comedies and film noir masterpieces The director's staggering output of 180 films surpasses that of the legendary John Ford and exceeds the combined total of films directed by George Cukor Victor Fleming and Howard Hawks In the first biography of this colorful instinctual artist Alan K Rode illuminates the life and work of one of the film industry's most complex figures He explores the director's little known early life and career in his native Hungary revealing how Curtiz shaped the earliest days of silent cinema in Europe before immigrating to the United States in 1926 In Hollywood Curtiz earned a reputation for explosive tantrums his difficulty with English and disregard for the well being of others However few directors elicited more memorable portrayals from their casts and ten different actors delivered Oscar nominated performances under his direction In addition to his study of the director's remarkable legacy Rode investigates Curtiz's dramatic personal life discussing his enduring creative partnership with his wife screenwriter Bess Meredyth as well as his numerous affairs and children born of his extramarital relationships This meticulously researched biography provides a nuanced understanding of one of the most talented filmmakers of Hollywood's golden age American Film and the Feminine Ideal, 1895-1930 Larry C.
