Love And Struggle In Maos Thought:

Love and Struggle in Mao's Thought Raymond L. Whitehead,1977 Carl Schmitt, Mao Zedong and the Politics of Transition Qi Zheng,2015-10-22 This book develops a new way of reading and benefiting from Schmitt's legal and political theories. It explores Schmitt's theories from the perspective of what I refer to as the politics of transition. It also contributes to identifying the real theoretical relationship between Schmitt and Mao. Mao Zedong on Dialectical Materialism Zedong Mao,1990 New and annotated translations of philosophical essays written by Mao Zedong in 1937 which have come to be regarded as a cornerstone in the development of Chinese Marxism. The editor analyzes their textual philosophical and historical significance. World Christianity and Marxism Denis R. Janz,1998-04-09 Denis Janz argues that the encounter with Marxism has been the defining event for twentieth century Christianity. No other worldview shook Christianity more dramatically and no other movement had as profound an impact on so many. Now the Cold War is over and as we approach the end of the century we need, Janz says, to ask ourselves what happened. This book is the first unified and comprehensive attempt to analyze this historic meeting between these two antagonistic worlds of thought and action. The intellectual foundation of this antagonism is to be found in Karl Marx himself and thus the book begins with an account of Marx's assault on Christianity. All the diverse philosophical and political manifestations of Marxism were ultimately rooted in Marx's thought and supporters based their greater or lesser hostilities toward Christianity on their reading of his critique. Janz follows this with an overview of Christian responses to Marx extending from the mid 19th century to the onset of the Cold War. He argues that within this time frame Christianity's negation of Marx was not absolute; the loud no to Marx bore with it an important if muted yes. With this intellectual groundwork in place, Janz turns to an examination of the encounter as it unfolded in specific national contexts: the United States, the Soviet Union, Poland, Nicaragua, Cuba, China, and Albania. The experiences of these countries varied widely from Poland, where Christianity maintained its strongest independence, to Nicaragua, where a Christian alliance with Marxism contributed to revolutionary change, to Albania, where a Stalinist government attempted to abolish religion entirely. From this survey emerges the evidence that world Christianity has clearly internalized some of the prominent features of its antagonist, suggesting that the Marxist project is not as utterly defunct as many have assumed.

Black Womanist Ethics Katie G. Cannon,2006-02-09 This study articulates the distinctive moral character of the Afro American women's community. Beginning with a reconstructive history of the Afro American woman's situation in America, the work next traces the emergence of the Black woman's literary tradition and explains its importance in expressing the moral wisdom of Black women. The life and work of Zora Neale Hurston is examined in detail for her unique contributions to the moral tradition of the Afro American woman. A final chapter initiates a promising exchange between the works of Hurston and those of Howard Thurman and Martin Luther King Jr. A pioneering and multi-dimensional work, Black Womanist Ethics is at once a study in ethics, gender, and race. Jing Feng ,1974 China Notes ,1975 The Rhetoric of Mao Zedong Xing

Lu,2022-04-13 This thorough examination of Mao's speeches and writings and how they reshaped a nation is critical to an understanding of modern China. Choice Mao Zedong fundamentally transformed China from a Confucian society characterized by hierarchy and harmony into a socialist state guided by communist ideologies of class struggle and radicalization. It was a transformation made possible largely by Mao's rhetorical ability to attract, persuade and mobilize millions of Chinese people. In this book Xing Lu analyzes Mao's speeches and writings over a span of sixty years, tracing the sources and evolution of his discourse, analyzing his skills as an orator and mythmaker, assessing his symbolic power and continuing presence in contemporary China, and observing that Mao's rhetorical legacy has been commoditized, culturally consumed and politically appropriated since his death. Applying both Western rhetorical theories and Chinese rhetorical concepts to reach a more nuanced and sophisticated understanding of his rhetorical legacy, Lu shows how Mao employed a host of rhetorical appeals and strategies drawn from Chinese tradition and how he interpreted the discourse of Marxism-Leninism to serve foundational themes of his message. She traces the historical contexts in which these themes, his philosophical orientations and his political views were formed and how they transformed China and Chinese people. Lu also examines how certain ideas are promoted, modified and appropriated in Mao's rhetoric. His appropriation of Marxist theory of class struggle, his campaigns of transforming common people into new communist advocates, his promotion of Chinese nationalism and his stand on China's foreign policy all contributed to and were responsible for reshaping Chinese thought patterns, culture and communication behaviors.

Decolonizing Theology Noel Leo Erskine, 1981 This book is a fascinating historical study of the complex nature of Afro-Christianity in the Caribbean and the American South. This study is an in-depth assessment of the Caribbean Church, Black Theology, Revivalism and Rastafarianism. Continuing in the tradition of Vincent Harding, Gayraud Wilmore and James Cone, Erskine holds that Black Religion embodies visions of liberation that are secular as well as spiritual. On the basis of his own experience and research, Professor Erskine chronicles the struggle of Black people for freedom against bondage, for justice against oppression, for identity against anonymity and for full humanity of all persons and communities.
