Self Embodiment Of God:

The Self-Embodiment of God Thomas J. Altizer, 1987-08-14 Traces the interior evolutionary movement of biblical moments and movements of Genesis Exodus Judgement Incarnation and Apocalypse by meditating on speech and silence in the biblical text of the Old Testament or Torah This profoundly moving meditation by a Christian dialectical theologian finds a home in the classical academic literature of Judaism by virtue of the author's emphasis on the search for words to express man's encounter with the living God Jacob Neusner Series Editor in his new preface states that Judaism in the Torah claims to possess these words He considers Altizer's work to be a continuation of the legacy of Abraham Joshua Heschel Originally published by Harper Row in 1977 this edition contains a new introduction by the author The Self-embodiment of God Thomas J. J. Altizer, 1977 The Autism of Gxd Ruth M. Dunster, 2022-12-02 The Autism of Gxd An Atheological Love Story is truly a love story the story of Ruth Dunster's autistic search for an authentic personal and theological Gxd In this it resembles Augustine's Confessions as a theological autobiography It becomes atheological however as Dunster reckons with what Denys Turner terms The Darkness of God This awareness leads her through the poetry of Medieval mystics to the mythic death of God theology of Thomas J J Altizer The search for faith is nonetheless very real in this strange territory Dunster hears her autistic Gxd speaking in art poetry novels and music and this further leads her into the territory of Literature Theology and the Arts where in Blanchot's words the answer is the poem's absence Indeed Dunster calls the book a strange poem or even a hymn Weaving an autistic mythology out of a rigorous survey of clinical autism this book abounds in challenge and paradox It offers a fascinating view into how an autistic poet becomes a theologian and what more mainstream theologies might learn from this disabled Gxd Kierkegaard and the Self Before God Simon D. Podmore, 2011-02 Simon D Podmore claims that becoming a self before God is both a divine gift and an anxious obligation Before we can know God or ourselves we must come to a moment of recognition How this comes to be as well as the terms of such acknowledgment are worked out in Podmore's powerful new reading of Kierkegaard As he gives full consideration to Kierkegaard's writings Podmore explores themes such as despair anxiety melancholy and spiritual trial and how they are broken by the triumph of faith forgiveness and the love of God He confronts the abyss between the self and the divine in order to understand how we can come to know ourselves in relation to a God who is apparently so wholly Other Thinking through the Death of God Lissa McCullough, Brian Schroeder, 2012-02-01 The leading exponent of the death of God theology of the 1960s Thomas J J Altizer created a media sensation at the time and defined a major new direction in philosophical theology Altizer has continued to refine his thought throughout his career and his systematic theological work has achieved its prime as shown in this collaborative critical response to his thought This book is also the first collection of its kind to appear in nearly thirty years and thus the first to deal with the most sophisticated period of his work A response from Altizer is included along with a comprehensive bibliography of his work Self Enlightenment Dr.B.N.Ganesh M.D.S, 2021-03-14 This book is an inner journey to the self and reveals the true nature It answers to your all miseries happening in your life This book concludes that because of ignorance of knowledge the cause of the sufferings is You and the solution is You This book is the essence of Vedantic teachings like Bhagavad Gita Brahma sutra Major Upanishads Tattva bodha Atma bodha Panchadasee etc Searching for happiness Peace is the main moto for all humans and none of the materialistic object will gratify for none so still people are searching for it in another and goes on The real happiness and peace are present inside in us but we are searching it outside and this book clears it By Self Enlightenment and Spiritual growth we can attain the highest goal in our Life Salvation or Freedom OM TAT SAT Sufi Women, Embodiment, and the 'Self' Jamila Rodrigues,2022-12-30 This book is an ethnographic case study of Sufi ritual practice and embodied experience amongst female members of the Naqshbandi community Drawing on fieldwork in Cape Town South Africa and Lefke Cyprus 2013 2014 the author examines women s experiences within a particular performance of Sufi tradition The focus is on the ritual named hadra involving the recital of sacred texts music and body movement where the goal is for the individual to reach a state of intimacy with God The volume considers Sufi practice as a form of embodied cultural behavior religious identity and selfhood construction It explains how Muslim women s participation in hadra ritual life reflects religious and cultural ideas about the body the body s movement and embodied selfhood expression within the ritual experience Sufi Women Ritual Embodiment and the Self engages with studies in Sufism symbolic anthropology ethnography dance and somatic studies Contributing to discussions of religion gender and the body the book will be of interest to scholars from anthropology sociology religious ritual studies Sufism and gender studies and performance studies Knowledge of the Self-Revealing God in the Thought of Thomas Forsyth Torrance John Douglas Morrison,2005-02-07 This work examines Thomas Forsyth Torrance s concern for the modern re entrenchment of dualism as it has negatively affected the Christian faith and the realist knowledge of God in Christ Additionally an analysis is made of Torrance s program to faithfully restore theological thinking theological science and true objectivity out of the Christocentric Trinitarian self disclosure of God via the modern return to critical realist epistemology in the physical sciences e g Einstein Polanyi The study concludes with a critical examination of the adequacy and completeness of Torrance s endeavor the problem of residual dualism in the light of his own theological and redemptive concerns

Incarnate Earth Matthew Eaton,2023-03-10 Incarnate Earth reimagines the doctrine of Incarnation by extending the unity between Creator and creation beyond Jesus to the entire world In dialogue with contemporary theologies of deep incarnation and the philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas the author argues that the face of Christ is encountered in the cruciform demand for justice embodied in the creaturely finitude and vulnerability that grounds ethics Central to this vision is a recognition that the religious role functions at the heart of Jesus life the revelation of God and the redemption of the world are performed throughout the physical world irreducible to humanity or one heroic representative of the species Thus the human encounters the divine Christ in and as the face of any vulnerable thing animal vegetal elemental or otherwise not as a transcendent being mediated through humanity The radical nature of this reimagination necessitates renewed discussions of ecological and animal ethics calling for compassionate care for all vulnerable bodies insofar as this is possible It will be of interest to scholars of Christian theology and the philosophy of religion particularly those focused on ecotheology religious naturalism and environmental ethics Sacred Modes of Being in a Postsecular World Andrew W.

Hass, 2021-09-16 How do we talk meaningfully about the sacred in contexts where conventional religious expression has so often lost its power Inspired by the influential work of David Jasper this important volume builds on his thinking to identify sacrality in a world where the old religious and secular debates have exhausted themselves and theology struggles for a new language in their wake Distinguished writers explore here the idea of the sacred as one that exists paradoxically in a space that is both possible and impossible profoundly theological on the one hand but also deeply this worldly and irreligious on the other This is a sacredness that is simultaneously present and absent one which encompasses as Jasper himself characterises it the impossible possibility of an absolute vision The book teaches us that the sacred assumes a renewed potency when fully engaged with the creativity that happens across religion literature philosophy and the arts
