Orozco Velazquez, 2025-09-23 Adding nuance to the story of the photographer's brilliant career by detailing his collaborations with some of the biggest names in Mexican art Manuel Alvarez Bravo 1902 2002 was a Mexican photographer and one of the most significant figures in twentieth century Latin American art This book challenges the persistent myth of Bravo as a singular genius by foregrounding the artist's connections with some of the greatest minds of his day and by looking at the photographer's long career through the lens of projects he created with others The book considers many kinds of collaboration including Lola Alvarez Bravo's contributions to the artist's early photographs the mentoring he received from Tina Modotti his portraits of Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera his work in the film industry during the Golden Age of Mexican Cinema alongside Luis Buñuel and Gabriel Figueroa his mentoring of Graciela Iturbide and his book project with Octavio Paz The intention is not to suggest that working together is always better than working alone Indeed the essays in this volume argue that many of these working partnerships were lopsided providing one figure with substantially greater agency than the other What rises to the surface is the idea that collaboration is an inherent part of the creative process particularly in the field of photography Distributed for the Des Moines Art Center Exhibition Schedule Des Moines Art Center October 25 2025 January 18 2026
