

A piece of brown, textured paper is shown with a central section torn out. This torn section reveals a solid blue background. On the blue background, the words "Self-Knowledge" are written in a white, serif font, oriented diagonally from the bottom-left towards the top-right. The edges of the brown paper are irregular and frayed, suggesting it was torn by hand. The overall composition is simple and symbolic, with the brown paper representing a surface or a container, and the blue patch representing a specific area of focus or discovery.
