New York Magazine, 1994-10-10 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

The Cambridge Handbook of the International Psychology of Women Fanny M. Cheung, Diane F. Halpern, 2020-08-06 There is a growing knowledge base in understanding the differences and similarities between women and men as well as the diversities among women and sexualities Although genetic and biological characteristics define human beings conventionally as women and men their experiences are contextualized in multiple dimensions in terms of gender sexuality class age ethnicity and other social dimensions Beyond the biological and genetic basis of gender differences gender intersects with culture and other social locations which affect the socialization and development of women across their life span This handbook provides a comprehensive and up to date resource to understand the intersectionality of gender differences to dispel myths and to examine gender relevant as well as culturally relevant implications and appropriate interventions Featuring a truly international mix of contributors and incorporating cross cultural research and comparative perspectives this handbook will inform mainstream psychology of the international literature on the psychology of women and gender

Mothers and Children Susan E. Chase, Mary Frances Rogers, 2001 Motherhood is a highly personal array of experiences with a uniquely public dimension preoccupying policymakers advice givers health care providers religious leaders child care workers educators and total strangers who feel entitled to judge mothers they see with their children in the neighborhood or on the TV news Chase U of Tulsa and Rogers U of West Florida approach motherhood and mothering as feminist sociologists focusing on questions such as how ideas about motherhood are shaped by social and historical conditions how ideas about motherhood change over time and across social contexts who has the power to make their definitions of motherhood stick and what diverse groups of mothers themselves think Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Speaking of Sex Deborah L. Rhode, 1999 Speaking of Sex explores a topic that frequently is absent from our discussions about sex the persistence of sex based inequality and the cultural forces that sustain it On critical issues affecting women most Americans deny either that gender inequality is a serious problem or that it is one which they have a personal or political responsibility to address In tracing this no problem problem Speaking of Sex examines the most fundamental causes of women's disadvantages and the inadequacy of current public policy to combat them
