Mahoney, 2014-12-10 Part 2 of the Island Temptress story The island village has burned to the ground and the natives are left to assume that Stephen Garrott is to blame But Stephen knows that there is more to this than meets the eye He must find a way to help these people rebuild before the winter storms arrive while protecting the woman he loves from a man bent on destruction This short novelette is approximately 14 700 words Love and War Tom Digby, 2014-10-28 Ideas of masculinity and femininity become sharply defined in war reliant societies resulting in a presumed enmity between men and women This so called battle of the sexes intensifies in tandem with dispositions to fight actual wars These are among the fascinating discoveries Tom Digby shares in Love and War which describes the making and manipulation of gender in both militaristic and nonmilitaristic societies and the consequences for men and women in their personal romantic sexual and professional lives Drawing on cross cultural comparisons and examples from popular media including sports culture the rise of gonzo and bangbus pornography and Internet trolls Digby shows how misogyny and toughness are deployed to construct masculinity in ways that undermine relations between women and men Through diverse philosophical methodologies he identifies the cultural elements that contribute to heterosexual antagonism such as an enduring faith in male force to solve problems the glorification of violent men who suppress caring emotions the devaluation of men's physical and emotional lives an imaginary gender binary male privilege premised on the subordination of women and the use of misogyny to encourage masculine behavior Digby tracks the collateral damage of this disabling misogyny in the lives of both men and women but ends on a hopeful note He ultimately finds the link between war and gender to be dissolving in many societies war is becoming degendered and gender is becoming demilitarized David in Love and War Randall C. Bailey, 1990-01-01 Of Love and War Angela Wanhalla, 2023 Between 1942 and 1945 more than two million servicemen occupied the southern Pacific theater the majority of whom were Americans in service with the U S Army Navy Air Force and Marines During the occupation

American servicemen married approximately 1 800 women from New Zealand and the island Pacific creating legal bonds through marriage and through children Additionally American servicemen fathered an estimated four thousand nonmarital children with Indigenous women in the South Pacific Command Area In Of Love and War Angela Wanhalla details the intimate relationships forged during wartime between women and U S servicemen stationed in the South Pacific traces the fate of wartime marriages and addresses consequences for the women and children left behind Paying particular attention to the experiences of women in New Zealand and in the island Pacific including Tonga Fiji Samoa and the Cook Islands Of Love and War aims to illuminate the impact of global war on these women their families and Pacific societies Wanhalla argues that Pacific war brides are an important though largely neglected cohort whose experiences of U S military occupation expand our understanding of global war By examining the effects of American law on the marital opportunities of couples their ability to reunite in the immediate postwar years and the citizenship status of any children born of wartime relationships Wanhalla makes a significant contribution to a flourishing scholarship concerned with the intersections between race gender sexuality and militarization in the World War II era Screening Love and War in Troy: Fall of a City Antony
