their transition from adolescents to young adult men Handbook of the Sociology of Emotions: Volume II Jan E. Stets, Jonathan H. Turner, 2014-08-18 Handbook of the Sociology of Emotions Volume II presents all new chapters in the ever developing area of the sociology of emotions The volume is divided into two sections Theoretical Perspectives and Social Arenas of Emotions It reviews major sociological theories on emotions which include evolutionary theory identity theory affect control theory social exchange theory ritual theory and cultural theory among others Social arenas where emotions are examined include but are not limited to the economy and the workplace the family mental health crime sports technology social movements and the field of science All the chapters review the major theories and research in the area and each chapter ends with some discussion of directions for future research The Sociology of Emotions is a fast growing and vital field in the broad discipline of Sociology This volume II follows the Handbook of the Sociology of Emotions which was first published in 2006 In 2008 this first handbook received the Outstanding Recent Contribution in the Emotions Section of the American Sociological Association With contributions from leading scholars from different areas in the discipline such as neurosociology culture economics mental health gender social movements discussing state of art theory and research on emotions in sociology this volume will generate wider appeal to the sociological community Moral Selves, Evil Selves S. Hitlin, 2008-09-15 This book highlights the oft neglected moral aspect of the self examining the variety of neurological psychological and social processes that enter into the development and maintenance of moral orientations The International Social Survey Programme

1984-2009 Max Haller, Roger Jowell, Tom W Smith, 2009-09-11 The social sciences rely more on the comparative method than on experimental data mainly because the latter is difficult to acquire amongst human populations The International Social Survey Programme has played a pioneering role in creating and sustaining methodologically sophisticated mass attitude surveys across the globe Starting in 1984 with five nations it now encompasses forty five nations spread over five continents each administering an identical annual survey to a random sample of their population Analyses of the data or descriptions of the methodology already appear in over 3 000 publications This book contains new contributions from three dozen eminent scholars who analyse and compare the perceptions and attitudes of citizens across all five continents nations and over time Subjects range from inequality and the role of the state ethnic national and global identities the changing relevance of religion beliefs and practices gender roles family values and work orientations household and society Some chapters focus on methodological issues others focus on substantive findings This book sets new standards for cross cultural research Life Span Human Development Carol K. Sigelman, Linda De George, Kimberley Cunial, Elizabeth A.

Rider, 2018-09-01 The third edition of Life Span Human Development helps students gain a deeper understanding of the many interacting forces affecting development from infancy childhood adolescence and adulthood It includes local multicultural and indigenous issues and perspectives local research in development regionally relevant statistical information and National guidelines on health Taking a unique integrated topical and chronological approach each chapter focuses on a domain of development such as physical growth cognition or personality and traces developmental trends and influences in that domain from infancy to old age Within each chapter you will find sections on four life stages infancy childhood adolescence and adulthood This distinctive organisation enables students to comprehend the processes of transformation that occur in key areas of human development This text also includes a MindTap course offering with a strong suite of resources including videos and the chronological sections within the text can be easily customised to suit academic and student needs EBOOK: Higher Education And The Lifecourse Maria Slowey, David Watson, 2003-10-16 key arguments for policy and practice for lifelong learning in higher education Higher Education Digest At the beginning of the 21st century it is increasingly clear to professionals at all levels of formal and informal education that we need to refresh the concept of lifelong learning Most importantly the concept needs to be expanded so that it is lifelong and lifewide concerned not just with serial requirements of those already engaged but also with the creation of opportunities for those who have not found the existing structures and processes accessible or useful This book discusses resulting arguments about policy and practice in three parts Part One focuses on the lifelong dimension addressing in particular the changing nature of the student population Part Two investigates the lifewide connections between higher education and other areas of social and economic life Part Three offers a structural analysis based on research on changing needs of learners and setting out some key implications for higher education Higher Education and the Lifecourse provides a timely analysis of the higher education sector and will be an important resource for graduate students researchers policy makers and senior managers within the fields of higher and post compulsory education

Unequal Foundations Steven Hitlin, Sarah K. Harkness, 2018 Introduction A primer on inequality The social scientific study of morality The difficulty of studying morality across cultures Morality as a measure of society The theory of inequality and moral emotions Affect control theory how do cultures draw moral lines Methodology and a description of the data Empirical analysis Conclusion
