Windy City Queer Kathie Bergquist, 2011-11-05 The contributions of the Midwest and specifically Chicago to LGBTQ literature have been invaluable yet largely uncelebrated over the last century. This anthology charts a map of queer Chicago and showcases its thriving urban arts community which boasts a unique history, legacy and sensibility deeply rooted in the urban Midwest. Here is a first rate collection of queer voices from Chicago's literary landscape. Celebrated writers Edmund White, Achy Obejas, Sharon Bridgforth, Brian Bouldrey, E. Patrick Johnson, Carol Anshaw, David Trinidad and Mark Zubro are joined by emerging voices from the queer literary scene. These pieces span all literary genres from fiction and poetry to memoir and essays and portray a full gamut of gay Chicago lives from the everyday to the quirky, from public spectacles to quiet intimacies, from family life to nightlife, from dating to marriage, from loving to mourning. The writing that comprises this volume, which seeks to claim a queer space on the literary continuum, is surprising, smart, hilarious and heart wrenching. I grew up in and I'm married to Los Angeles. I had a ten year long hot affair with my adopted home NYC but I have to admit I really left my diasporic midwestern gay heart in Chicago. Windy City Queer is a wonderful deepening of our national imagination about one of our greatest cities and regions. Tim Miller, author of Body Blows and 1001 Beds.

Heat and Alterity in Contemporary Dance Ananya Chatterjea, 2020-10-28 This book argues that contemporary dance, imagined to have a global belonging, is vitiated by euro-white constructions of risk and currency that remain at its core. Differently, the book reimagines contemporary dance along a South-South axis as a polycentric, justice-oriented aesthetic, temporal category with intersectional understandings of difference as a central organizing principle. Placing alterity and heat generated via multiple pathways at its center, it foregrounds the work of South-South artists who push against constructions of tradition and white-centered aesthetic imperatives to reinvent their choreographic toolkit and respond to urgent questions of their times. In recasting the grounds for a different global stage, the argument widens its scope to indicate how dance-making both indexes current contextual inequities and broader relations of social, economic, political and cultural power and inaugurates future dimensions of justice. Winner of the 2022 Oscar G. Brockett Prize for Dance Research.
