Women of Color Elizabeth Brown-Guillory, 2010-06-28 Interest in the mother daughter relationship has never been greater yet there are few books specifically devoted to the relationships between daughters and mothers of color To fill that gap this collection of original essays explores the mother daughter relationship as it appears in the works of African American Asian American Mexican American Native American Indian and Australian Aboriginal women writers Prominent among the writers considered here are Toni Morrison Alice Walker Maxine Hong Kingston Cherrie Moraga Leslie Marmon Silko and Amy Tan Elizabeth Brown Guillory and the other essayists examine the myths and reality surrounding the mother daughter relationship in these writers works They show how women writers of color often portray the mother daughter dyad as a love hate relationship in which the mother painstakingly tries to convey knowledge of how to survive in a racist sexist and classist world while the daughter rejects her mother's experiences as invalid in changing social times This book represents a further opening of the literary canon to twentieth century women of color Like the writings it surveys it celebrates the joys of breaking silence and moving toward reconciliation and growth The Humor Prism in 20th-century America Joseph Boskin, 1997 The Humor Prism in Twentieth Century America explores to what extent and in what ways American humor in the twentieth century reflects history Why do some jokes evaporate after the telling while others are transmitted to subsequent generations Just what property of humor allows it to touch diverse members of a culture at a given time As a penetrating and refracting angle of history humor illuminates the expectations and contradictions of society its anxieties and confusions and permits perspective into any historic moment The Humor Prism in Twentieth Century America explores to what extent and in what ways American humor in the twentieth century reflects history examining the dynamics and disguised messages behind humor The first section of this volume concentrates on patterns of humor in the twentieth century Section two looks at the power and politics of women s humor and at multicultural humor The final section presents and evaluates the major joke cycles from the post World War II period to the 1990s as responses to profound social and economic change such as Polish jokes and JAP jokes Inscribing Difference and Resistance Martina
