Luftwaffe Night Fighter Units 1939-45:

Luftwaffe night fighter units, 1939-45 Jerry Scutts, 1978 Nachtjäger David P. Williams, 2021 This is a compendium edition of the much regarded and long out of print Nachtjäger volumes in the acclaimed Classic Colour series on the aircraft camouflage and markings of the Luftwaffe between 1933-1945. The book focuses on the operations and the aircraft of the Nachtjagd from its origins in the inter war years through its desperate and climactic battles against the massed raids of RAF Bomber Command from 1943 onwards. The force evolved from using single seat Bf 109s to twin engined Bf 110s and Ju 88s with advanced radar equipment and weapons systems supported by a sophisticated ground reporting network. It produced many leading night fighter aces such as Wolfgang Falck, Heinz Wolfgang Schnaufer and Helmut Lent. As the war progressed and the strategic situation began to tilt away from Germany's favor, so ironically the pace of development quickened with the Luftwaffe introducing updated versions of the Ju 88 as well as new types such as the Do 217 and He 219 alongside the tactical innovation of Wilde Sau night fighting which saw the return of single seat Bf 109s and Fw 190s. In the last desperate months of the war even the Me 262 was introduced as a night fighter in limited numbers. Nachtjäger is an important resource for modellers and students of Luftwaffe history providing a detailed narrative augmented by many photographs and specially commissioned color profiles. Luftwaffe Night Fighter Combat Claims, 1939-1945 John Foreman, Simon W.

Parry, Johannes Matthews, 2003 A definitive list of nearly 7 000 claims submitted by Luftwaffe night fighter pilots for Allied aircraft shot down in WW2. These claims are listed with the following details: Date, Time, Location, Type of aircraft shot down, Claiming Pilot and his Unit. Entries feature claims against Russian, American as well as Bomber Command aircraft.

Nachtjäger David P. Williams, 2005 Night Fighter Aces of the Luftwaffe 1943-45 Neil Page, Jean-Louis Roba, 2025-06-30 Features color profiles by acclaimed aviation artist Claes Sundin. The week long Allied bombing campaign against Hamburg in late July 1943 was not only hugely destructive but also had a significant impact on the German night fighter arm. From now on the boxes of Kammhuber's Raumnachtjagd would be the starting point from which fighters would be led into the bomber stream as early as possible, a tactic dubbed Zahme Sau. The night fighters had to quickly adopt new freelance procedures and also found themselves increasingly engaged in daylight operations. These actions resulted in heavy losses especially of experienced aces which the Nachtjagd could ill afford and struggled to replace. The winter of 1943-44 saw a series of huge raids on Berlin. Although hard pressed the Nachtjagd aces were still able to score some heavy tactical victories. Over a thousand RAF Viermots were shot down, more than double the expected losses before the campaign was cut short. New night fighter aces emerged, often former transport and reconnaissance pilots, and the upward firing armament of the Bf 110s and Ju 88s could cut swathes through the stream. However by mid 1944 as the Allies advanced the night fighter aces were forced into new roles including ground strafing armor and troop concentrations, a role for which they were clearly unsuited. A small number of Me 262 jets were deployed in a new NJG 11 but exclusively committed against the rapid twin engined Mosquitos of the RAF's Light Night Striking Force Heinkel He 219s were never available in significant numbers and prowling Mosquito intruders were an ever present danger to Nachtjagd crews While the surviving night fighter aces continued their defensive actions virtually every night by March 1945 the Nachtjagd was in terminal decline Of the 1 100 night fighter pilots and crew who claimed at least one victory some 669 were lost a casualty rate of around 74 percent Fully illustrated and featuring newly translated personal accounts this is a chronological account of the Luftwaffe night fighters in the second part of the war covering major campaigns the biographies of individual aces and the details of their aircraft

Luftwaffe Night Fighter Units 1939-45 Jerry Scutts,1978-07-15 This book traces the combat history of the Luftwaffe night fighter units of World War 2 Major aircraft types are all covered and their most remarkable missions detailed Aircraft markings and aircrew uniforms are shown in full colour illustrations

Luftwaffe Special Weapons 1942-45 Robert Forsyth,2021-06-10 A highly illustrated study of some of the weapons developed by Nazi Germany to equip the Luftwaffe in their desperate war against the encroaching Allied forces As the course of World War II turned against the Third Reich after Stalingrad some of the most inventive and radical proposals and designs were put forward by armaments manufacturers scientists and technicians aircrew and even private individuals to the Reichsluftministerium German Air Ministry for consideration Some proposals were destined never to leave the drawing board while others not only underwent trials but were issued to operational units and used in action In this fascinating new book leading Luftwaffe historian Robert Forsyth examines the many different types of weapons that comprised the Luftwaffe's increasingly potent arsenal during the second half of the war This was the period that saw the development and adoption of aerial torpedoes wire guided rockets and missiles batteries fired by photo electric cells chemical weapons composite bombers and air launched flying bombs Aces of the Luftwaffe Peter Jacobs,2014-09-03 A history of Nazi Germany's air force along with details of some of its most successful pilots World War II's air battles were fought ferociously and with extraordinary skill and courage on both fronts The fighter pilots of Luftwaffe the jagdflieger in fact outscored their Allied counterparts by some margin and were some of the highest scoring fighter pilots of all time More than a hundred recorded a century of aerial successes with two going on to surpass an astonishing 300 victories In the end the vast effort required by the Luftwaffe to maintain the air war on so many fronts proved too much Few jagdflieger survived the last days of the Reich But their ability was beyond question and the names of some will live on in the annals of air warfare with their extraordinary achievements never to be surpassed In Aces of the Luftwaffe Peter Jacobs examines the many campaigns fought by the Luftwaffe from its fledgling days during the Spanish Civil War to its last days defending the Reich and recounts the exploits of Erich Hartmann the highest scoring fighter pilot of all time Hans Joachim Marseille the Star of Africa Werner Molders the first recipient of the Diamonds and Adolf Galland perhaps the most famous of all

response to RAF Bomber Command raids On 10 May 1940 the Wehrmacht launched its assault on the West One element of the West's response was the dispatch of RAF Bomber Command heavy bombers at night over German industrial centers These raids had only limited effectiveness but the inability of the Luftwaffe to chase down RAF bombers at night so annoyed Wolfgang Falck that it swiftly resulted in the creation of a credible night fighter force Initial trials had been flown with Bf 110s at dusk in Denmark in April and 1 Nachtjagd Division was founded in the summer of 1940 Its first few months were chaotic with constant reorganizations of units and reassignment of aircraft but soon enough the night fighter arm was achieving steady victories and losing crews at a similarly steady rate Despite the efforts of senior leadership the Nachtjagd constantly struggled to secure sufficient personnel or aircraft and would spend most of its life playing catch up its radar systems regularly outdone by RAF Bomber Command's jamming capabilities though the development of Schräge Musik and Wilde Sau did give the Nachtjagd an edge The first specialist Luftwaffe night fighter the Heinkel He 219 would be trialled only in 1943 Fully illustrated this is a full chronological account of the night fighter units for the first part of World War II covering major campaigns the biographies of individual aces and the details of the technology developed for the Nachtjagd
