Robinson, 2023-10-31 The first principle of ministry leadership is love love that emerges from life rooted in God We might have decent skills for leading a human institution or getting people involved in church but truly transformative ministry calls us to lead God's people into the depths of spiritual life those places where love is activated fully Before we can help others though we must first cultivate this love in ourselves In Leading with Love Elaine Robinson helps ministry professionals recognize that healthy leadership requires a deeper spirituality that enlivens us to move beyond rigid dualistic frameworks Only through life in Christ can we cope with and creatively address the challenges of ministry in an era characterized by a lack of trust in institutions and the anxieties of global pandemic political division and uncertainty about the future Robinson provides practical tools for cultivating spiritual practices that lead ministers into the world as agents of faith hope love and justice With its thematically targeted chapters and questions for reflection readers will finish Robinson's book feeling refreshed and equipped for the good work of love that lies ahead The Church Eclectic, 1897 Light of Truth and Fire of Love Gary D. Badcock, 1997 The doctrine of the Holy Spirit has often been a neglected theme in Christian thought In Light of Truth and Fire of Love Gary D Badcock attempts to redress this theological imbalance and to reassert the centrality of the doctrine of the Spirit in Christian theology

Badcock begins by surveying what both the Old and New Testaments have to say about the Spirit Next he traces the history of the theology of the Spirit examining a number of crucial episodes and questions in the field of pneumatology in the history of Christian thought and then proceeds to develop a contemporary theology of the Spirit Badcock goes on to relate this theology of the Spirit to the theological enterprise initiated by Karl Barth earlier in this century the return to the doctrine of the Trinity as the framework for Christian reflection Setting forth the positive and negative results of much of contemporary trinitarian theology Badcock ultimately makes a case for a balanced doctrine of the Word and the Spirit in which neither is subordinated to the other
