Love And Death In A Hot Country:

Love and Death in a Hot Country Shiva Naipaul, 1985 Love and Death in a Hot Country Shiva Naipaul, 1984

Love and Death in Goethe Ellis Dye, 2004 Explores the central theme of Romantic poetry in the works of the most important German Romantic poet of all Goethe in association with his younger Romantic compatriots the Schlegels Novalis Fichte and Schelling struggled with the subject object dichotomy and tried to bridge the gap between self and other consciousness and nature His theory and practice prefigured the Romantics determination to display and interrogate the linguistic and cultural structures informing their own thinking and modes of representation what Goethe calls one s Vorstellungsart His work exploits subverts and supplants inherited conventions and signs demonstrating with virtuosic irony that literature is a system of texts pre texts and pre established but dynamic conceptual models Love and Death in Goethe One and Double explores Goethe s use in a wide range of his poetry and prose of the theme of Liebestod love and death and related embodiments of the paradox of unity in duality Ellis Dye also examines Goethe s use of other themes related to love and death the femme fatale the vagina dentata Frau Welt the Lorelei venereal disease the Lustmord and considers issues of selfhood and individuation as well as the possibility that the love death theme contains an implicit gender bias toward the existential fact of personal separateness Poems plays and novels are dealt with nevertheless as works of art not only as illustrations of an idea or as points of intersection in a system of rhetorical conventions and are examined for intellectual cohesiveness elegance and integrity of design as well as special meanings and effects Love and Death in Goethe One and Double explores the meaning of the central theme of Romantic poetry in the works of the most important Romantic poet of all Students of literary culture both the lay reader and the Goethe specialist will be enlightened by its approach and find pleasure and instruction in its revelations Robert Ellis Dye is Professor of German at Macalester College The Stepmother Tongue John Skinner, 1998-09-18 There are numerous twentieth century writers in English who are not technically native speakers of the language and whose relation to it is ambivalent problematic or even hostile by a simple kinship analogy one may often speak of the stepmother tongue Whilst fully aware of the current debates in postcolonial theory John Skinner is also conscious of its sometimes unhelpful complexities and contradictions The focus of this study is thus firmly on the fictional practice of the writers discussed He offers the reader an insight into the diversity and rewards of contemporary anglophone fiction whilst analysing some eighty individual texts A uniquely comprehensive guide the book will be welcomed by students and teachers of postcolonial literature Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Varieties of African American Religious Experience Anthony

B. Pinn, 2017-10-15 Twenty years ago Anthony Pinn's engrossing survey highlighted the rich diversity of black religious life in America revealing expressions of an ever changing black religious quest Based on extensive research travel and interviews Pinn's work provides a fascinating look especially at Voodoo Santeria the Nation of Islam and black humanism in the United States and uses the diversity of religious belief to begin formulation of a comparative black theology the first of its kind This twentieth anniversary edition is an expanded version including a new preface and a new concluding chapter An important contribution to classroom studies

The British and Irish Novel Since 1960 James Acheson, 1991-09-03 The essays in this collection survey the work of some of the most important British and Irish novelists of today They not only consider afresh the work of novelists who established their reputations before 1960 such as Doris Lessing and William Golding they also discuss the work of more recent novelists among them Kazuo Ishiguro Angela Carter and Graham Swift The contributors are drawn from various parts of the English speaking world and provide a variety of original perspectives on the novelists concerned

Embodiment and the New Shape of Black Theological Thought Anthony B. Pinn, 2010-06-01 Black theology tends to be a theology about no body Though one might assume that black and womanist theology have already given significant attention to the nature and meaning of black bodies as a theological issue this inquiry has primarily taken the form of a focus on issues relating to liberation treating the body in abstract terms rather than focusing on the experiencing of a material fleshy reality By focusing on the body as a physical entity and not just a metaphorical one Pinn offers a new approach to theological thinking about race gender and sexuality According to Pinn the body is of profound theological importance In this first text on black theology to take embodiment as its starting point and its goal Pinn interrogates the traditional source materials for black theology such as spirituals and slave narratives seeking to link them to materials such as photography that highlight the theological importance of the body Employing a multidisciplinary approach spanning from the sociology of the body and philosophy to anthropology and art history Embodiment and the New Shape of Black Theological Thought pushes black theology to the next level Extravagant Strangers Caryl Phillips, 2010-05-05 Shakespeare called Othello an extravagant and wheeling stranger Of here and every where In this exciting anthology Caryl Phillips has collected writings by thirty nine extravagant strangers British writers who were born outside of Britain and see it with clear and critical eyes These eloquent and incisive voices prove that English literature far from being pure or homogenous has in fact been shaped and influenced by outsiders for over two hundred years Here are slave writers such as Ignatius Sancho an eighteenth century African who became a friend to Samuel Jonson and Laurence Sterne writers born in the colonies such as Thackeray Kipling and Orwell subject writers such as C L R James and V S Naipaul foreign migr s such as Joseph Conrad and Kazuo Ishiguro and postcolonial observers of the British scene such as Salman Rushdie Ben Okri and Anita Desai With this eloquent and often inspiring collection Phillips proves if proof be needed that the greatest literature is often born out of irreconcilable tensions between a writer and his or her society Love and Death in the Great War Andrew J. Huebner, 2018-02-01 Americans today harbor no strong or consistent collective memory of the First World War Ask why the country fought or what they accomplished and democracy is the most likely if vague response The circulation of confusing or lofty rationales for intervention began as soon as President Woodrow Wilson secured a war declaration in April 1917 Yet amid those shifting justifications Love and Death in the Great War argues was a more durable and resonant one Americans would fight for home and family Officials in the military and government grasping this crucial reality invested the war with personal meaning as did popular culture Make your mother proud of you And the Old Red White and Blue went George Cohan s famous tune Over There Federal officials and their allies in public culture in short told the war story as a love story Intervention came at a moment when arbiters of traditional home and family were regarded as under pressure from all sides industrial work women s employment immigration urban vice woman suffrage and the imagined threat of black sexual aggression Alleged German crimes in France and Belgium seemed to further imperil women and children War promised to restore convention stabilize gender roles and sharpen male character Love and Death in the Great War tracks such ideas of redemptive war across public and private spaces policy and implementation home and front popular culture and personal

correspondence In beautifully rendered prose Andrew J Huebner merges untold stories of ordinary men and women with a history of wartime culture Studying the radiating impact of war alongside the management of public opinion he recovers the conflict's emotional dimensions its everyday rhythms heartbreaking losses soaring possibilities and broken promises A Hot Country Shiva Naipaul,1983 Een contactarme vrouw en haar idealistische man leven los van elkaar en van de maatschappij hun doelloos bestaan in een pas onafhankelijk Caraïbisch land Finding a Place Kris Rampersad,2002 Kris Rampersad's book takes an intimate look at the blossoming of Trinidad's literary consciousness Through the eyes and the words of the writers she maps their contribution to Indo Trinidadian literature from those evolutionary years in 1850 to its flowering in the 1950s It also represents a close look at the exciting oral culture of these people as depicted by their music dance and storytelling and examines the biographies of the main figures who contributed to social cultural economic and political development throughout this period While the main focus of the work is on language and literary development other aspects of Trinidad's development are also explored cross-culturation politics race relations social mobility and women's issues in relation to their influence and impact on the writings Further the raw material of Finding a Place 12 little known and rare publications between 1850 and 1950 introduces a new set of data through which the evolution of Trinidad and Tobago can be examined by others A History of Literature in the Caribbean A. James Arnold,2001-07-23 For the first time the Dutch-speaking regions of the Caribbean and Suriname are brought into fruitful dialogue with another major American literature that of the anglophone Caribbean The results are as stimulating as they are unexpected The editors have coordinated the work of a distinguished international team of specialists Read separately or as a set of three volumes the History of Literature in the Caribbean is designed to serve as the primary reference book in this area The reader can follow the comparative evolution of a literary genre or plot the development of a set of historical problems under the appropriate heading for the English or Dutch-speaking region An extensive index to names and dates of authors and significant historical figures completes the volume The subeditors bring to their respective specialty areas a wealth of Caribbeanist experience Vera M Kutzinski is Professor of English American and Afro American Literature at Yale University Her book Sugar's Secrets Race and The Erotics of Cuban Nationalism 1993 treated a crucial subject in the romance of the Caribbean nation Ineke Phaf Rheinberger has been very active in Latin American and Caribbean literary criticism for two decades first at the Free University in Berlin and later at the University of Maryland The editor of A History of Literature in the Caribbean A James Arnold is Professor of French at the University of Virginia where he founded the New World Studies graduate program Over the past twenty years he has been a pioneer in the historical study of the Negro movement and its successors in the francophone Caribbean Tarot for Love & Relationships Jane Struthers,2024-01-04 Relationships are fundamental to our quality of life and we strive to understand them and make them better The tarot persuades us to look deeply and more carefully at every aspect of both our love and our work relationships In both our love lives and work relationships tarot
