

City

(Life, Lights, & Love)

The cars roar by in endless streams,
A modern jungle's nightly themes.
Skyscrapers kiss the evening sky,
Where neon dreams are hung up high.

The people rush in hurried beats,
On crowded trams and busy streets.
A blend of wills, a clash of sights,
In days of sun and neon nights.

A city's pulse in every vein,
Each whisper, shout, and distant train.
A symphony in steel and stone,
Where every soul may find its tone.

Love In A Proper City:

The City of God St. Augustine of Hippo, 2012 This volume is accurately annotated including an extensive biography of the author and his life working interactive footnotes De Civitate Dei full title De Civitate Dei contra Paganos translated in English as The City of God is a book of Christian philosophy written in Latin by Augustine of Hippo in the early 5th century AD It is one of Augustine's major works standing alongside his The Confessions On Christian Doctrine and On the Trinity Augustine is considered the most influential Father of the Church in Western Christianity and The City of God profoundly shaped Western civilization Augustine wrote the treatise to explain Christianity's relationship with competing religions and philosophies as well as its relationship with the Roman government with which it was increasingly intertwined It was written soon after Rome was sacked by the Visigoths in 410 This event left Romans in a deep state of shock and many saw it as punishment for abandoning traditional Roman religion for Catholic Christianity It was in this atmosphere that Augustine set out to console Christians writing that even if the earthly rule of the Empire was imperiled it was the City of God that would ultimately triumph Augustine's eyes were fixed on Heaven a theme of many Christian works of Late Antiquity from wikipedia.com
