Kerber, Alice Kessler-Harris, Kathryn Kish Sklar, 2000-11-09 This outstanding collection of fifteen original essays represents innovative work by some of the most influential scholars in the field of women's history. Covering a broad sweep of history from colonial to contemporary times and ranging over the fields of legal, social, political, and cultural history, this book according to its editors intrudes into regions of the American historical narrative from which women have been excluded or in which gender relations were not thought to play a part. The book is dedicated to pioneering women's historian Gerda Lerner whose work inspired so many of the contributors, and it includes a bibliography of her works. The contributors include Linda K. Kerber on women and the obligations of citizenship, Kathryn Kish Sklar on two political cultures in the Progressive Era, Linda Gordon on women, maternalism, and welfare in the twentieth century, Alice Kessler-Harris on the Social Security Amendments of 1939, Nancy F. Cott on marriage and the public order in the late nineteenth century, Nell Irvin Painter on soul murder as a legacy of slavery, Judith Walzer Leavitt on Typhoid Mary.

Abel,2022-10-25 Explains why there is a crisis in caring for elderly people and how the COVID 19 pandemic exacerbated it Because government policies are based on an ethic of family responsibility repeated calls to support family members caring for the burgeoning elderly population have gone unanswered Without publicly funded long term care services many family caregivers cannot find relief from obligations that threaten to overwhelm them The crisis also stems from the plight of direct care workers nursing home assistants and home health aides most of whom are women from racially marginalized groups who receive little respect remuneration or job security Drawing on an online support group for people caring for spouses and partners with dementia Elder Care in Crisis examines the availability and quality of respite care which provides temporary relief from the burdens of care the long tortuous process through which family members decide whether to move spouses and partners to institutions and the likelihood that caregivers will engage in political action to demand greater public support When the pandemic began caregivers watched in horror as nursing homes turned into deathtraps and then locked their doors to visitors Terrified by the possibility of loved ones in nursing homes contracting the disease or suffering from loneliness some caregivers brought them home Others endured the pain of leaving relatives with severe cognitive impairments at the hospital door and the difficulties of sheltering in place with people with dementia who could not understand safety regulations or describe their symptoms Direct care workers were compelled to accept unsafe conditions or leave the labor force At the same time however the disaster provided an impetus for change and helped activists and scholars develop a vision of a future in which care is central to social life Elder Care in Crisis exposes the harrowing state of growing old in America offering concrete solutions and illustrating why they are necessary
