Reprint Words Don't Come Easy...A Book of Poetry Liane Hoare, 2012-03-05 In this book of poetry we get an insight into the world of Liane Hoare Though the poems in this book are not related to any events nor people that have taken or been a part in her life from the words we can tell a lot about the individual who has spent the best part of ten years penning them down With the exception of The Day You Went Away not one of the poems has any emotional meaning to her and it is only this one that bares any relevance to a time in her life It is dedicated to June Checkley a wonderful and loving person who sadly passed away July 2005 Why don t you have a read of them and see if you can work out what sort of person the author is Liane is very passionate about her writing and gets a lot of enjoyment from it When Feelings Don't Come Easy Craig A. Miller, 2001-07-02 At the heart of a fragile self worth dissatisfaction with life dysfunctional relationships emotional suffering and some physical illnesses is the inability to identify and effectively express feelings This book helps the reader learn that expressing feelings has everything to do with finding healing from the past finding peace of mind and finding the inner happiness that you deserve and God wants you to have Oceans of Feeling Ryan Walmsley, 2025-11-13 A groundbreaking exploration of postwar Caribbean migration to Britain Oceans of Feeling offers the first historical analysis of this defining moment in modern British history using the tools methods and theories of the history of emotions Decoding the emotional experiences and expressions of Windrush era Caribbean migrants this book reconstructs the migrant experience by asking not just what happened but how it felt individually and collectively and how these feelings shaped and configured the course of historical events Taking cues from spatial studies the history of the senses and the history of the body Ryan Walmsley charts a rich and affectively meaningful course through the experiential content of the migrant condition in a specific historical moment From the emotional bonds of the Mother Country ideology to the unique affective sensory atmospheres of transatlantic liners bound for Britain Oceans of Feeling reveals exciting new dimensions to Windrush era migration which have been masked under the canopies of social and political approaches A reflection of the history of emotions power to revivify historical narratives this book interrogates the emotional causes and consequences of racist violence In doing so it reframes racism as a cluster of specific emotional concepts and expressions which provides fascinating insights into the lives of Caribbean migrants in this period This includes linking the disproportionate designation of Caribbean children as educationally subnormal in British schools to a constellation of emotional stereotypes and experiences It also explores private spaces such as dub and reggae house parties which migrants constructed as emotional refuge from the hostile atmosphere of public spaces and demonstrates how love and sex were politicised in the increasingly racialised atmosphere of postwar Britain Catalog of Copyright Entries, Fourth Series Library of Congress.
