Santos Statues & Sculpture Laurie Beth Kalb,1988      Santos Statues Sculpture Art Museum (Los Angeles) Folk Art Council,Ethnic Art Council of Los Angeles,1988      Santos Statues & Sculpture Laurie Beth Kalb,1988      Tradiciones Nuevomexicanas Mary Caroline Montaña,2001 A comprehensive overview of New Mexican folk arts from the 16th century to the present time      American Folk Art Kristin G. Congdon,Kara Kelley Hallmark,2012-03-19 Folk art is as varied as it is indicative of person and place informed by innovation and grounded in cultural context The variety and versatility of 300 American folk artists is captured in this collection of informative and thoroughly engaging essays American Folk Art A Regional Reference offers a collection of fascinating essays on the life and work of 300 individual artists Some of the men and women profiled in these two volumes are well known while others are important practitioners who have yet to receive the notice they merit Because many of the artists in both categories have a clear identity with their land and culture the work is organized by geographical region and includes an essay on each region to help make connections visible There is also an introductory essay on U S folk art as a whole Those writing about folk art to date tend to view each artist as either traditional or innovative One of the major contributions of this work is that it demonstrates that folk artists more often exhibit both traits they are grounded in their cultural context and creative in the way they make work their own Such insights expand the study of folk art even as they readjust readers understanding of who folk artists are      The Carver's Art Simon J. Bronner,2021-11-21 Chains carved from a single block of wood cages whittled with wooden balls rattling inside all made with just a pocketknife are among our most enduring folk designs Who makes them and why what is their history what do they mean for their makers for their viewers for our society Simon J Bronner portrays four wood carvers in southern Indiana men who had been transplanted from the rural landscapes of their youth to industrial towns After retiring they took up a skill they remembered from childhood Bronner discusses how creativity helped these men adjust to change and how viewers responses to carving reflect their own backgrounds By recording the narratives of these men s lives the stories and anecdotes that laced their conversation Bronner finds new insight into the functions and symbolism of traditional craft Including anew illustrated afterword in which the author discusses recent developments in the carver s art this new edition will appeal to carvers scholars and anyone interested in traditional woodworking      A Contested Art Stephanie Lewthwaite,2015-10-01 When New Mexico became an alternative cultural frontier for avant garde Anglo American writers and artists in the early twentieth century the region was still largely populated by Spanish speaking Hispanos Anglos who came in search of new personal and aesthetic freedoms found inspiration for their modernist ventures in Hispano art forms Yet when these arrivistes elevated a particular model of Spanish colonial art through their preservationist endeavors and the marketplace practicing Hispano artists found themselves working under a new set of patronage relationships and under new aesthetic expectations that tied their art to a static vision of the Spanish colonial past In A Contested Art historian Stephanie

Lewthwaite examines the complex Hispano response to these aesthetic dictates and suggests that cultural encounters and appropriation produced not only conflict and loss but also new transformations in Hispano art as the artists experimented with colonial art forms and modernist trends in painting photography and sculpture Drawing on native and non native sources of inspiration they generated alternative lines of modernist innovation and mestizo creativity These lines expressed Hispanos cultural and ethnic affiliations with local Native peoples and with Mexico and presented a vision of New Mexico as a place shaped by the fissures of modernity and the dynamics of cultural conflict and exchange A richly illustrated work of cultural history this first book length treatment explores the important yet neglected role Hispano artists played in shaping the world of modernism in twentieth century New Mexico A Contested Art places Hispano artists at the center of narratives about modernism while bringing Hispano art into dialogue with the cultural experiences of Mexicans Chicanas/os and Native Americans In doing so it rewrites a chapter in the history of both modernism and Hispano art Published in cooperation with The William P Clements Center for Southwest Studies Southern Methodist University A Gift of Angels, 2010-09-20 It rises suddenly out of the Sonoran Desert landscape towering over the tallest tree or cactus a commanding building with a sensuous dome elliptical vaults and sturdy bell towers There is nothing else like it around nor does it seem there should be This incongruity of setting is what strikes first time visitors to Mission San Xavier del Bac This great church is of another place and another time while its beauty is universal and timeless Mission San Xavier del Bac is a two century old Spanish church in southern Arizona located just a few miles from downtown Tucson a metropolis of more than half a million people in the American Southwest A National Historic Landmark since 1963 the mission s graceful baroque art and architecture have drawn visitors from all over the world Now Bernard Fontana the leading expert on San Xavier and award winning photographer Edward McCain team up to bring us a comprehensive view of the mission as we ve never seen it before With 200 stunning full color photographs and incisive text illuminating the religious historical and motivational context of these images A Gift of Angels is a must have for tourists scholars and other visitors to San Xavier From its glorious architecture all the way down to the finest details of its art Mission San Xavier del Bac is indeed a gift of angels The Saint Makers Chuck Rosenak, Jan Rosenak, 1998 The Saint Makers is a thorough exploration of the contemporary evolution of religious folk art or santo making in the American Southwest American Studies Jack Salzman, 1990-05-25 This volume supplements the acclaimed three volume set published in 1986 and consists of an annotated listing of American Studies monographs published between 1984 and 1988 There are more than 6 000 descriptive entries in a wide range of categories anthropology and folklore art and architecture history literature music political science popular culture psychology religion science and technology and sociology
