

A romantic scene of a man and a woman sitting on a wet surface, possibly a sidewalk, in the middle of a heavy rain. They are facing each other, nearly kissing. The woman is wearing a light-colored, short-sleeved dress, and the man is wearing a light-colored, short-sleeved shirt. The background is dark and filled with falling rain. Two large, stylized eyes are superimposed on the dark background, looking down at the couple. The overall mood is intimate and romantic.

Love A Novel Of Romance With Attitude:

Love's Knowledge Martha C. Nussbaum, 1990 This volume brings together Nussbaum's published papers on the relationship between literature and philosophy especially moral philosophy The papers many of them previously inaccessible to non specialist readers deal with such fundamental issues as the relationship between style and content in the exploration of ethical issues the nature of ethical attention and ethical knowledge and their relationship to written forms and styles and the role of the emotions in deliberation and self knowledge Nussbaum investigates and defends a conception of ethical understanding which involves emotional as well as intellectual activity and which gives a certain type of priority to the perception of particular people and situations rather than to abstract rules She argues that this ethical conception cannot be completely and appropriately stated without turning to forms of writing usually considered literary rather than philosophical It is consequently necessary to broaden our conception of moral philosophy in order to include these forms Featuring two new essays and revised versions of several previously published essays this collection attempts to articulate the relationship within such a broader ethical inquiry between literary and more abstractly theoretical elements Literary Activities and

Vernacular Story Patrick Hanan, 1981 Carol Shields, Narrative Hunger, and the Possibilities of Fiction Ted Farrell, 2003-01-01 Award winning Canadian writer Carol Shields has garnered praise from scholars and an international audience of readers Inspired by the quality and scope of Shields's work Carol Shields Narrative Hunger and the Possibilities of Fiction addresses her creative exploration of postmodernism As the first thorough examination of the Pulitzer Prize winning author this collection of essays establishes the groundwork for future studies of her oeuvre The collection begins with a significant new essay from Shields herself Narrative Hunger and the Overflowing Cupboard perhaps her most substantial commentary upon her own aims as a writer In addition scholars from Canada England the United States and Australia explore the complexity of Shields s work and her contributions to the genre of the novel These lively essays reflect Shields s verve and her playful approach to today s sophisticated critical thinking Among the topics are Shields s use of biography and autobiography metafiction popular romance and symbolism While the essays foreground the unreliability of language and hence our inability to know one another or even ourselves the contributors argue that Shields has taken a step beyond postmodernism by suggesting that we can transcend the limitations of its epistemology Containing several essays on Swann and The Stone Diaries Shields s most popular works and the most extensive annotated bibliography available of works by and about Shields this collection will appeal widely to scholars students and readers of Carol Shields and Canadian fiction

Literary Satire in the Novels of Thomas Love Peacock Dorothy Brannen,1951 Conflict and Colonialism in 21st Century Romantic Historical Fiction Hsu-Ming Teo,Paloma Fresno-Calleja,2024-06-13 This book explores how postmillennial Anglophone women writers use romantic narrativisations of history to explore revise repurpose and challenge the past in their novels exposing the extent to which past societies were damaging to women by instead imagining alternative histories The novelists discussed employ the generic conventions of romance to narrate their understanding of historical and contemporary injustice and to reflect upon women s achievements and the price they paid for autonomy and a life of public purpose The volume seeks firstly to discuss the work of revision or reparation being performed by romantic historical fiction and secondly to analyse how the past is being repurposed for use in the present It contends that the discourses and genre of romance work to provide a reparative reading of the past but there are limitations and entrenched problems in such readings consciously emulated him Cervantes's influence upon British literature emerges as decidedly the deepest of any writer outside of English and very possibly of any writer since the Renaissance

The Ethics of Sex and Alzheimer's John Portmann, 2013-07-18 A growing epidemic Alzheimer's punishes not only its victims but also those married to them This book analyzes how Alzheimer's is quietly transforming the way we think about love today Without meaning to become rebels many people who find themselves married to Alzheimer's deflate the predominant notion of a conventional marriage By falling in love again before their ill spouse dies those married to Alzheimer's come into conflict with central values of Western civilization personal sexual familial religious and political Those who wait sadly for a spouse's death must sometimes wonder if the show of fidelity is necessary and whom it helps Most books on Alzheimer's focus on those who have it as opposed to those who care for someone with it This book offers a powerful and searching meditation on the extent to which someone married to Alzheimer's should be expected to suffer loneliness The diagnosis of dementia should not amount to a prohibition of sexual activity for both spouses Portmann encourages readers to risk honesty in assessing the moral dilemma using high profile cases such as Nancy Reagan and Justice Sandra Day O'Connor to illustrate the enormity of the problem Ideal for classes considering the ethics of aging and sexuality

The Cinematic Novel and Postmodern Pop Fiction Décio Torres Cruz, 2019-12-05 D cio Torres Cruz approaches connections between literature and cinema partly through issues of gender and identity and partly through issues of reality and representation In doing so he looks at the various ways in which people have thought of the so called cinematic novel tracing the development of that genre concept not only in the French cin roman and film scenarios but also in novels from the United States England France and Latin America The main tendency he identifies is the blending of the cinematic novel with pop literature through allusions to Pop Art and other postmodern cultural trends His prime exhibits are a number of novels by the Argentinian writer Manuel Puig Betrayed by Rita Hayworth Heartbreak Tango The Buenos Aires Affair Kiss of the Spider Woman and Pubis angelical Bringing in suggestive sociocultural and psychoanalytical considerations Cruz shows how in Puig s hands the cinematic novel resulted in a pop collage of different texts films discourses and narrative devices which fused reality and imagination into dream and desire Jet Li

Into the Closet Victoria Flanagan, 2013-08-21 Into the Closet examines the representation of cross dressing in a wide variety of children's fiction ranging from picture books and junior fiction to teen films and novels for young adults It provides a comprehensive analysis of the different types of cross dressing found in children's narratives raising a number of significant issues relating to the ideological construction of masculinity and femininity in books for younger readers Many literary and cultural critics have studied the cultural significance of adult cross dressing yet although cross dressing representations are plentiful in children's literature and film very little critical attention has been paid to this subject to date Into the Closet fills this critical gap Cross dressing demonstrates how gender is symbolically constructed through various items of clothing and apparel It also has the ability to deconstruct notions of problematizing the relationship between sex and gender Into the Closet is an important book for academics teachers and parents because it demonstrates how cross dressing rather than being taboo is frequently used in children's literature and film as a strategy to educate or enculturate children about gender
