Arias, Ensembles, & Choruses John Yaffé, David Daniels, 2011-11-17 Conductors John Yaffé and David Daniels have created a one stop sourcebook for orchestras opera companies conductors and librarians who research and or prepare programs of vocal excerpts such as solos ensembles and choruses for concert performance In this book readers will find detailed information on a vast repertoire of vocal pieces commonly extracted from operas operettas musicals and oratorios more than 1 750 excerpts from 450 parent works Modeled on Daniels Orchestral Music Arias Ensembles Choruses includes basic historical details about each parent work as well as extract titles subtitles voice types keys durations locations in the original work with page numbers in both full scores and piano vocal scores and exact instrumentation It also lists the publishers that make available the orchestral materials for just the excerpt being programmed independent of the full parent work Until now conductors and orchestra librarians commonly had to first leaf through full scores searching for one elusive three minute aria after another only to then consult multiple publishers catalogues to compile crucial information on all the excerpts proposed for a concert or recording This book constitutes a single source for finding that information In many cases the individual entries include valuable insider information on common performance practice including start and stop points transpositions and conventional cuts Searching for repertoire is made easy with the detailed title index and appendixes devoted to ensemble excerpts all categorized by personnel e g duets trios quartets quintets sextets choruses and language Czech English French German Italian Latin Russian This book is the ideal tool for the working conductor and orchestral librarian as well as music program directors at colleges and conservatories opera companies and symphony orchestras As of October 2015 a new printing of this book has occurred to correct errors in the index A PDF version of the new index is available to previous purchasers of the volume Please contact Rowman Littlefield s music editor for assistance Max Reger and Historicist Modernisms Antonius Bittmann, 2004 The first comprehensive English language account of Reger s oeuvre Antonius Bittmann emphatically revises misconceptions about Reger s music which has often been stigmatized because of its indebtedness to earlier composers especially Brahms As Bittmann argues Reger does not turn to historical models in order to preserve or reconstitute antiquated musical languages rather viewing himself as a horseman riding steadfastly to the left Reger appropriates the musical past for the most modern ends Reflecting upon conflicting notions of musical progress the Phantasie und Fuge ber den Namen B A C H Op 46 relies on revered traditions to restore cultural health whereas his Fourth Violin Sonata Op 72 adulterates its compositional models with epithets Reger s desire to escape the shadow of his great predecessors is evident in works that manifest an aesthetic and intellectual current that probe the psychological underpinnings of creation and reception of art leading him to eschew history altogether Taking a strong interest in reception history Bittmann reassesses Reger s work by drawing on a wide array of interdisciplinary sources in literary criticism philosophy and cultural history The Creative Development of Johann Sebastian Bach, Volume II: 1717-1750

Held every summer at the Royal Albert Hall in London, it is one of the strongest brand names in the music world and attracts a glittering array of artists and orchestras from the UK and around the world. Whether you're a first time visitor or an experienced Prommer watching at home or listening on radio or online, the BBC Proms Guide is an excellent companion to the festival which you can treasure and return to in years to come. Filled with concert listings and articles by leading writers, the BBC Proms Guide offers an insight into the performers and repertoire as well as thought provoking opinion pieces about music, musicians and music making. The contents for 2023 include a specially commissioned short story by Man Booker Prize nominated author Madeleine Thien, an exploration of the mysterious art of conducting and an investigation of the connections between music and the human body and spirit, including a mental health Proms playlist. We celebrate the unashamedly Romantic and nostalgically bittersweet music of Sergey Rachmaninov 150 years after his death, we throw the spotlight on Samuel Coleridge Taylor and Dora Pejačević, Croatia's first major woman composer, and we delve into the sonic space dust of experimental legend György Ligeti whose music Stanley Kubrick used to otherworldly effect in 2001: A Space Odyssey, The Shining and Eyes Wide Shut. Plus hear from an array of Proms artists in our series of Spotlight interviews. Music, Books on Music, and Sound Recordings Library of Congress, 1989
