Self Intellection And Its Epistemological Origins In Ancient Greek Thought:

Self-Intellection and its Epistemological Origins in Ancient Greek Thought Ian M. Crystal, 2022-02-16 Can the intellect or the intellectual faculty be its own object of thought or can it not think or apprehend itself This book explores the ancient treatments of the question of self intellection an important theme in ancient epistemology and of considerable interest to later philosophical thought The manner in which the ancients dealt with the intellect apprehending itself took them into both the metaphysical and epistemological domains with reflections on questions of thinking identity and causality Ian Crystal traces the origins from which the concept of self intellection springs by examining Plato s account of the epistemic subject and the emergence of self intellection through the Aristotelian account before the final part of the book explores the problem of how the intellect apprehends itself and its resolution including Plotinus reformulation and the dilemma raised by Sextus Empiricus Crystal concludes that Plotinus recasts the metaphysical structures of Plato and Aristotle in such a way that he casts the concept of self intellection in an entirely new light and offers a solution to the problem Plotinus, Self and the World Raoul Mortley, 2013-12-19 1 The individuated self and memory 2 Memory and forgetting 3 Ignorance love and play 4 Plotinus Eros 5 The self and we too are kings 6 Being and having 7 Self knowledge 8 Art and the seduction of beauty 9 Face image and the self Becoming God Patrick Lee Miller, 2011-01-20 A lucid presentation of the first and most influential attempts to weave together philosophical thought on God reason and happiness Christian Thought in the Medieval Islamicate World Salam Rassi, 2022 Christian Thought in the Medieval Islamicate World Abdisho of Nisibis and the Apologetic Tradition is the first monograph length study and intellectual biography of Abdisho of Nisibis d 1318 bishop and polymath of the Church of the East Focusing on his works of apologetic theology it examines the intellectual strategies he employs to justify Christianity against Muslim and to a lesser extent Jewish criticisms Better known to scholars of Syriac literature as a poet jurist and cataloguer Abdisho wrote a considerable number of works in the Arabic language many of which have only recently come to light He flourished at a time when Syriac Christian writers were becoming increasingly indebted to Islamic models of intellectual production Yet many of his writings were composed during mounting religious tensions following the official conversion of the Ilkhanate to Islam in 1295 In the midst of these challenges Abdisho negotiates a centuries long tradition of Syriac and Arabic apologetics to remind his readers of the verity of the Christian faith His engagement with this tradition reveals how anti Muslim apologetics had long shaped the articulation of Christian identity in the Middle East since the emergence of Islam Through a selective process of encyclopaedism and systematisation Abdisho navigates a vast corpus of Syriac and Arabic apologetics to create a synthesis and theological canon that remains authoritative to this day The Philosophy of Dionysius the Areopagite Christian Schäfer, 2006-06-01 This book proposes a reading of Dionysius the Areopagite s longest and most important treatise On the Divine Names from a philosophical point of view rather than from a theological point of view which dominates the secondary literature More in particular it proposes an interpretation of the puzzling structure of the treatise which takes its starting point from earlier interpretations of medieval and modern scholars The new reading of Dionysius main text achieves more coherence than they did precisely because of the philosophical angle which is meant to serve as a complement not an alternative to theological and historical interpretations Thus the book can be read as an introduction to the philosophy of Dionysius as it shows how the author makes original moves in introducing the Christian concepts of peace and creation as philosophical concepts in a Platonic framework

Parmenides and Presocratic Philosophy John Palmer, 2009-10-29 John Palmer develops and defends a modal interpretation of Parmenides according to which he was the first philosopher to distinguish in a rigorous manner the fundamental modalities of necessary being necessary non being or impossibility and non necessary or contingent being This book accordingly reconsiders his place in the historical development of Presocratic philosophy in light of this new interpretation Careful treatment of Parmenides specification of the ways of inquiry that define his metaphysical and epistemological outlook paves the way for detailed analyses of his arguments demonstrating the temporal and spatial attributes of what is and cannot not be Since the existence of this necessary being does not preclude the existence of other entities that are but need not be Parmenides cosmology can straightforwardly be taken as his account of the origin and operation of the world's mutable entities Later chapters reassess the major Presocratics relation to Parmenides in light of the modal interpretation focusing particularly on Zeno Melissus Anaxagoras and Empedocles In the end Parmenides distinction among the principal modes of being and his arguments regarding what must be must be like simply in virtue of its mode of being entitle him to be seen as the founder of metaphysics or ontology as a domain of inquiry distinct from natural philosophy and theology An appendix presents a Greek text of the fragments of Parmenides poem with English translation and textual notes

Islamic Philosophy from the 12th to the 14th Century Abdelkader Al Ghouz, 2018-11-12 This volume is based on the ongoing studies on post Avicennian philosophy in the context of naturalising philosophy and science in Islam from the 12th to the 14th century a topic that deserves the special attention of historians of Islamic intellectual history The contributors address the following questions using case studies What was philosophy all about from the 12th to the 14th century And how did Muslim scholars react to it during the period under consideration The present volume approaches complex philosophical topics from different angles and is structured around six main sections 1 Historical and Social Approaches to Philosophy 2 Knowing the Unknown 3 God Man and the Physical World 4 Universals 5 Logic and Intellect and 6 Anthropomorphism and Incorporealism

The Attributes of God in Islamic Thought Mansoor Khalilzand, 2024-03-18 The debate over Allah's attributes the nature and the inner articulation of Allah is one of the focal debates in the intellectual history of Islam This edited collection aims to highlight and examine some aspects of this debate in their original context based on the relevant primary literature By showing that even an apparently self-evident concept such as Allah which lies at the heart of every reading of Islam is highly ambiguous and polysemous the chapters also emphasise the plurality that has always existed in Islamic thought

Through highlighting the philosophical and theological reflections on the concept of Allah the results of this study challenge the juristic reading of Islam in which Allah's function consists mainly in providing a detailed plan for the human life and also rewarding or punishing the ones who deviates from it The book also attempts to demonstrate the relevance and the actuality of the tradition and to stress its contemporaneity This volume makes a significant part of the intellectual tradition of Islam accessible for students and scholars of Islamic theology Islamic philosophy Islamic studies and the like as well as providing a secondary source for teaching on the debate in question

Neoplatonism Pauliina Remes, 2014-12-05 Although Neoplatonism has long been studied by classicists until recently most philosophers saw the ideas of Plotinus et al as a lot of religious magical mumbo jumbo Recent work however has provided a new perspective on the philosophical issues in Neoplatonism and Pauliina Remes new introduction to the subject is the first to take account of this fresh research and provides a reassessment of Neoplatonism's philosophical credentials Covering the Neoplatonic movement from its founder Plotinus AD 204-70 to the closure of Plato's Academy in AD 529 Remes explores the ideas of leading Neoplatonists such as Porphyry Iamblichus Proclus Simplicius and Damascius as well as less well known thinkers Situating their ideas alongside classical Platonism Stoicism and the neo Pythagoreans as well as other intellectual movements of the time such as Gnosticism Judaism and Christianity Remes provides a valuable survey for the beginning student and non specialist

Gregory Palamas' Metaphysics of Light Patrícia Calvário, 2024-12-23 This book examines Gregory Palamas' perspective on light applying the metaphysics of light framework introduced by Clemens Baeumker and adapting it to propose a new theoretical approach to Palamas' thought It explores Palamas' understanding of light addressing its ontological epistemological and transformative aspects which he articulates through the integration of scriptural exegesis and the direct experiences of monastic prayer The analysis covers Palamas' key concepts from the essence-energy distinction to the potential for experiencing the divine through the body in this life The book situates Palamas' thought both within its historical context and the broader field of metaphysics providing a philosophical perspective This meticulous study invites readers interested in the intersections of Byzantine theology philosophy and metaphysics offering a comprehensive examination of a system that challenges conventional views on corporeality and finitude
