Selling The Dream:

Selling the Dream Jane Marie, 2025-02-04 Peabody and Emmy Award winning journalist Jane Marie expands on her popular podcast The Dream to expose the scourge of multilevel marketing schemes and how they have profited off the evisceration of the American working class We've all heard of Amway Mary Kay Tupperware and LuLaRoe but few know the nefarious way they and countless other multilevel marketing MLM companies prey on desperate Americans struggling to make ends meet When factories close stalwart industries shutter and blue collar opportunities evaporate MLMs are there ready to pounce on the crumbling American Dream MLMs thrive in rural areas and on military bases targeting women with promises of being their own boss and millions of dollars in easy income even at the risk of their entire life savings But the vast majority 99.7% of those who join an MLM make no money or lose money and wind up stuck with inventory they can't sell to recoup their losses Selling the Dream is an urgent and riveting exposé Publishers Weekly starred review that reveals how these companies often owned by political and corporate elites such as the DeVos and the Van Andel families have made a windfall in profit off of the desperation of the American working class

Selling the Dream John M. Hood, 2005-10-30 The process of producing goods and services is relatively easy to recognize as socially beneficial But television ads Telemarketers Jingles Junk mail It is popular to view these commercial activities as inherently wasteful or manipulative marginally informative or entertaining at best In Selling the Dream John Hood takes the provocative stand that advertising images and sales pitches are actually part of the goods and services themselves delivering an essential component of the consumer's experience As such they are inextricably linked to the basic tenets of the free market system and in the boldest of terms Hood argues that commercial communication is morally consistent with the principles of our democratic society including freedom of choice competition and innovation Tracing the history of advertising from Ancient Roman times to the present he offers a colorful account of advertising in its cultural context and addresses such controversial issues as the promotion of harmful and immoral products such as alcohol and tobacco marketing to children the role of advertising in service industries such as health care and education and the impact of the Internet and other new media on the conduct of commerce In the process he offers a compelling perspective on advertising and its essential role in business communication and popular culture

Selling The American Dream Tim Dannelly, 2006-08-28 How to Sell Anything The American economy doesn't move because people buy it moves because salespeople sell Selling the American Dream will show you Ways to determine who can buy and who can't Techniques for initiating client conversations What to do when clients challenge your price How to read the customer before closing the sale How to succeed in any market and any economy
